

WASHED ASHORE

— DAY 2 —

The next day, the four friends awoke to a strange and distant sound. Cat quickly attempted to get the attention of the others...

Do you all hear that strange sound?
What should we do?

I am not sure what I heard, but I do not hear anything now. It must have been your imagination.

There! I heard
it, too!

Me too! We should go look for whatever is making that sound. It might be hurt.

You are right, Bear. I am sure we can help
whatever it is.

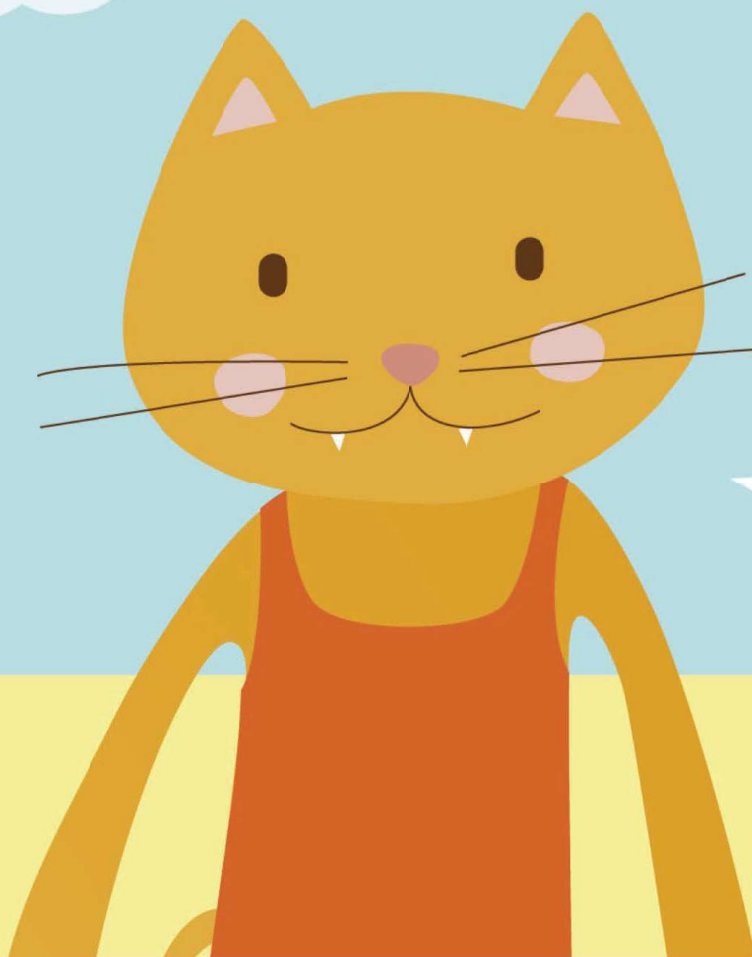

The four friends set off into the jungle
on the island...

What do you think they found?

THE END

With the help of MiniBird, I have all the ideas for the group.

I am the maker. I make anything the group needs.

I am the muscle. I am the strongest of the group.

I am the lord of the sea. I am the master of water.
