

SUMMER
CAMP

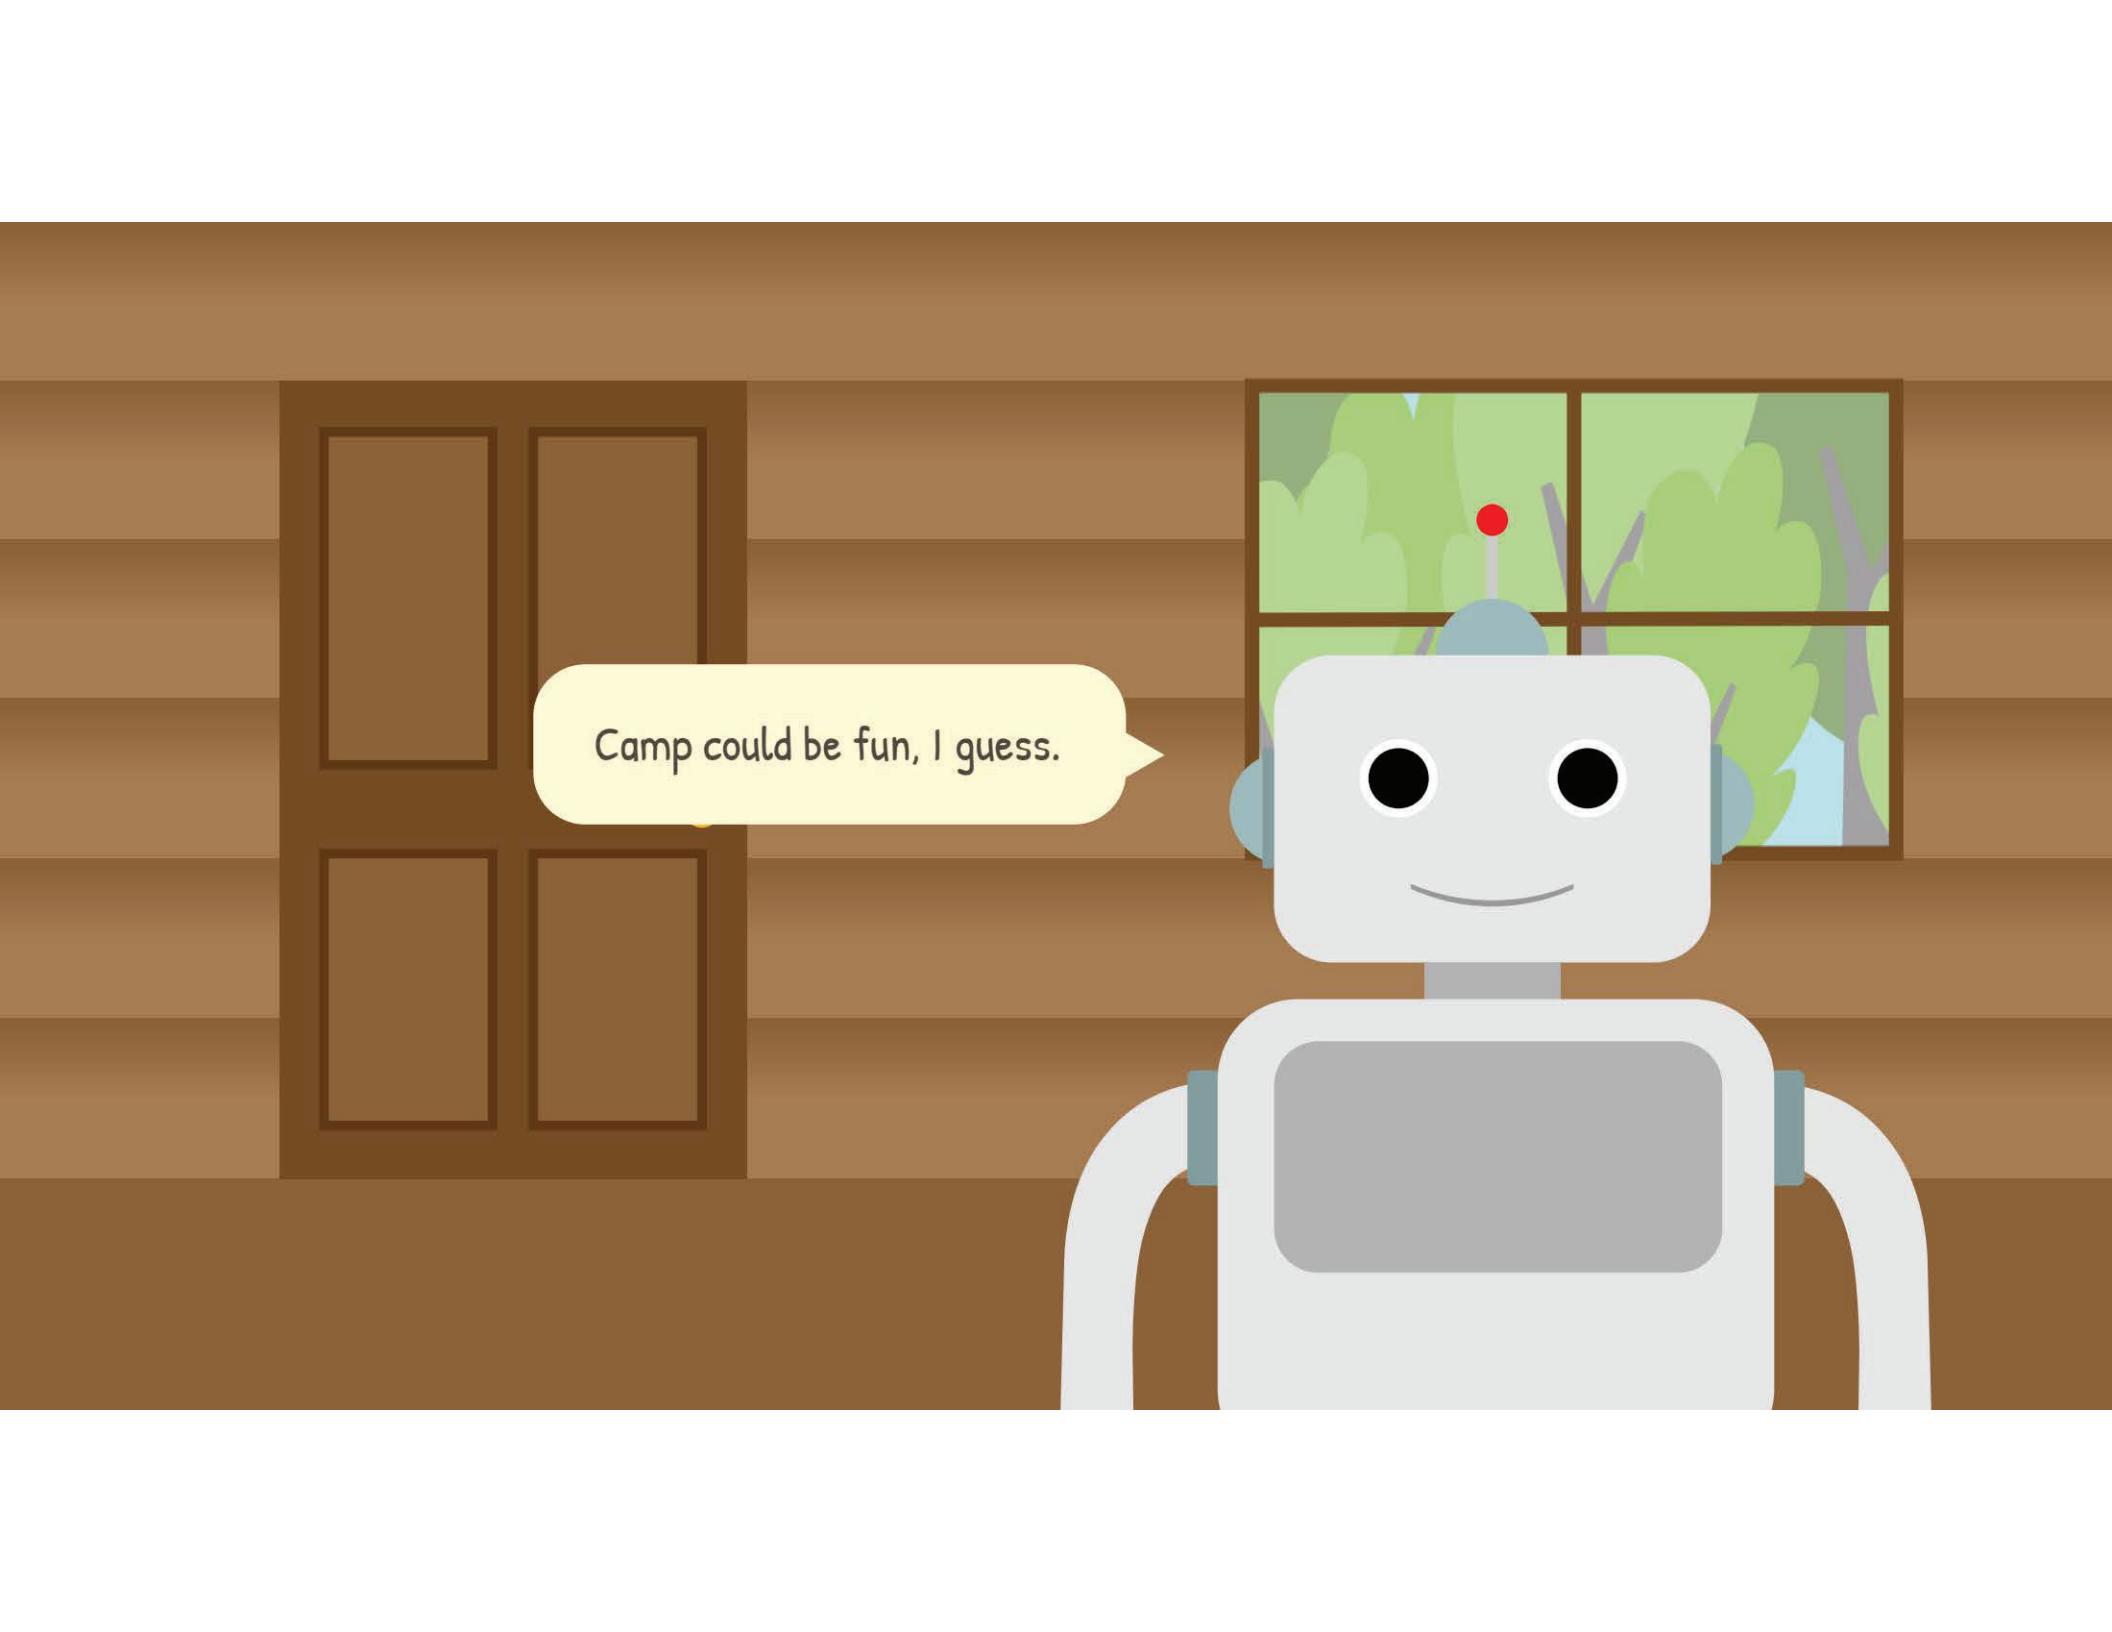

It's the first day of camp, and the campers are just arriving on the bus!
These four campers are all in the same cabin!

Wow! This place is so cool.
They have so many great places to do sports!

I can't wait to do arts and crafts, but... but I'm having a big feeling. I'm scared! There are so many people here, and I don't know anyone! How could I make friends with Robot when they're so much bigger than me?

Camp could be fun, I guess.

It's so great to be back at camp!
I had a ton of fun last year!

The campers unpack their bags and take out their favorite items.

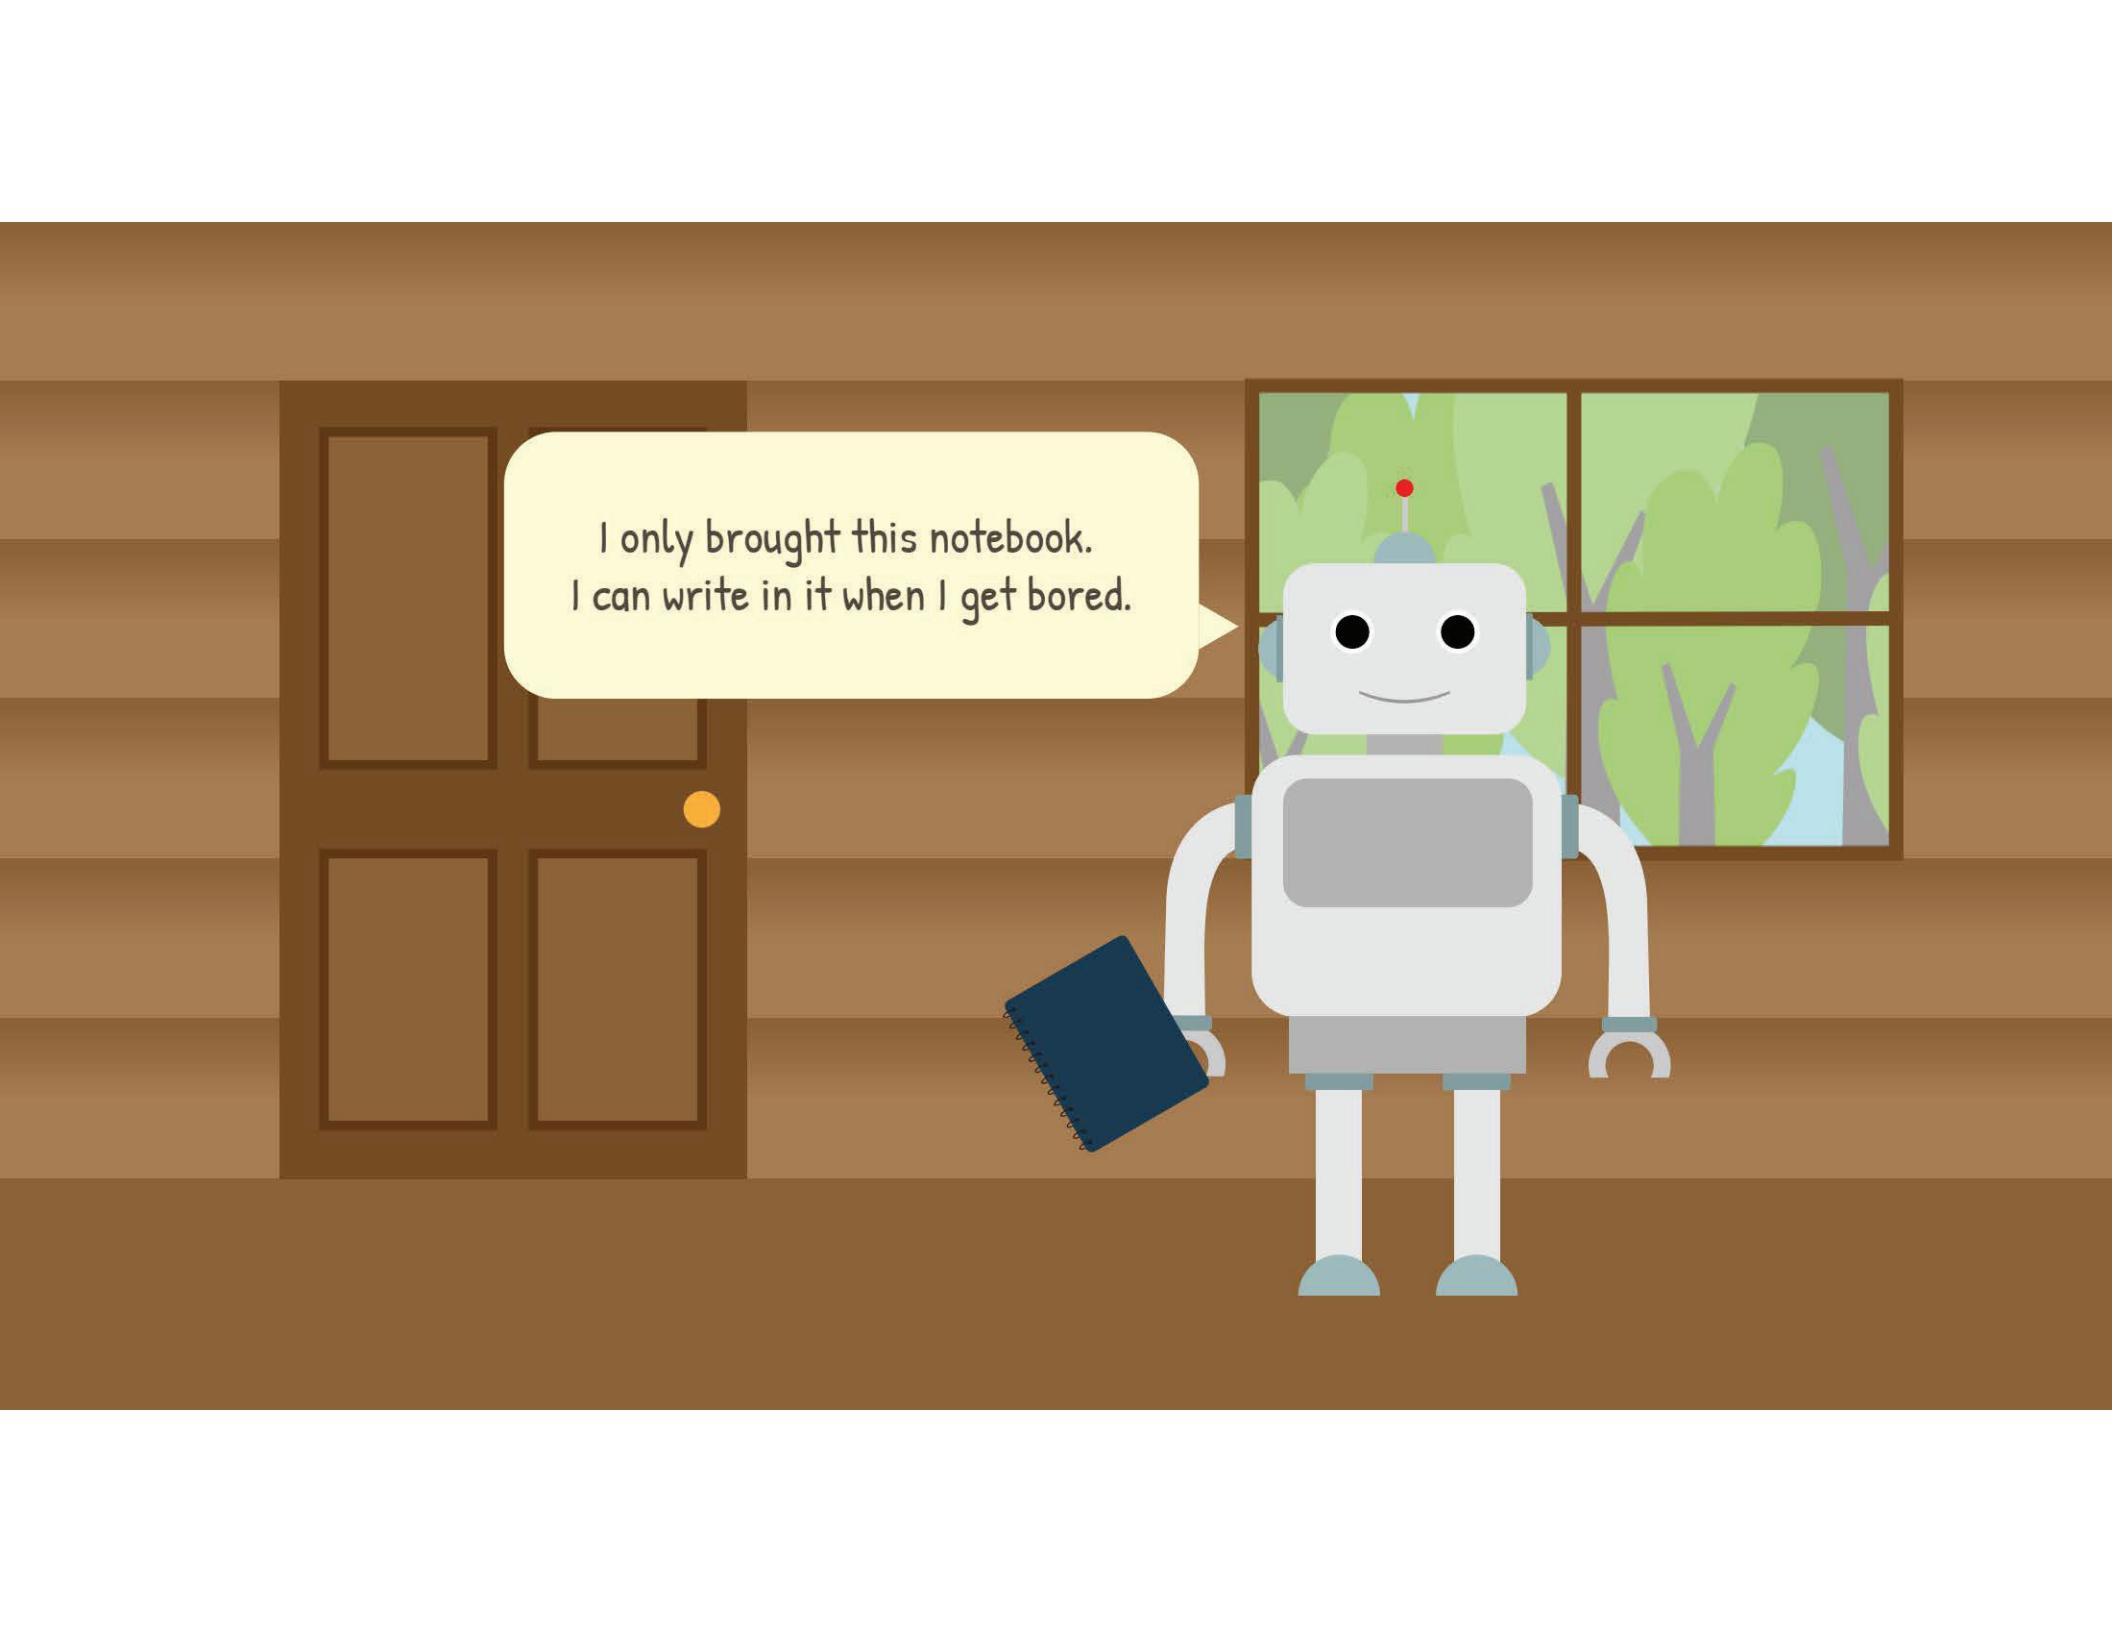

I'm so prepared for camp! I brought all my favorite things! Here is my soccer ball, and my tennis ball, and my volleyball...

At least, it's pretty here. I brought my sketchbook with me. My sketchbook makes me feel better when I'm feeling scared.

I only brought this notebook.
I can write in it when I get bored.

I have everything I need to make friendship bracelets! I still have all of mine from last year, and I can't wait to make more!

I like all your bracelets!
They're so colorful. Did you make them yourself?

No, my friends made them!

Oh, that sounds super fun!

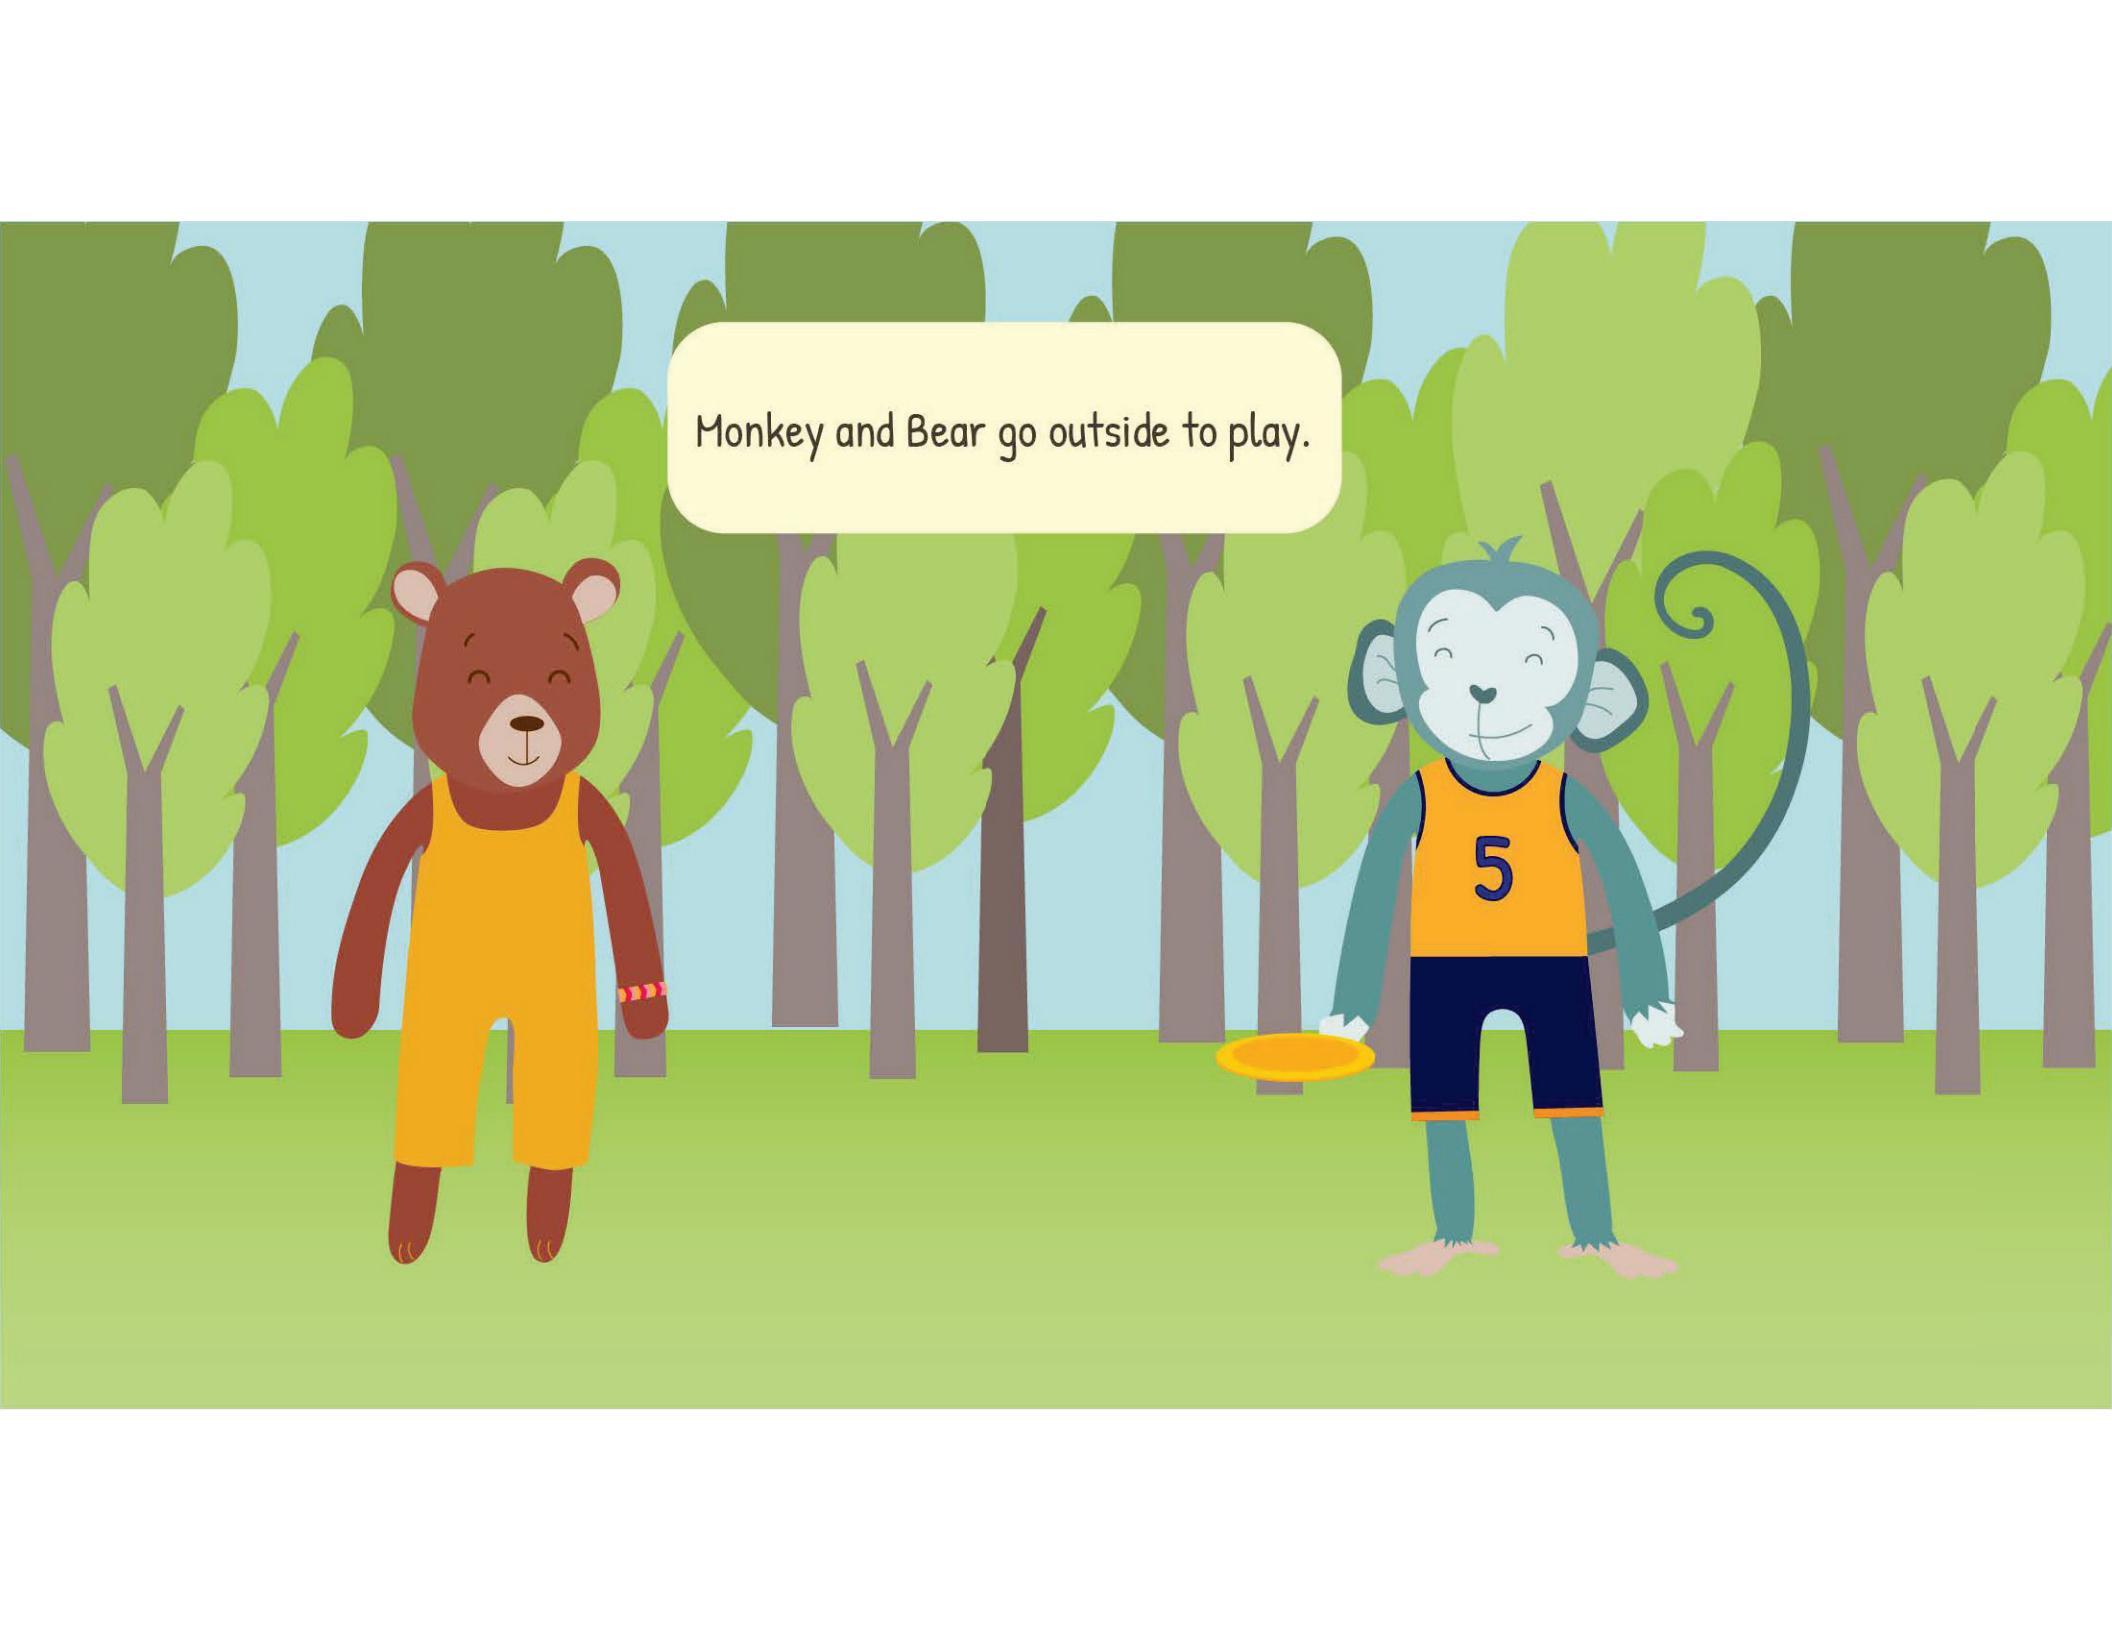

It was fun! I'm a little sad, though... last year, I knew everyone in this cabin. This year, everyone seems so quiet. I want to make new friends, but I don't know where to start.

I do! Do you want to play Frisbee with me?

For sure!

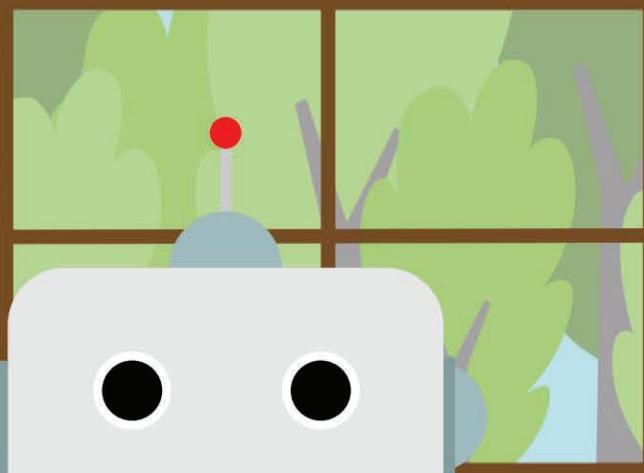

Monkey and Bear go outside to play.

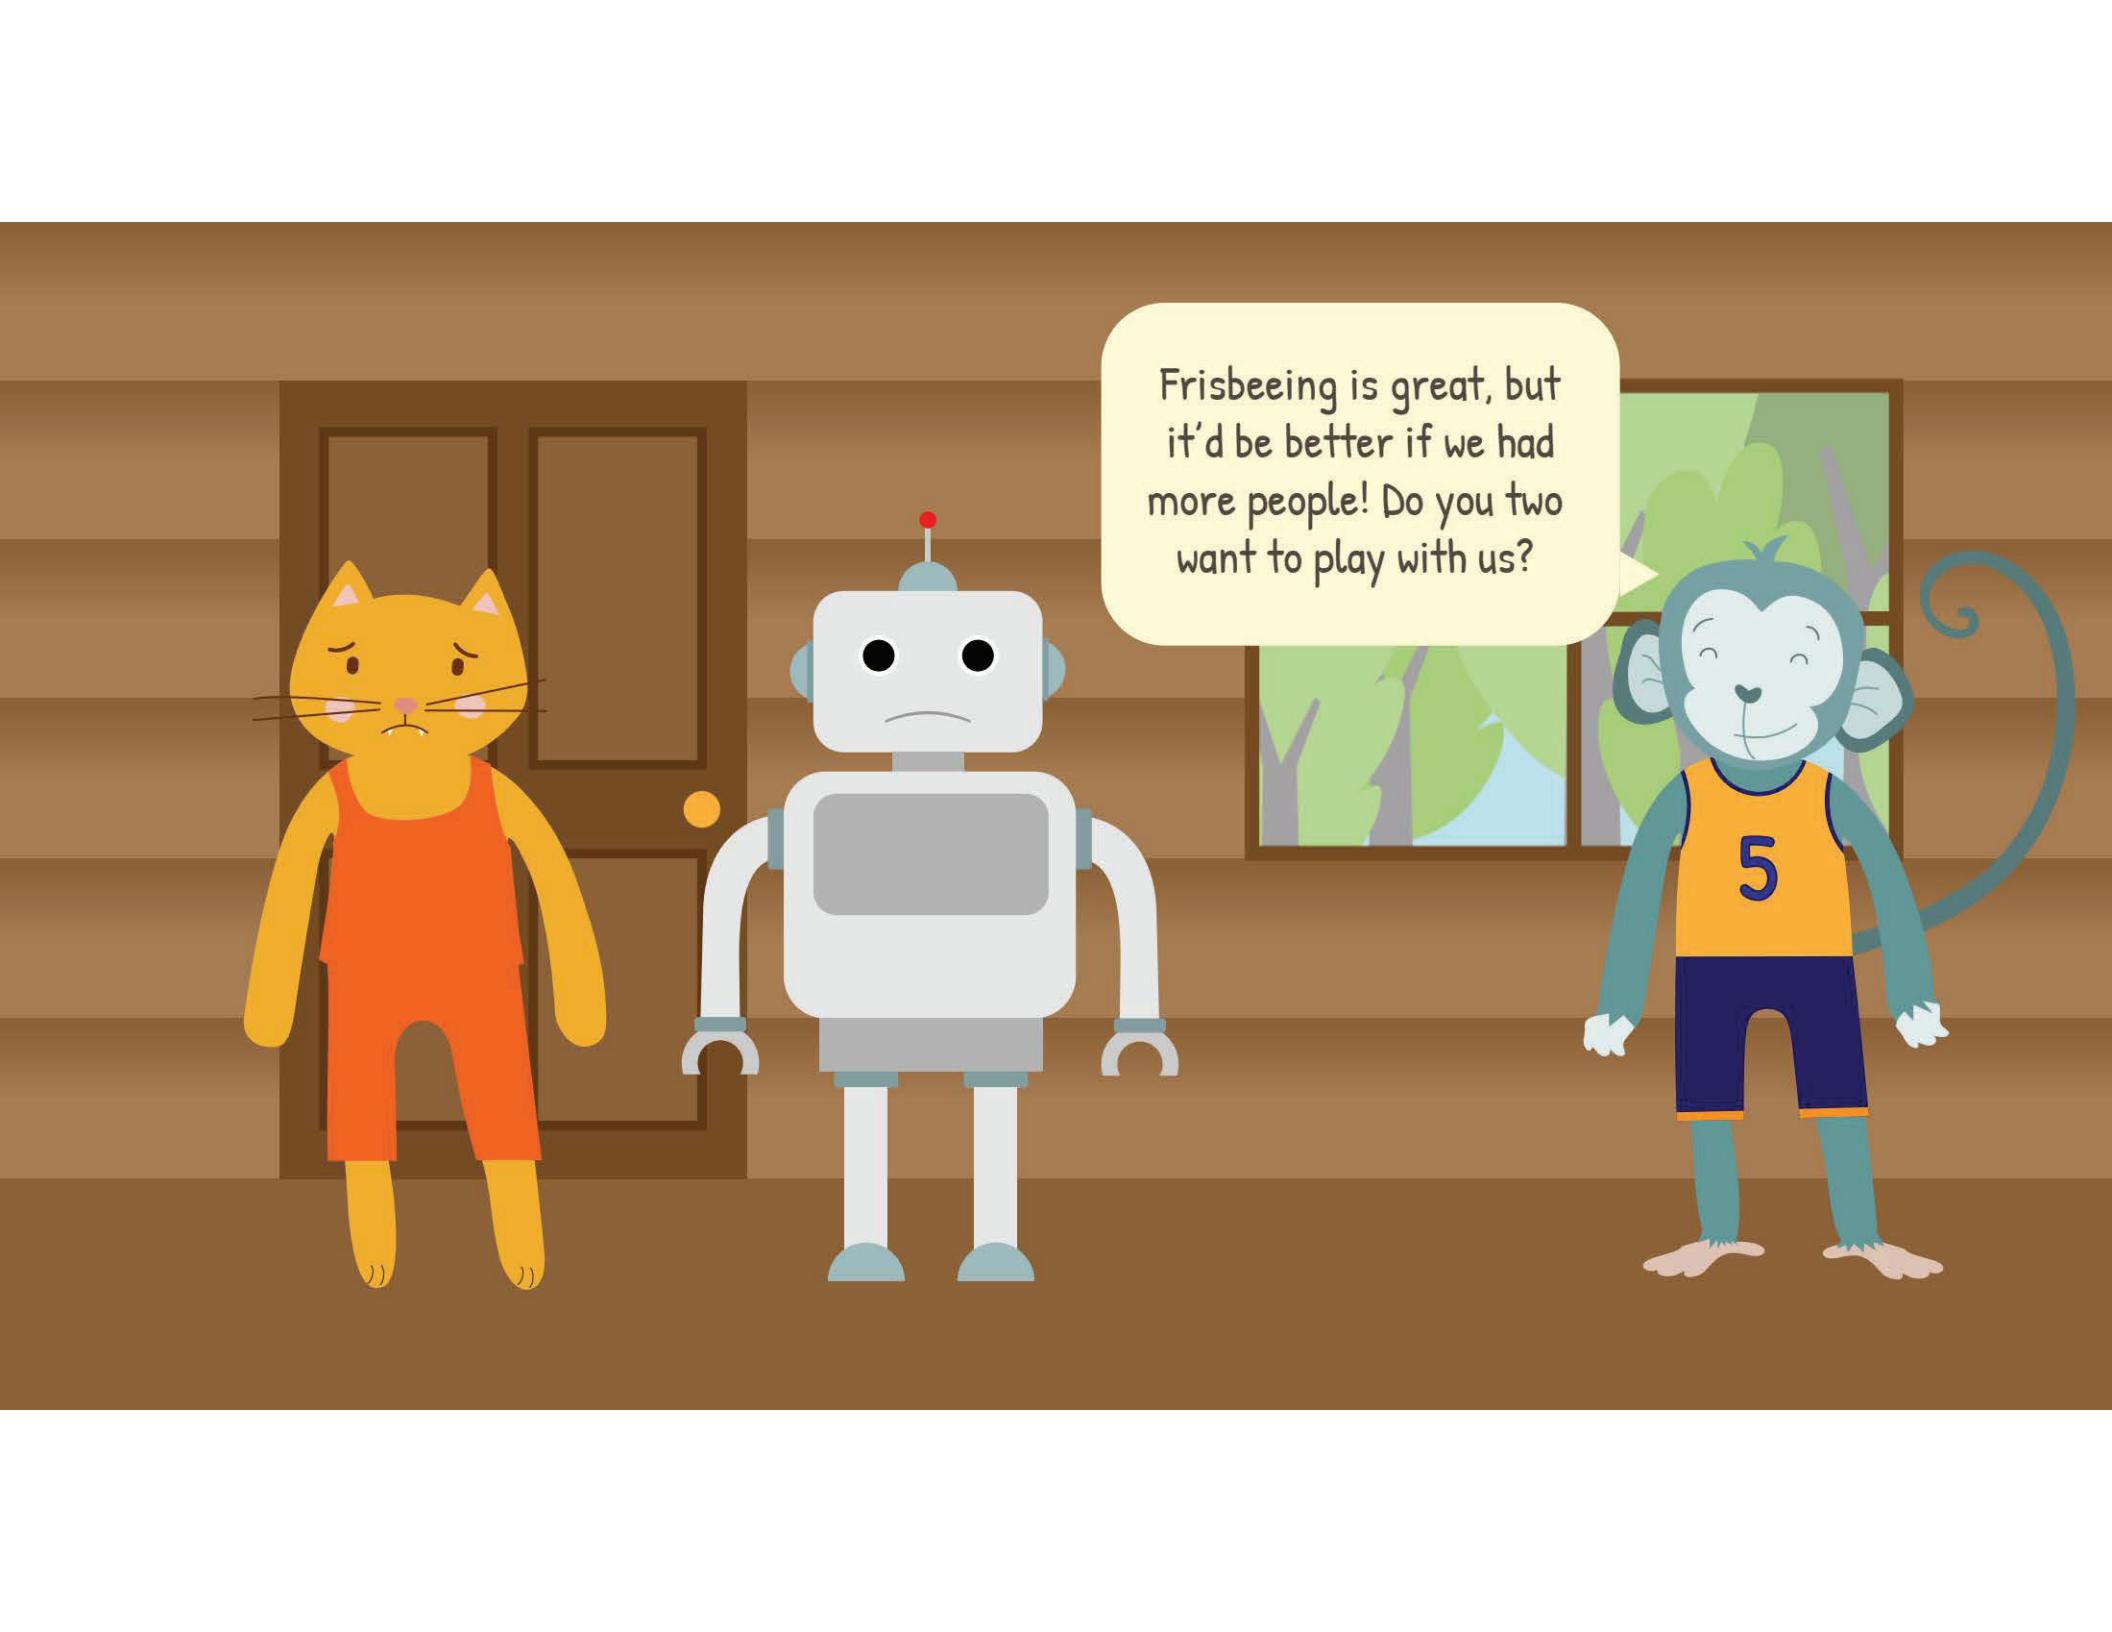

I want to talk to Robot because they look like they could tell good stories, but I feel too shy to go up to say anything. What if they don't want to know me? I think it would be easier to not say anything...

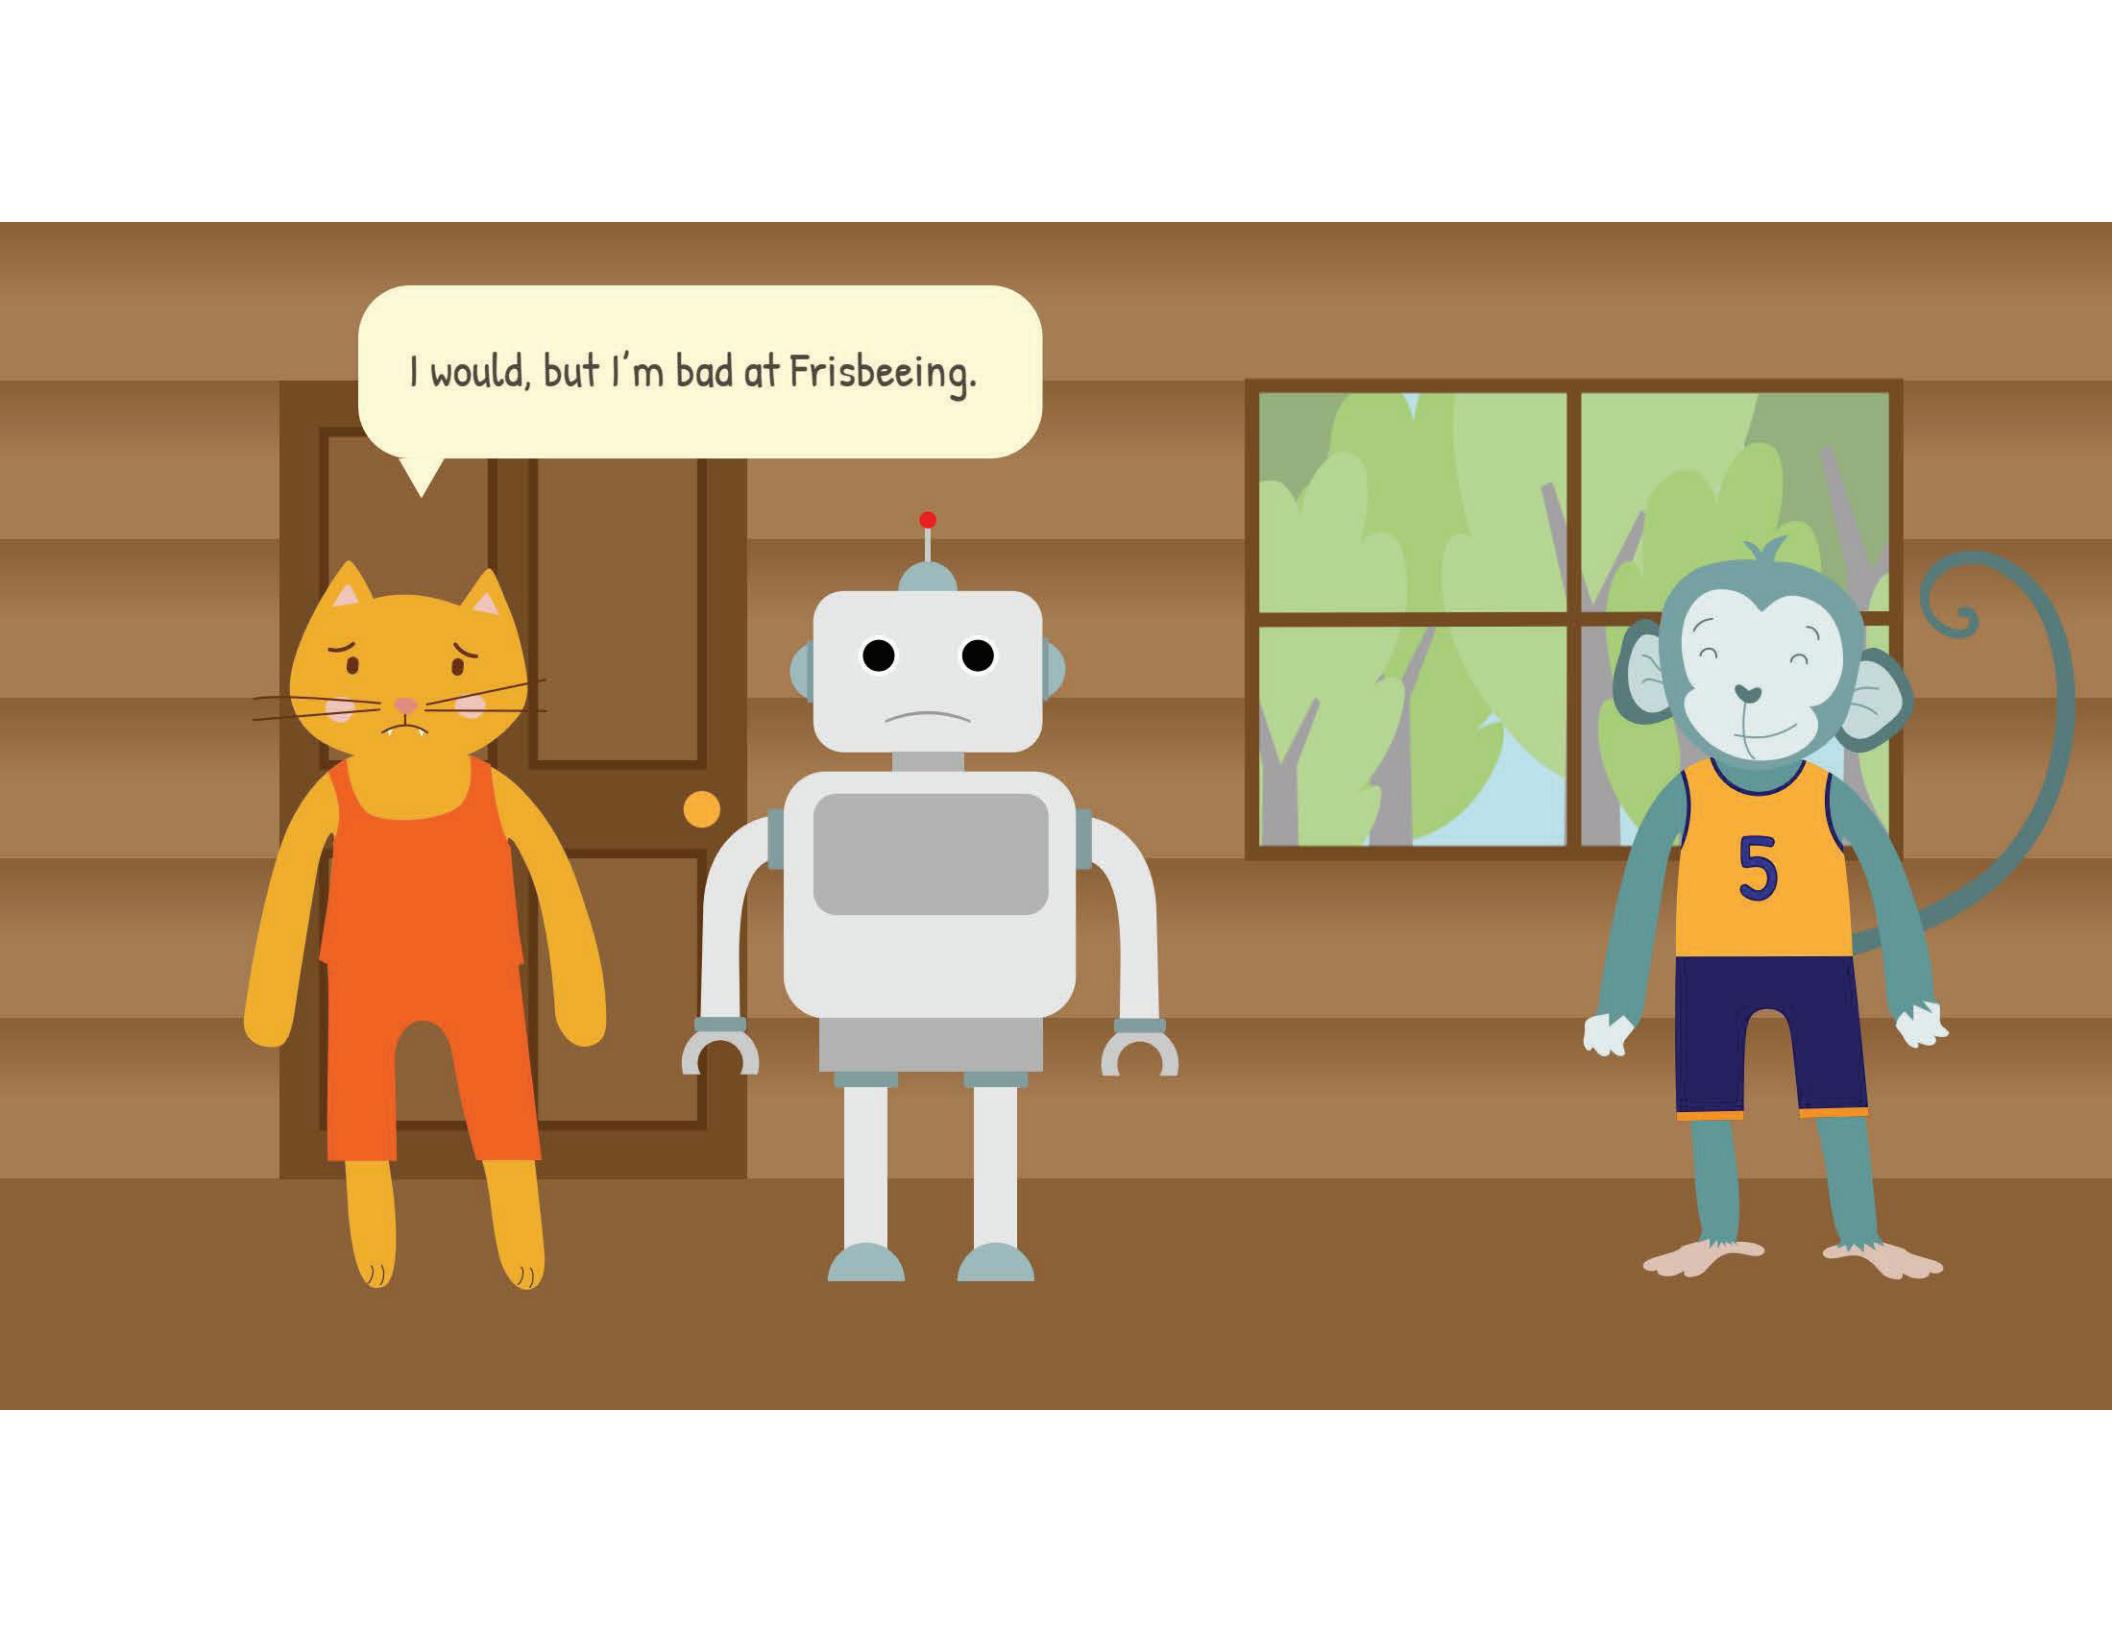

I wish someone would talk to me.
I feel sad nobody has come up.

Monkey comes back inside.

Frisbeeing is great, but it'd be better if we had more people! Do you two want to play with us?

I would, but I'm bad at Frisbeeing.

I can teach you. I played on my school's ultimate Frisbee team.

Wow! Robot is talking to me!
That makes me happy!
I don't feel shy or scared anymore!

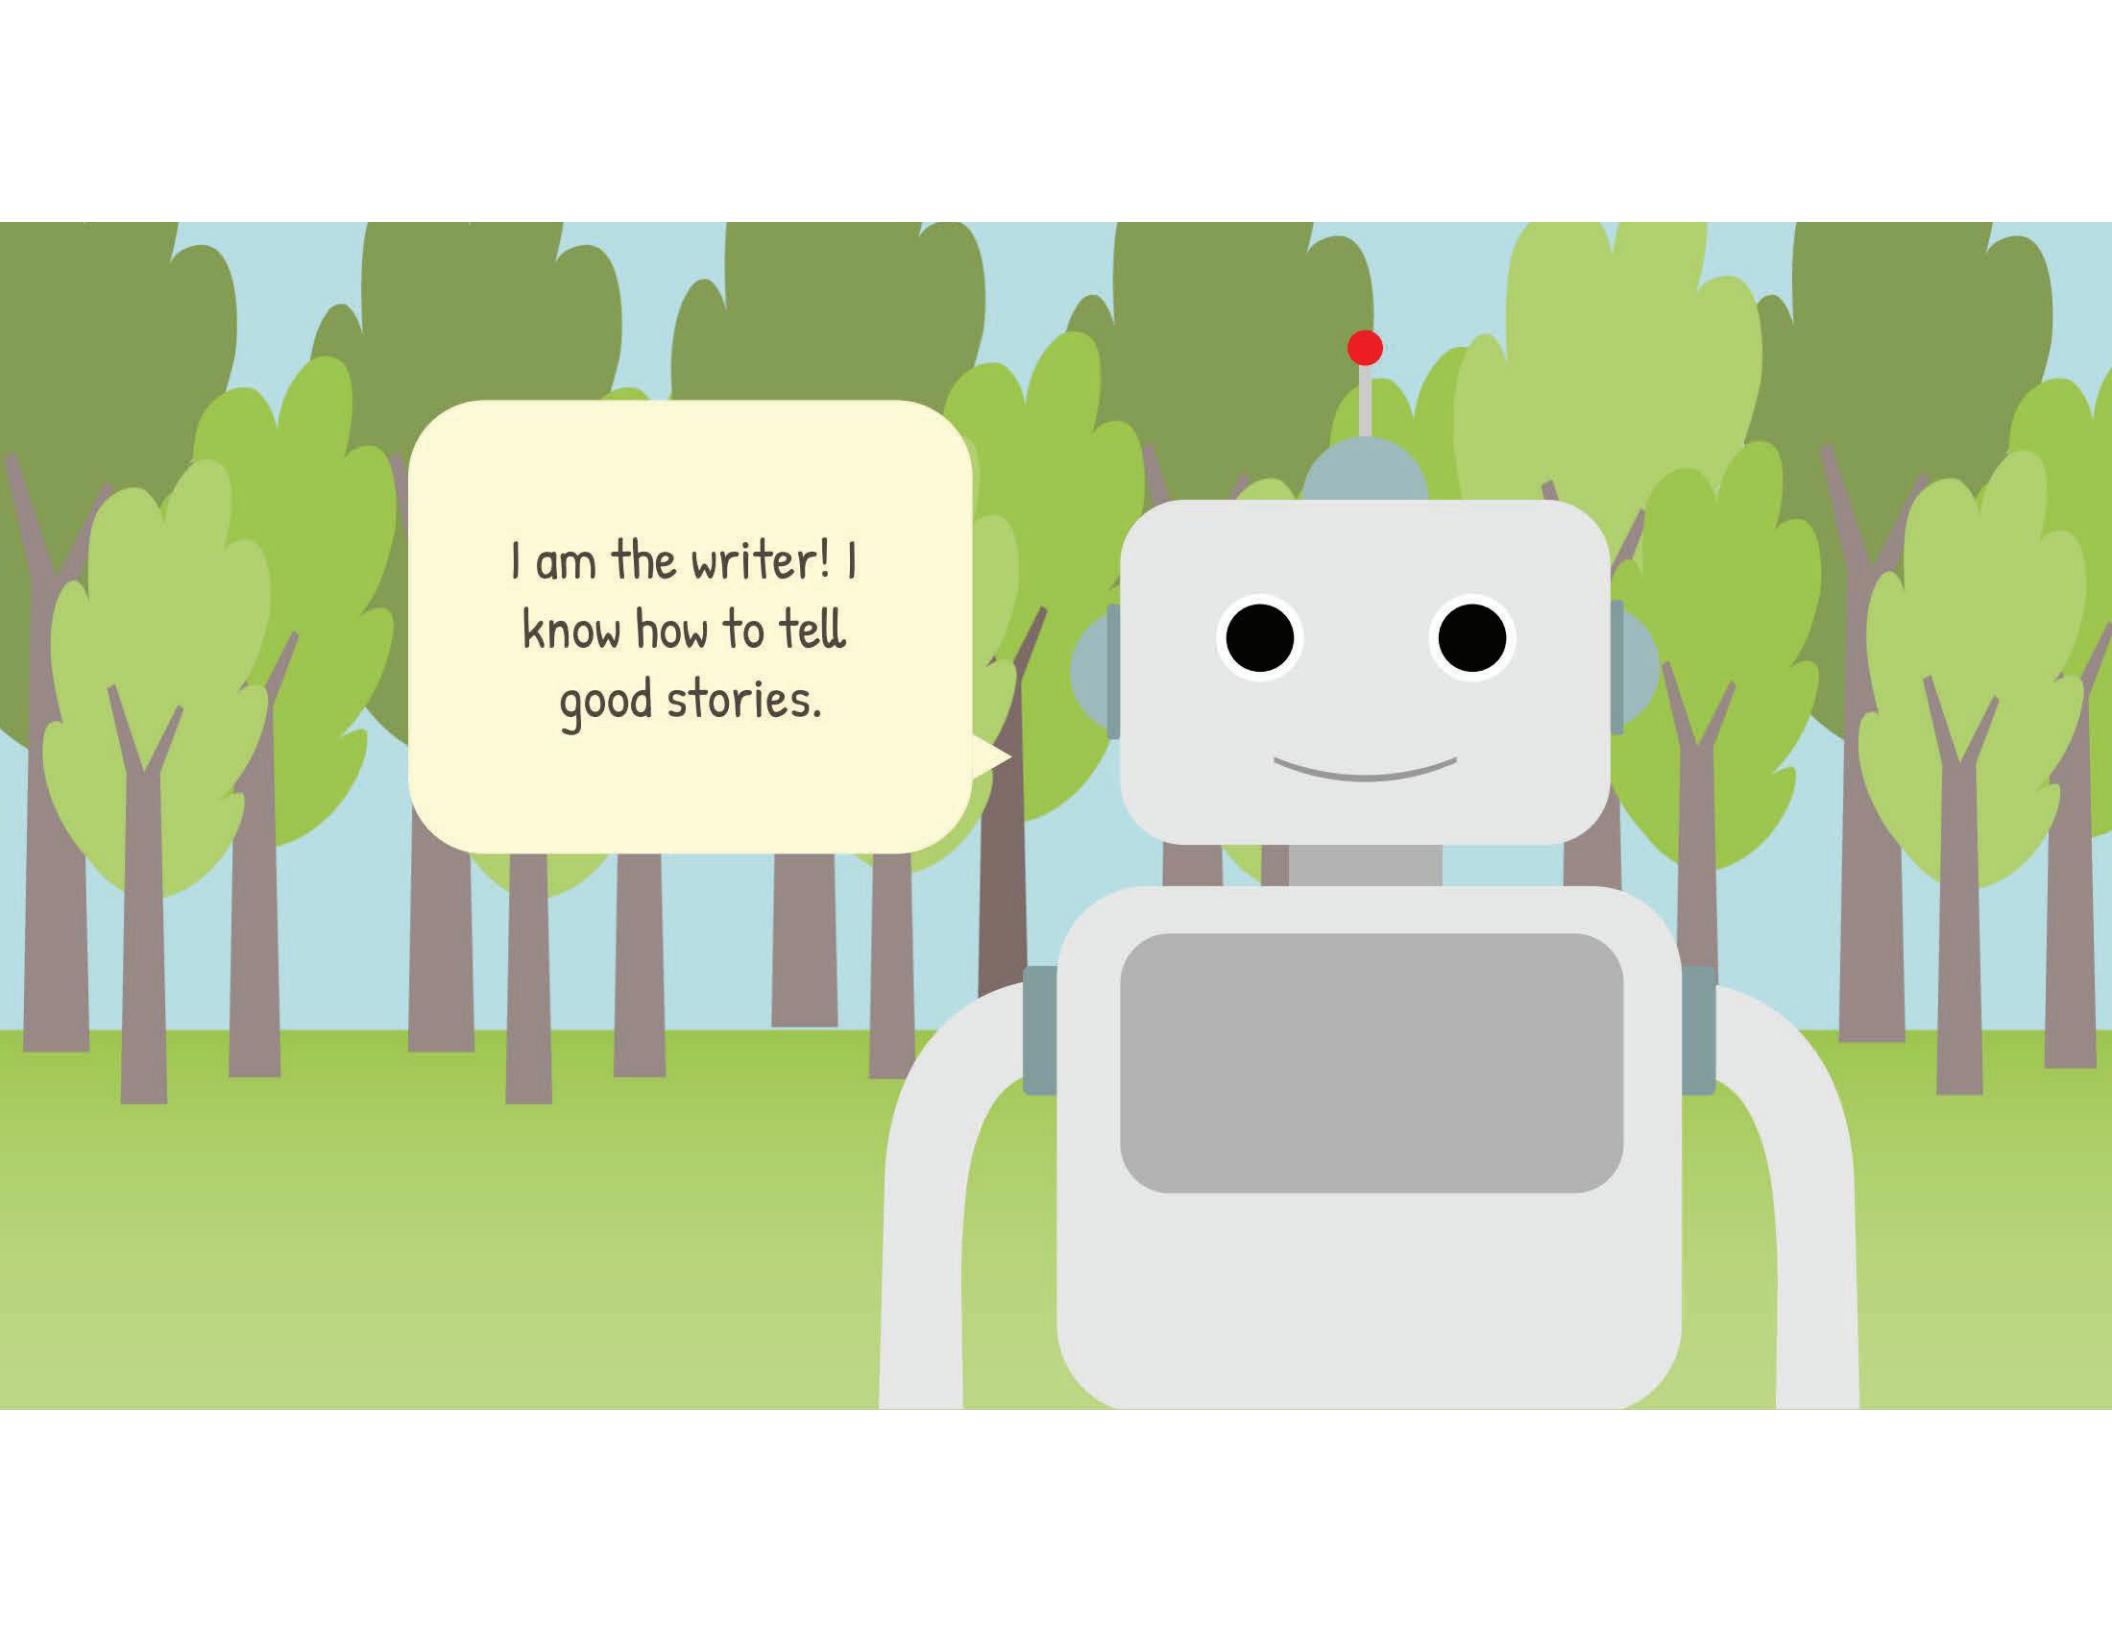

I am the artist!
I can create a lot of beautiful things.

I am the camper!
I know all the secrets of camp.

I am the writer! I know how to tell good stories.

I am the athlete!
I can play any sport!
