

SUGAR WORLD

Hi, MiniBird! I'm so glad you could join us today. Are you excited for your tour of Sugar World?

Yes, I am. Let's go!

Yes, I'm so excited! Where should we go first? What should we see?

Obviously, we should go to Lollipop Land. I've been helping them make new types of lollipops—like bubblegum and root beer. You should try it!

Isn't it almost Halloween? We can always go to Candy Corn Country. We just grew out our Candy Corn maze, and it's a ton of fun! We can spend all day in there.

No. It's not Halloween yet. Besides, we have to start in Chocolate City. I've been practicing for our tournament—we can run, swim, anything!

But what if I wanted to start in Gummy Bear Gorge? Starting somewhere else would be silly when it's so close to us right now, and I just moved into a new house! We can check it out.

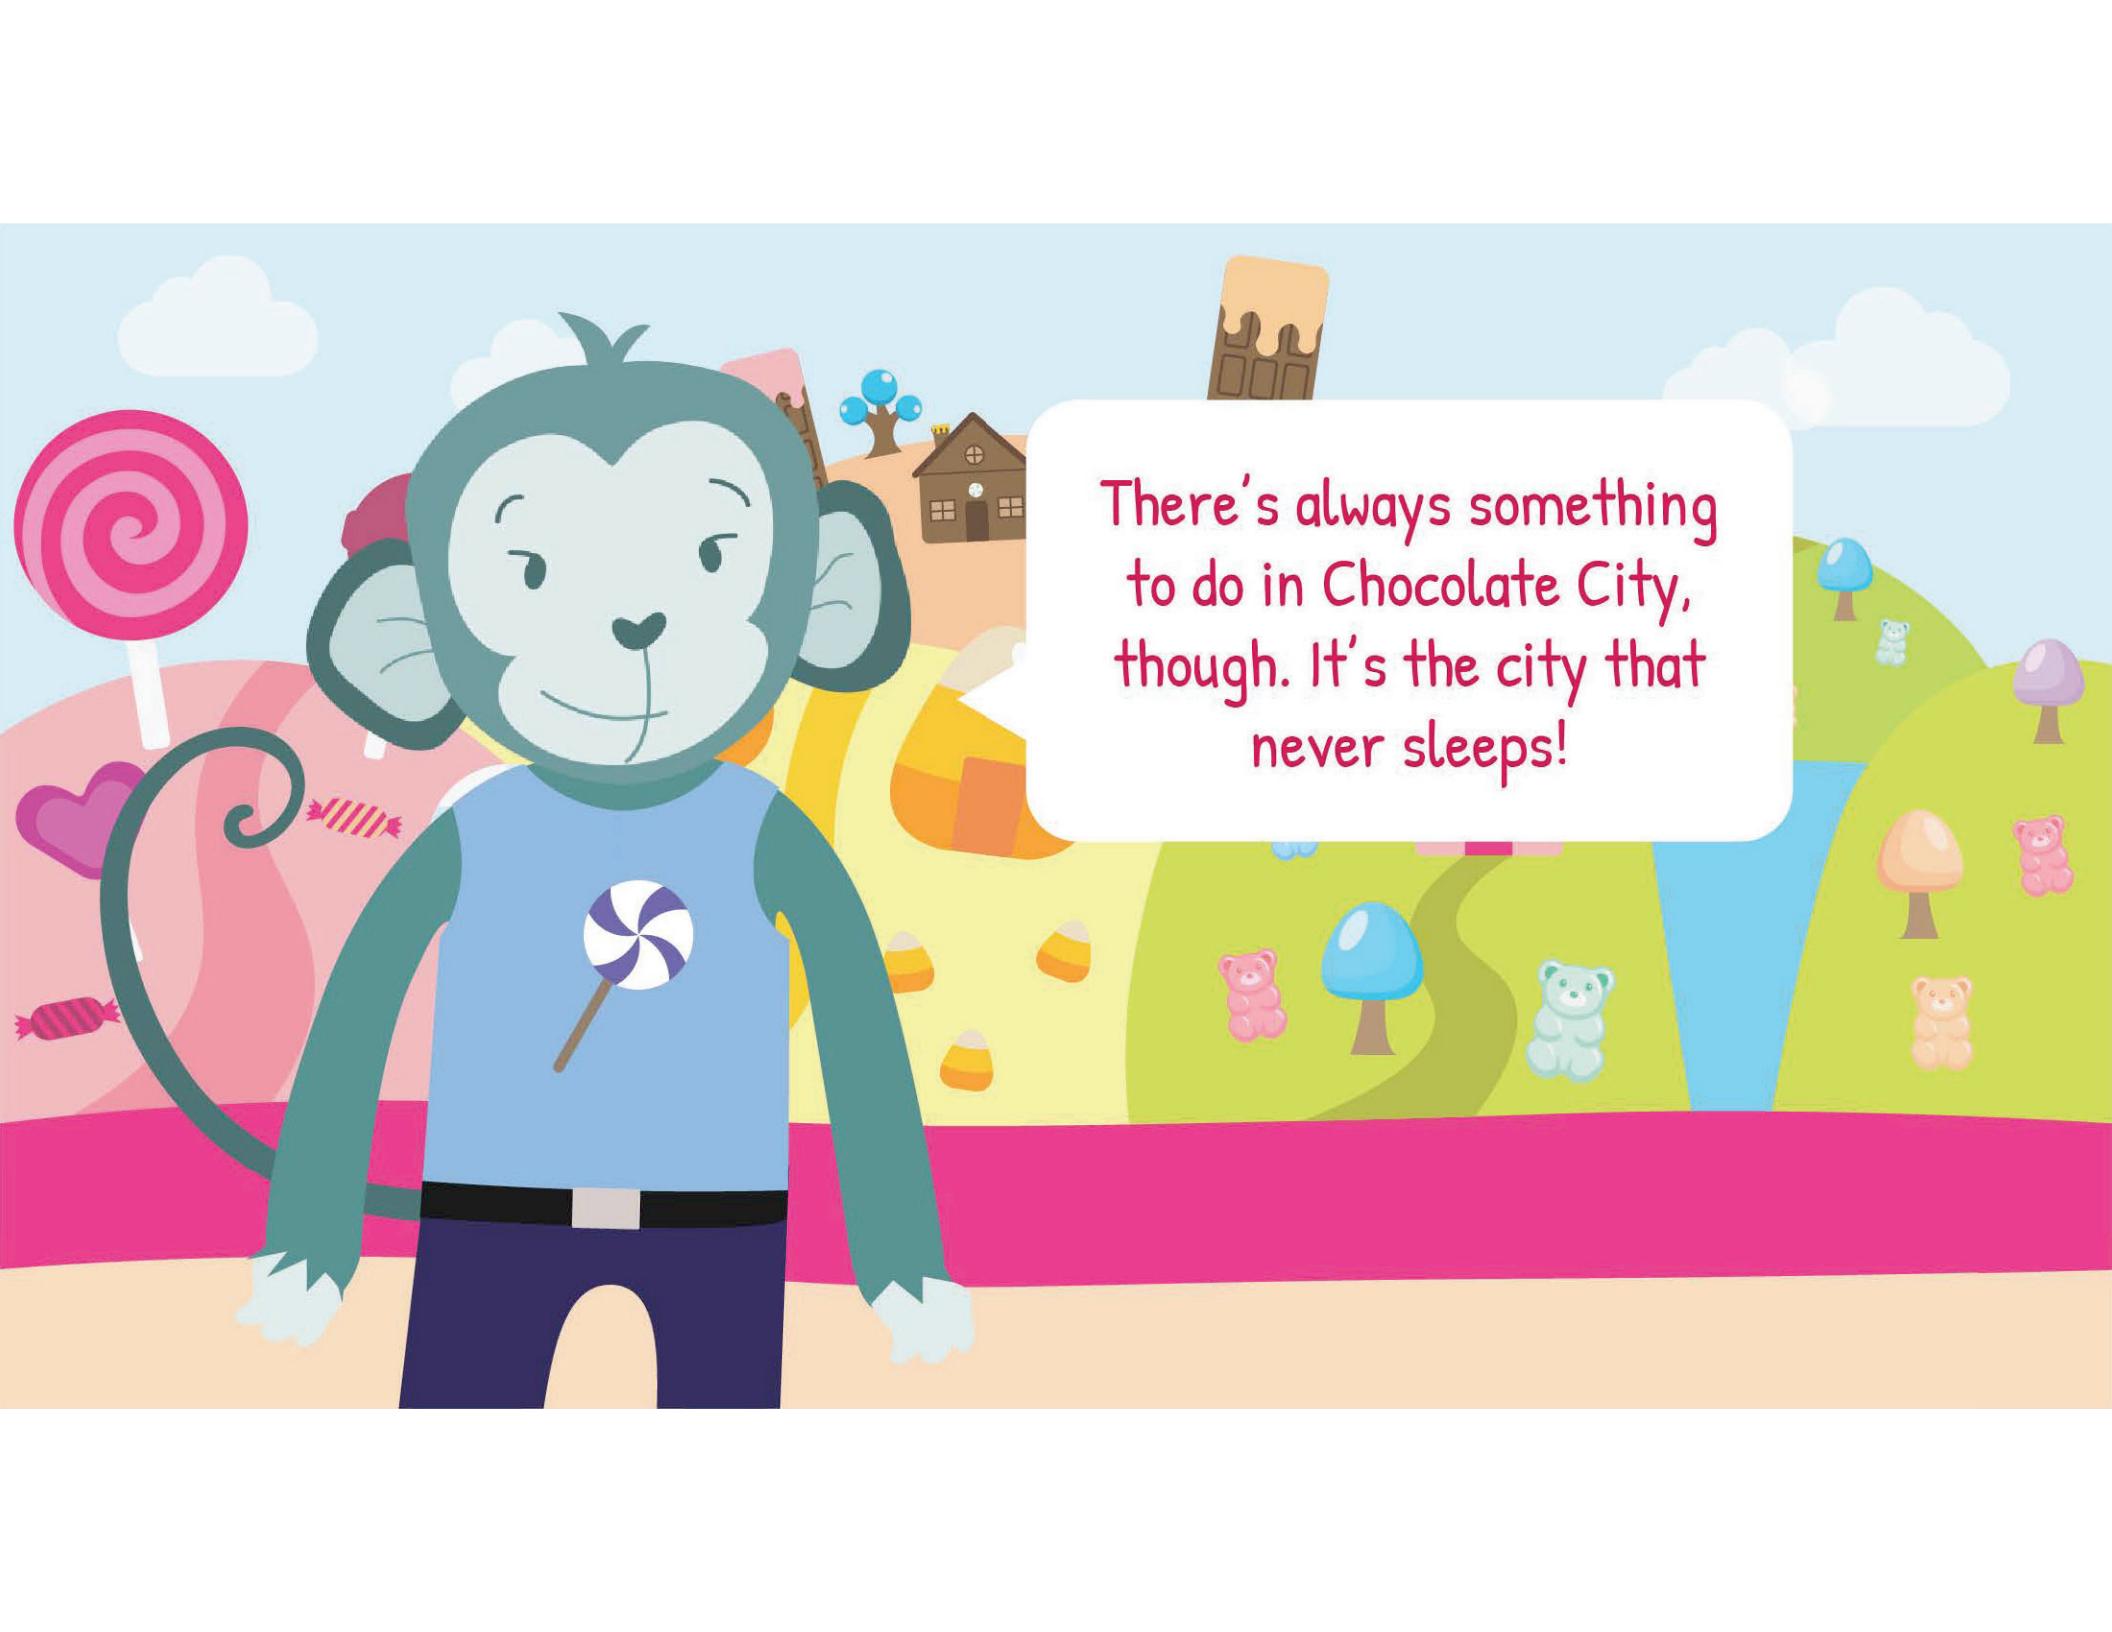

All of those places sound fun!
Does it matter where we start?

We have to see Gummy Bear Gorge! When the sun sets, the water looks like a rainbow in the fountains, and we have a special Gummy Bear Waterfall!

There's always something to do in Chocolate City, though. It's the city that never sleeps!

But it's daytime, Monkey! There are a lot of fun things to do in Candy Corn Country before bedtime... like the corn maze!

Wait, if we're going to see them all eventually, shouldn't we start with the one that's closest to us?

But that's not fair! We will never see Chocolate City. You're always so mean to me. We can't be friends anymore! Go away!

Monkey, you seem really upset.

I didn't think it seemed like that big of a problem...

This makes me really upset! It doesn't seem fair that Chocolate City is so far away. I'm worried that we won't get to see it, which would make me sad.

Don't worry. I'm not going anywhere, Monkey! We will definitely have time to see everything.

I'm sorry you feel that way, Monkey, but can we still be friends? When you told me to go away, I was really scared.

I'm sorry, too. I should have asked for help before I made the problem bigger than it was. I overreacted.

Since we're all friends again, I really liked Horse's idea. The fairest thing is going to the closest place. I think it's Gummy Bear Gorge.

It is! I can't wait to show you all around!

Here we are. Beautiful Gummy Bear Gorge! Do you see how our houses are built into the cliffs? Isn't that so cool?

Look at that Gummy Bear Waterfall!

Thanks for coming, everyone!
Next up is Lollipop Land!

Welcome to Lollipop Land. We have 35 unique flavors of lollipops, but we're still adding types! Feel free to try any of them!

Thank you, Horse. These are delicious.

How long does it take the lollipops to grow?

It depends... but I heard it takes as long as it takes to get to the center of a lollipop.

Oh, that takes—wait, where's Dog?

They were just here.

Let's look around.

Oh my gosh!
How did you do this?

Well, I wanted to try this flavor, so I gave it a lick, and since it was really good, I decided to take it with me. When I put my paw on it, I got stuck, though, and when I tried to walk away, I tripped, and now my whole body is stuck to the lollipop, and I'll never get free, and I'll never see Candy Corn Country again, and I'll only ever eat this lollipop for the rest of my life, and it's pretty good, but not that good.

Oh no! Why don't we try to get you unstuck?

This is pretty bad, but it happens a lot here in Lollipop Land! We can get you unstuck in no time!

The group helps Dog get unstuck.

Thank you, everyone! I'm sorry for freaking out...

It's okay! It was a scary situation, but next time, remember that there are people you can ask for help. They can make a big problem a lot easier to manage.

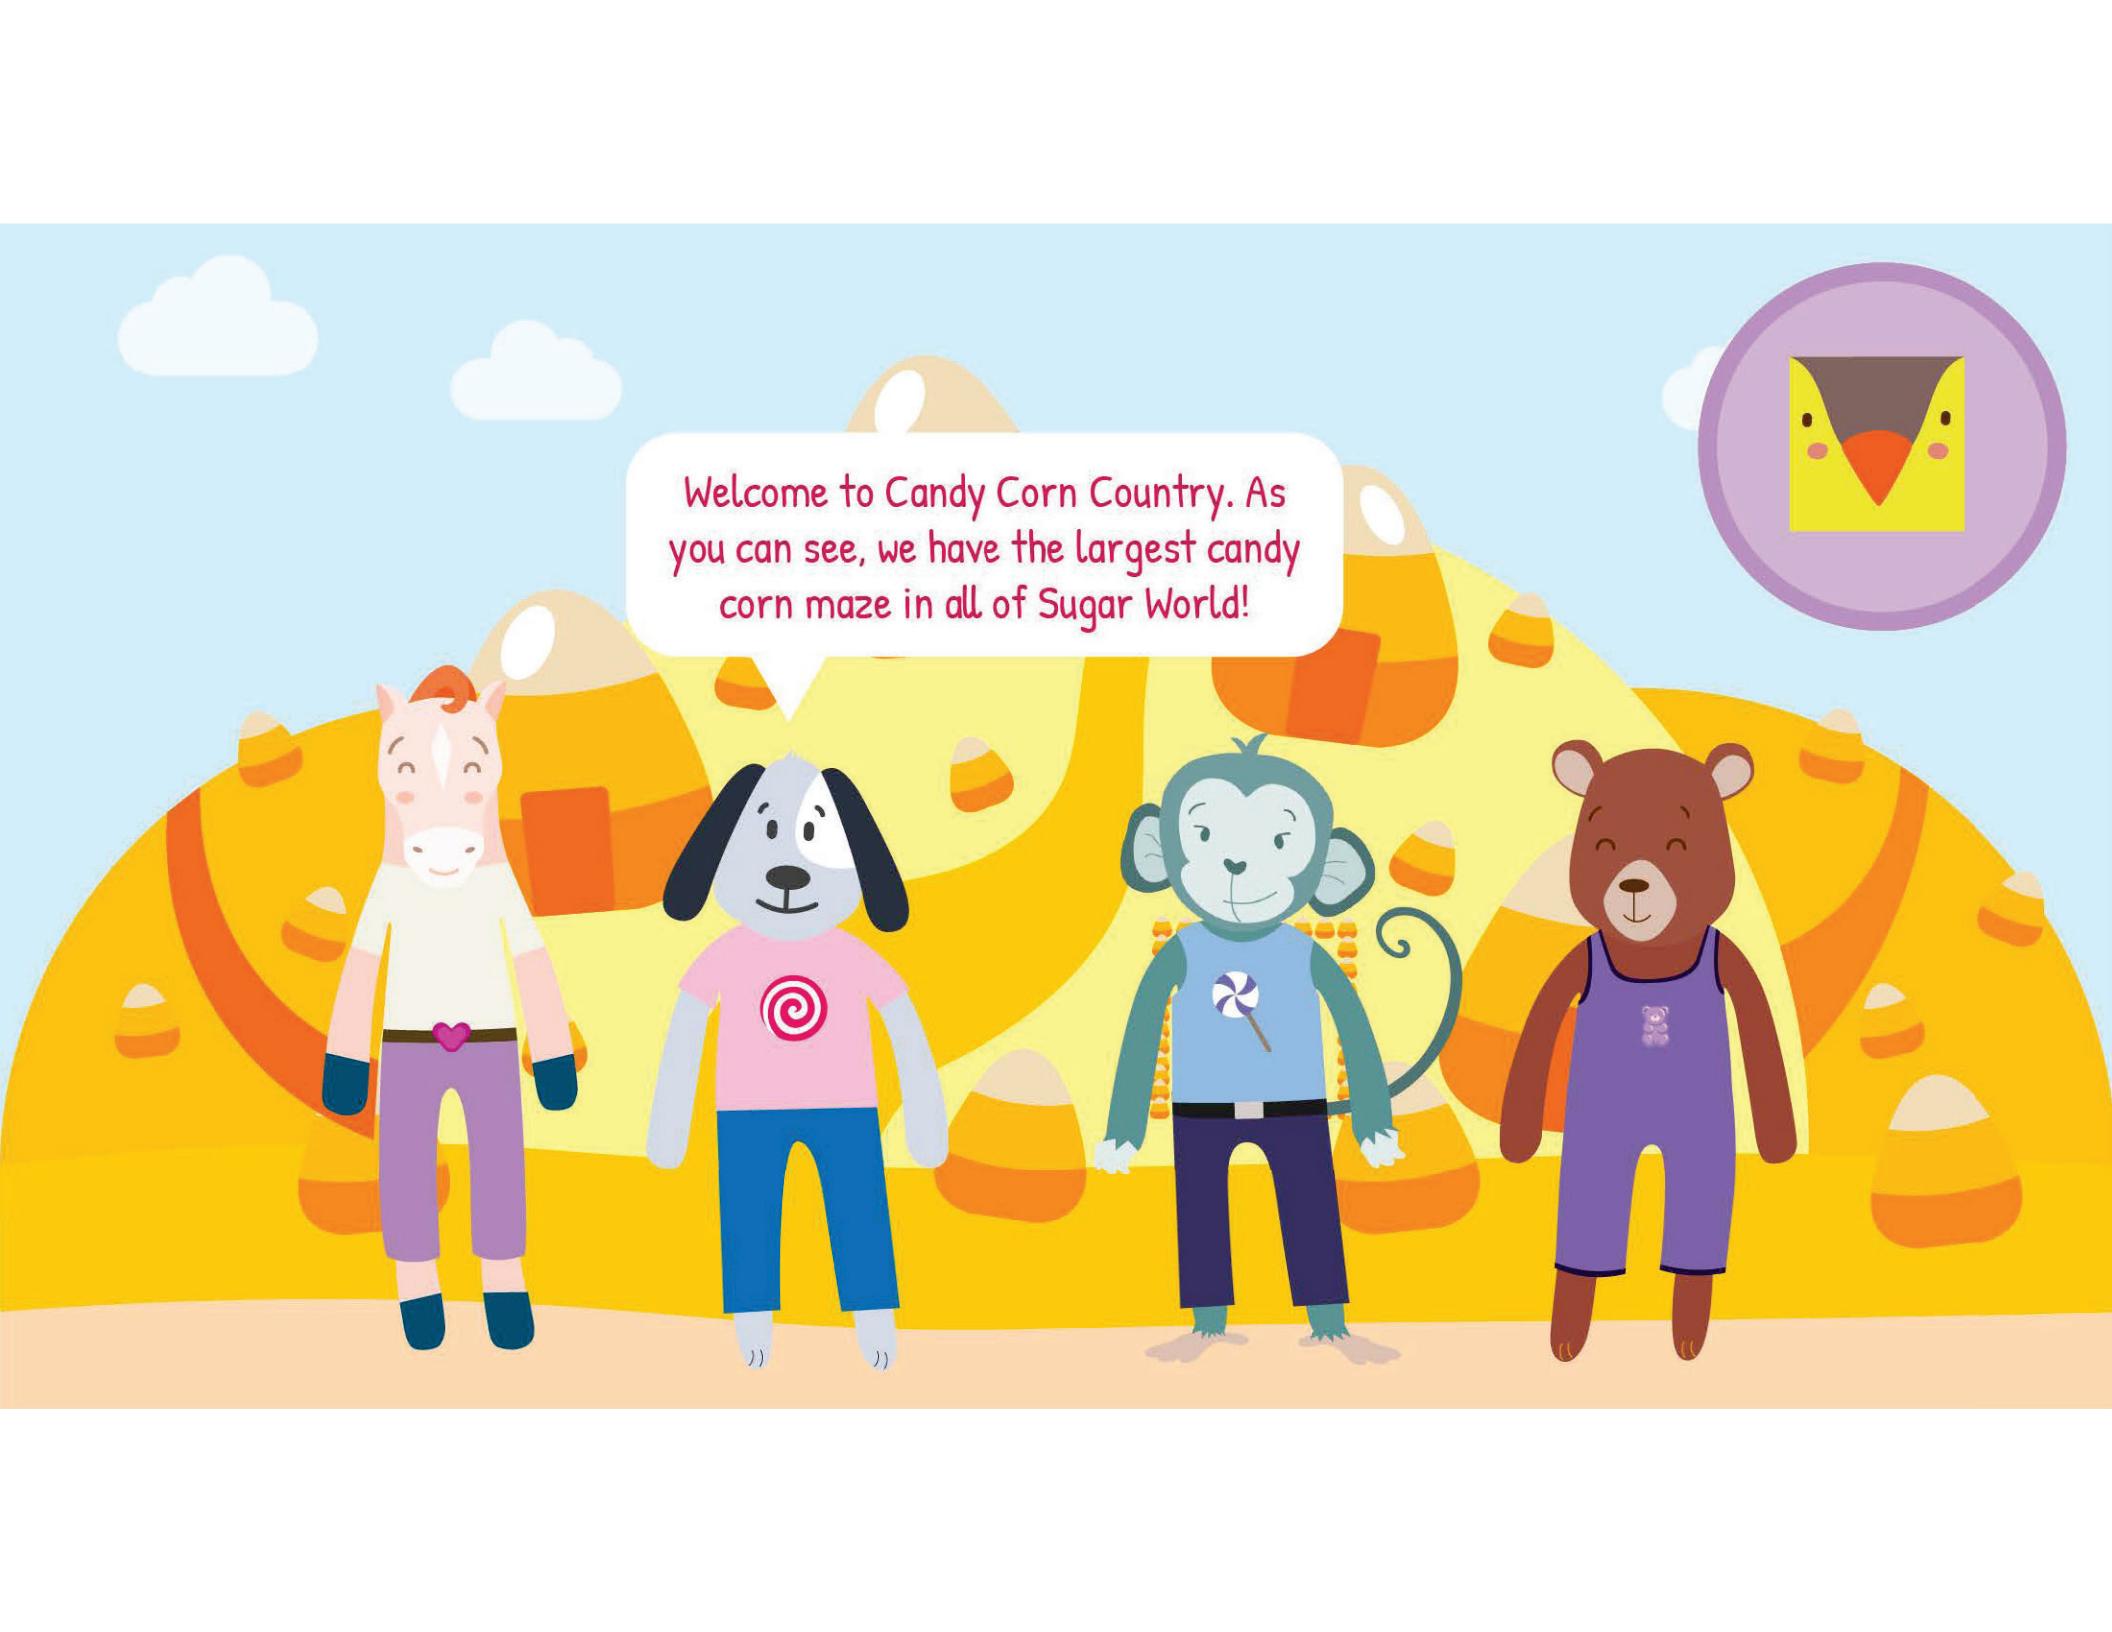

I'll keep that in mind.

Dog, lead the way to Candy Corn Country!

Welcome to Candy Corn Country. As you can see, we have the largest candy corn maze in all of Sugar World!

I want to go to the maze!
I'll race you... and win!

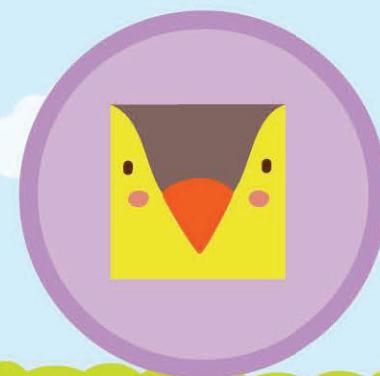

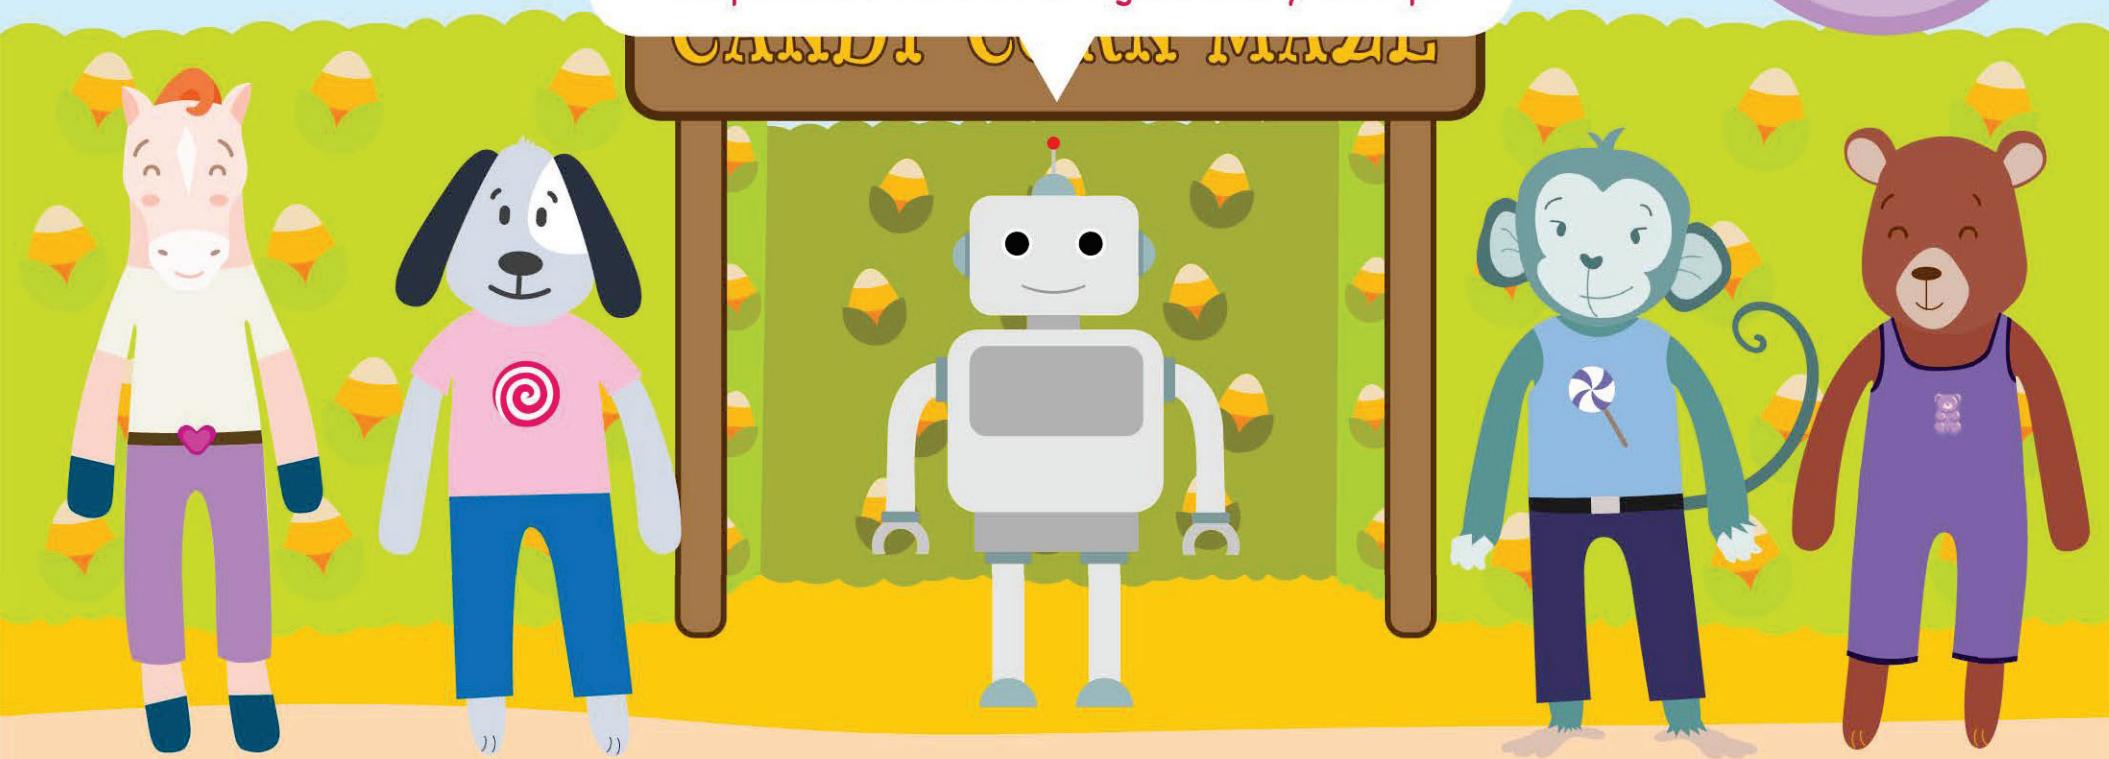

Not if I get there first!

Howdy, y'all! Welcome to the largest candy corn maze in all of Sugar World! I'm here to make sure you're all safe and having fun. That's why I'm giving you these walkie-talkies—if you have a BIG problem, I'll be listening and ready to help!

Thank you!

The group goes into the maze.

Left!

Right!

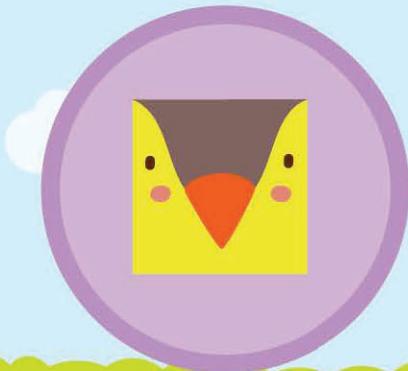

Right!

Haven't we already gone this way?

No! Wait... maybe? Yes. Yes, we have.

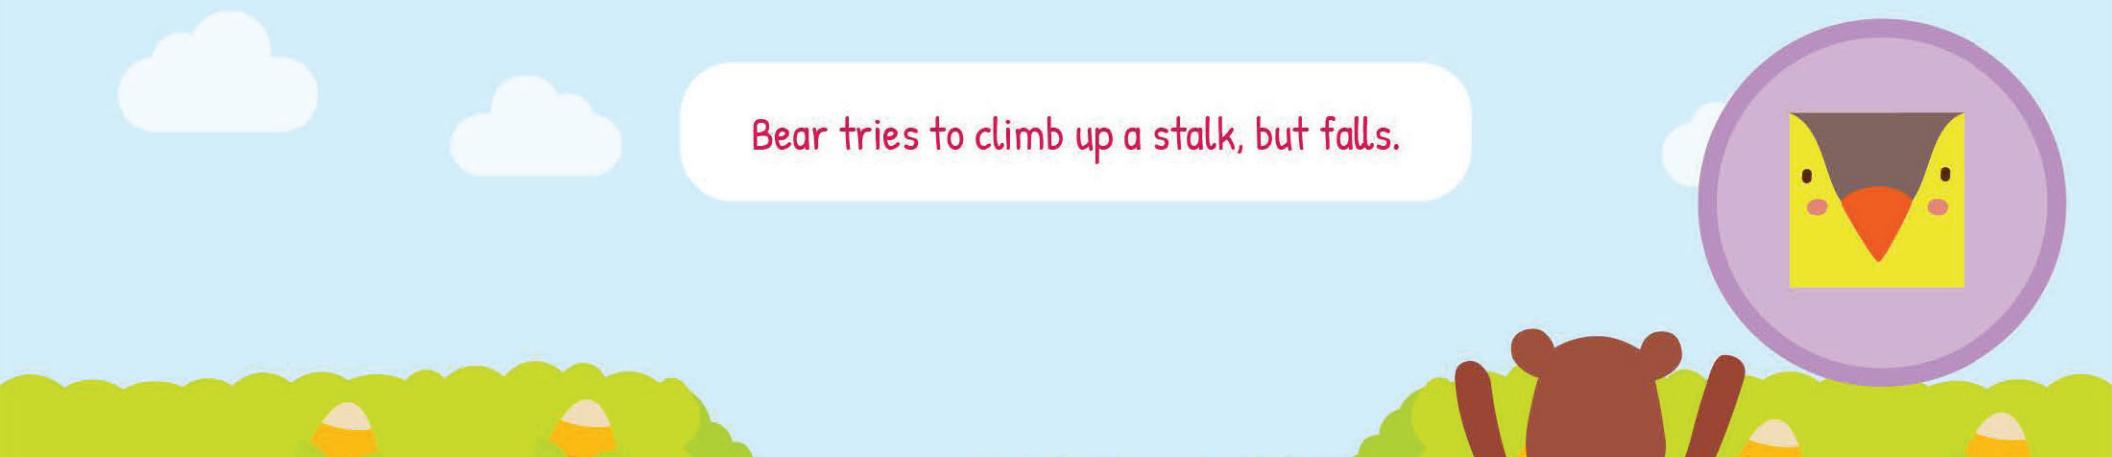

Oh no. We're lost!

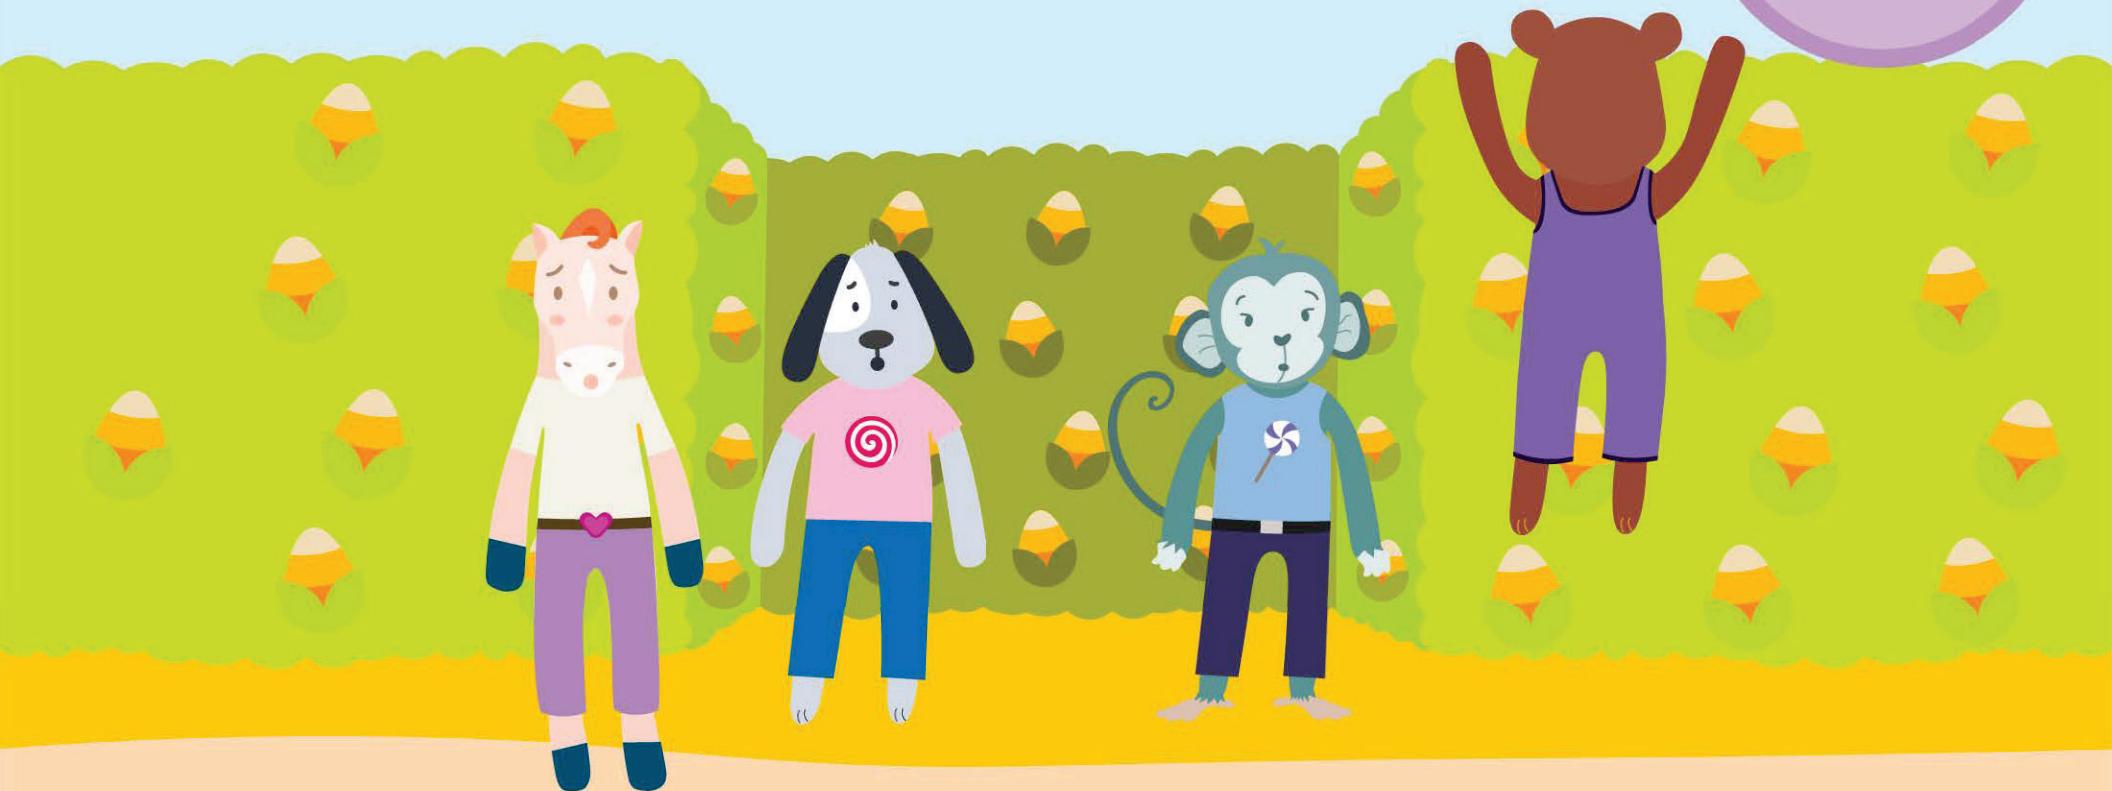

Don't worry. Let me see if I can climb the stalks to find a way out.

Bear tries to climb up a stalk, but falls.

Ouch!

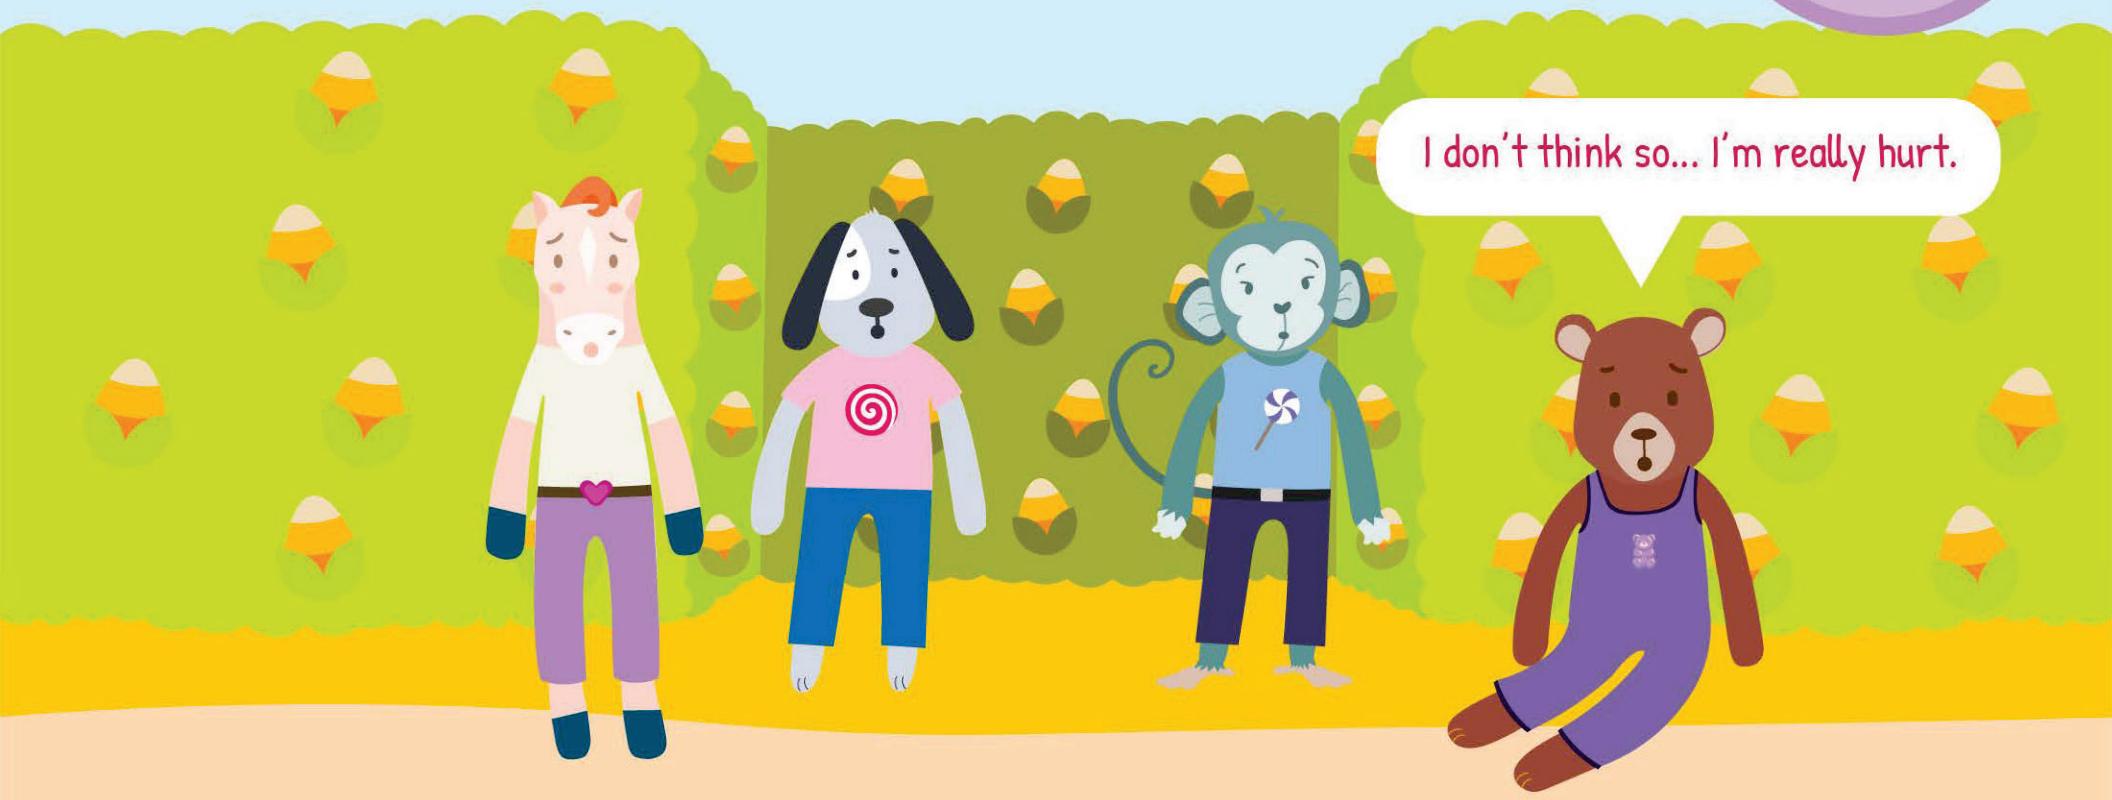

Oh no! Bear, are you okay?

I don't think so... I'm really hurt.

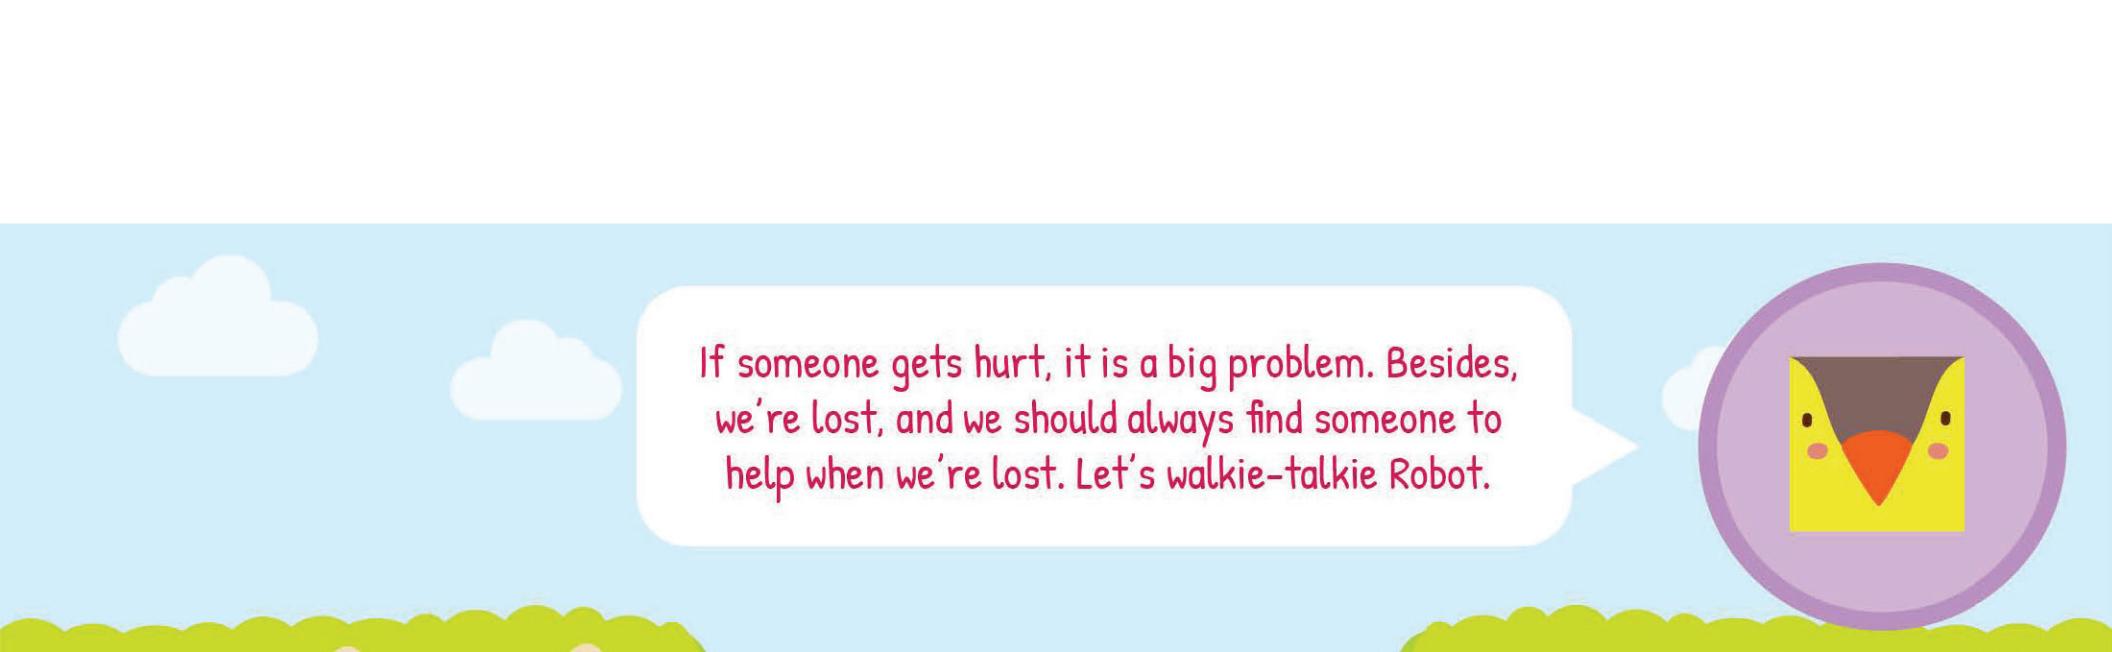

Maybe we should contact Robot...

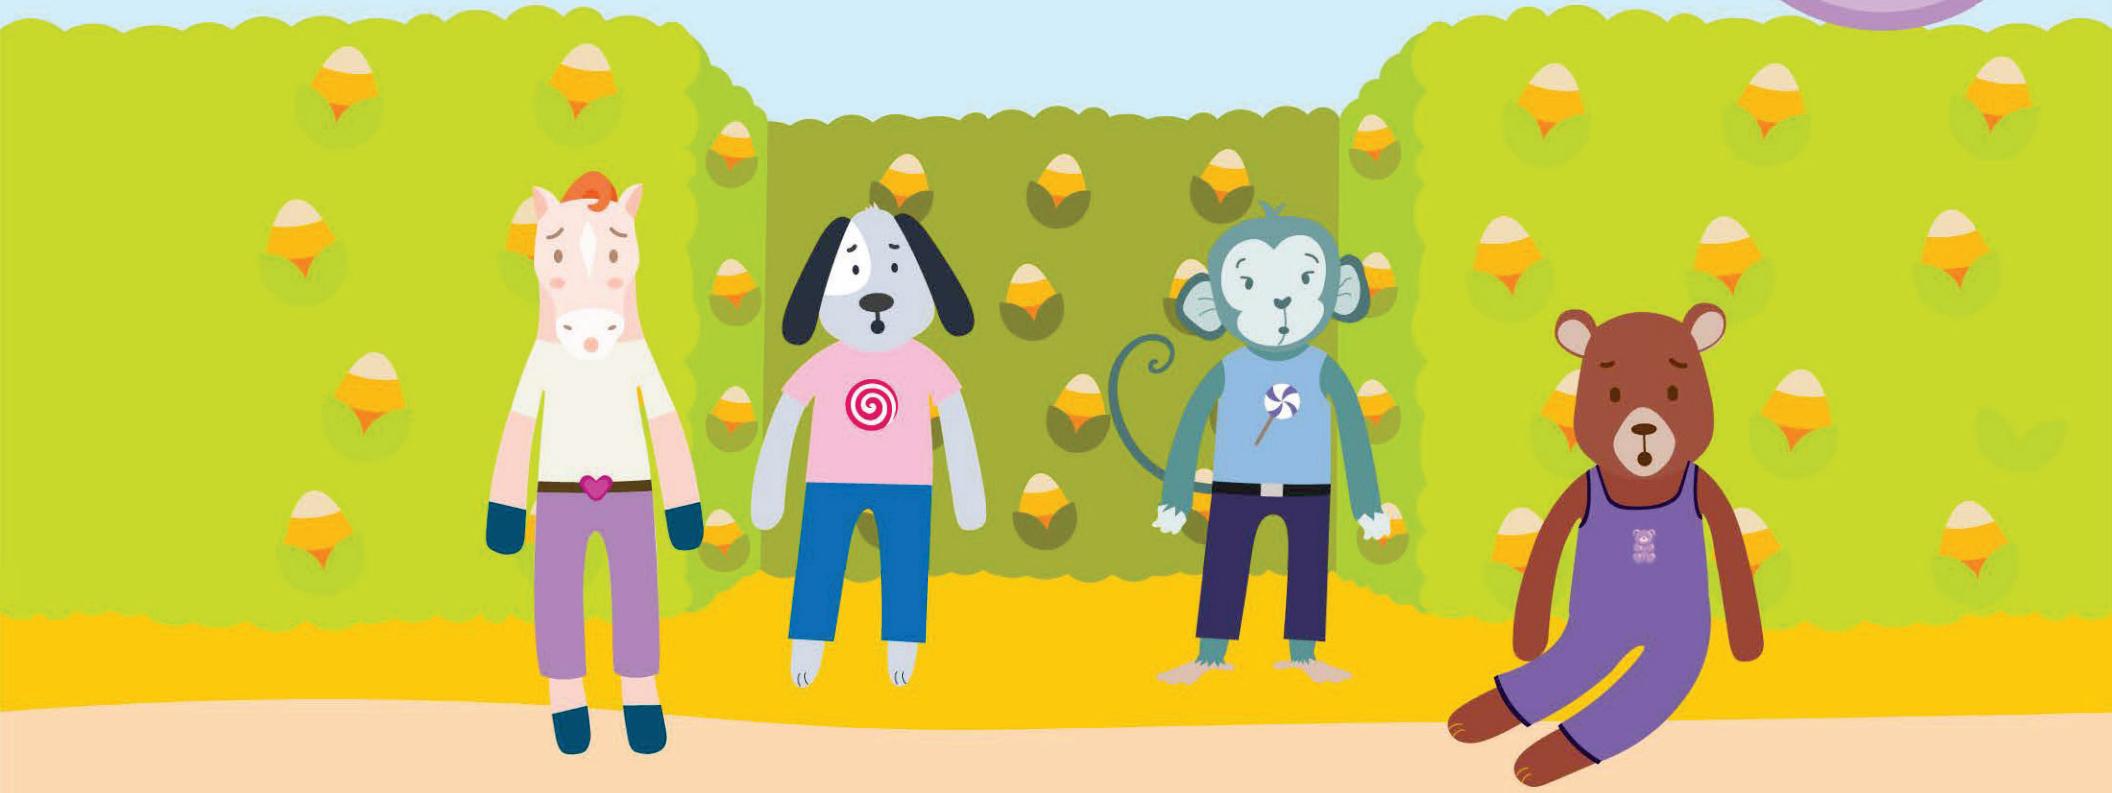

But is this a big problem?

If someone gets hurt, it is a big problem. Besides, we're lost, and we should always find someone to help when we're lost. Let's walkie-talkie Robot.

We're lost, and one of our friends is hurt!

Oh no. Don't worry! I'll send someone to lead you out right now, and they'll have band-aids for your friend too!

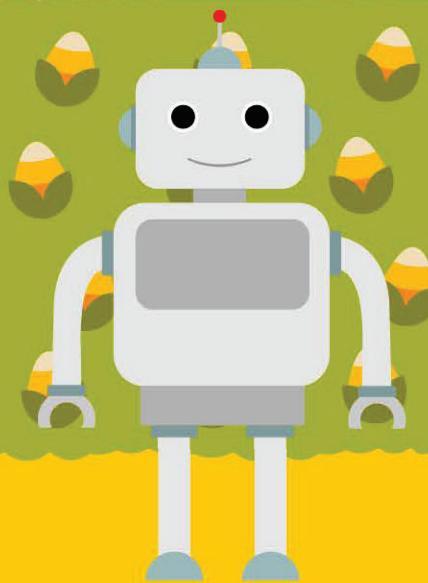

Thank you!

CANDY CORN MAZE

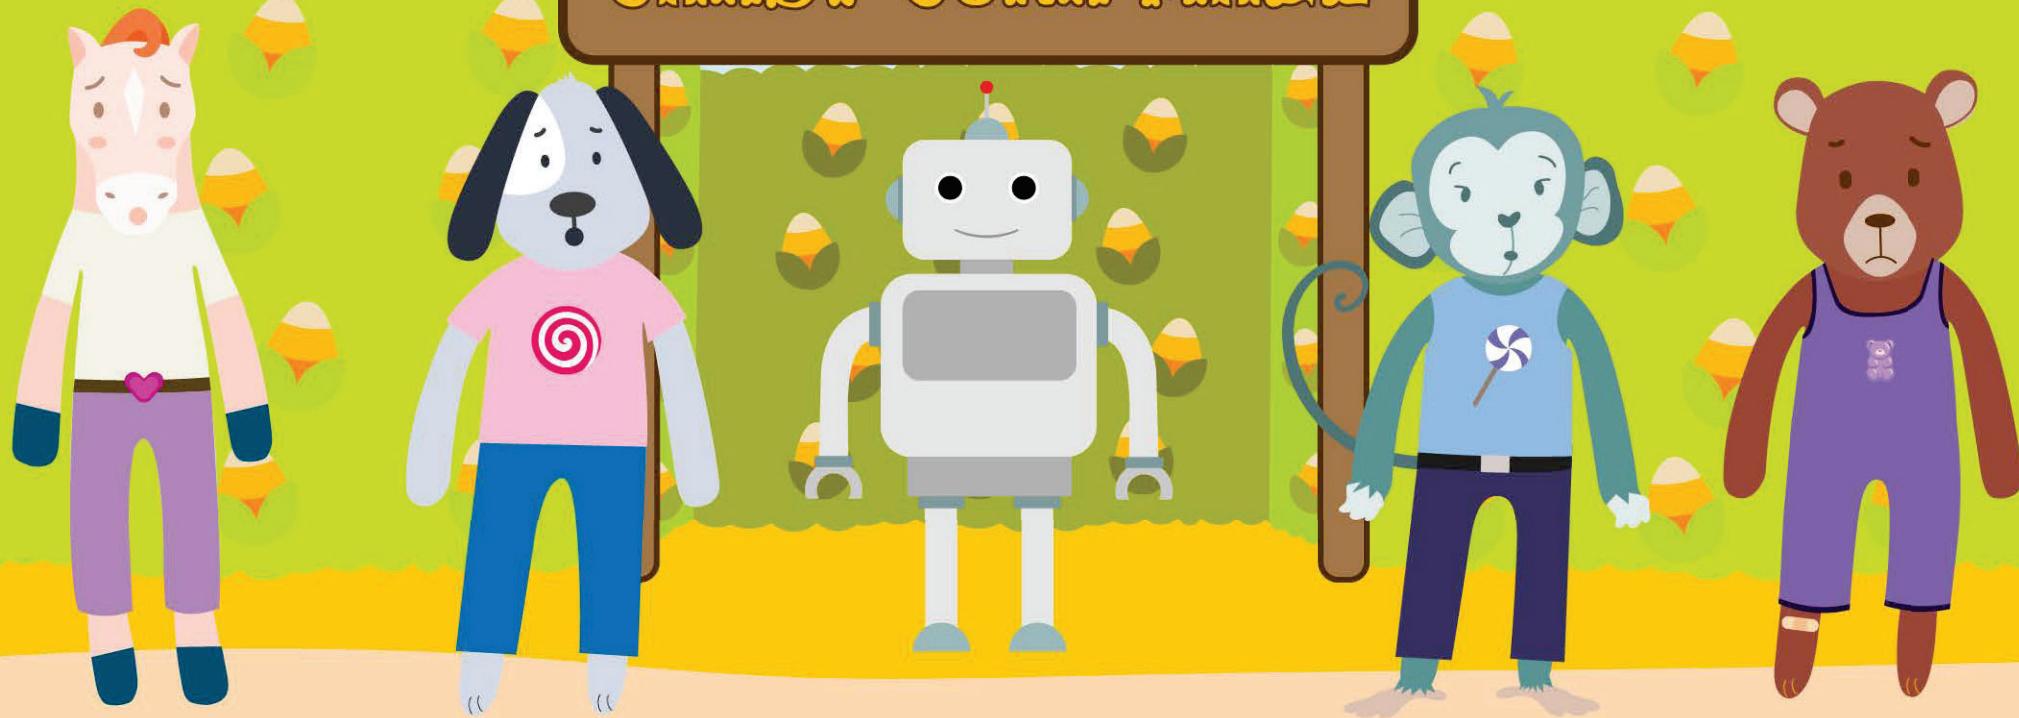

I'm sorry I ruined our fun...

You don't have to apologize! You were hurt, which is a BIG problem, so we got you help.

CANDY CORN MAZE

CANDY COUNTRY

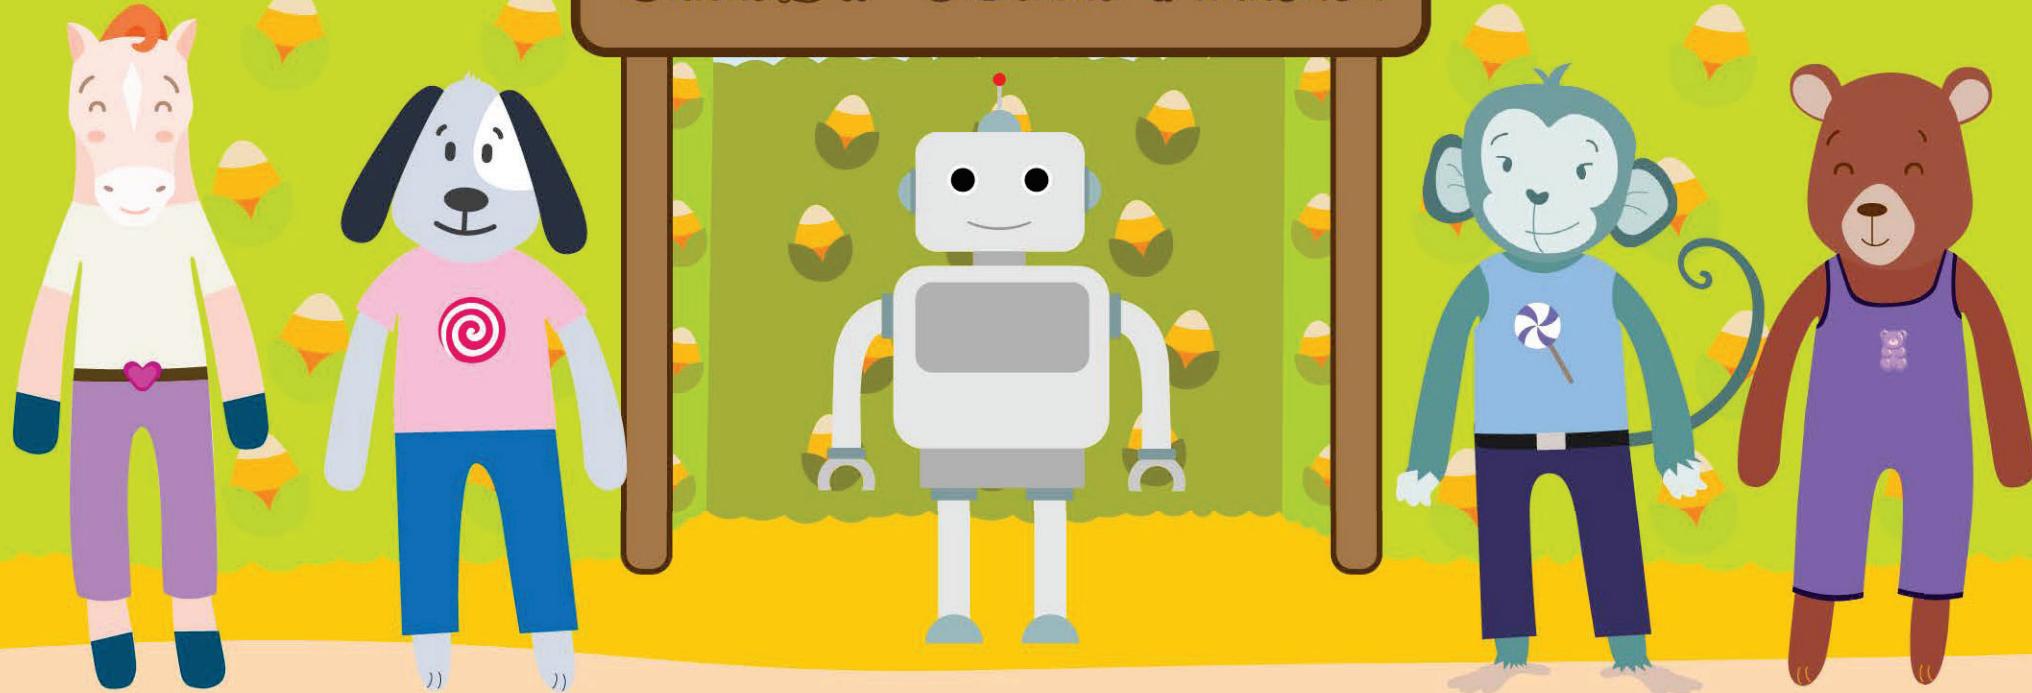

But are we going to have enough time to go to Chocolate City today? I know you were really excited, Monkey.

There is still time! Lead the way, Monkey!
I wonder what we'll see in Chocolate City?

CANDY CORN MAZE

THE END

I'm Monkey! I'm the Chocolate Champion of Chocolate City, and I'm also the athlete of the group!

A cartoon illustration of a white horse with a pink mane and tail. It has a small orange tuft of hair on its head and a small white diamond-shaped mark on its forehead. The horse is wearing a purple belt with a heart-shaped buckle and a white shirt underneath a pink vest. It is standing in a landscape filled with various colorful lollipops of different shapes and sizes, including heart-shaped, star-shaped, and spiral ones. The background shows a blue sky with white clouds.

I'm Horse! I'm the Lollipop Leader of Lollipop Land. I'm a scientist there, trying to find new lollipop flavors!

I'm Dog! I'm the Candy
Corn Captain of Candy
Corn Country. I'm also a farmer, and I helped grow
the candy corn maze!

I'm Bear! I'm the Gummy Bear Governor of Gummy Bear Gorge! There, I work as an architect, which is a fancy way to say I help design the buildings and houses!
