

HOLIDAY PARTY!

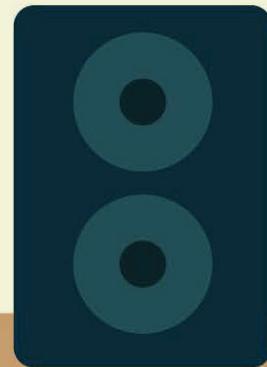

Dog, Monkey, Cat, and Horse want to throw a party tonight to celebrate the holidays!

They already baked goodies, strung up decorations, and made a playlist of music.

All that remains is...

It's going to be okay, Cat!
We can make a plan.

A plan?

A plan to clean the house! So, we all want to tidy up! What do we need to do?

Well, the toys are all over the place. I've been tripping over blocks all day!

Someone can put away the toys.

Oh, I'm the toy master! I know where all the toys should go!

There we go! Dog's plan is to put away the toys!

The dishes need to get done. We don't have any bowls to put our snacks in!

Dibs! I love doing the dishes! I like getting the sink all bubbly and soapy!

Just don't make a mess, Monkey.

Don't worry! I can have fun and stay clean!

What's next, Cat?

The counters and tables need to be wiped down.

Oh, I can do that after the dishes!

I can start on it, and then, you can join me! That way, we can go as fast as possible! Is there anything left, Cat?

I guess that just leaves the rug! It's full of hair.

I think we have a vacuum sitting around somewhere...

I'll go find it! Wow, maybe we can get the house clean before the party!

Everyone starts cleaning up.

Oh, no! I forgot washing the dishes means I need to dry them too! I don't think I'll be able to help you with the counters, Horse...

That's okay! I can handle it on my own!

Cat! You almost vacuumed up my tail!

What? I can't hear you over the vacuum cleaner.

I said you almost vacuumed up my tail!

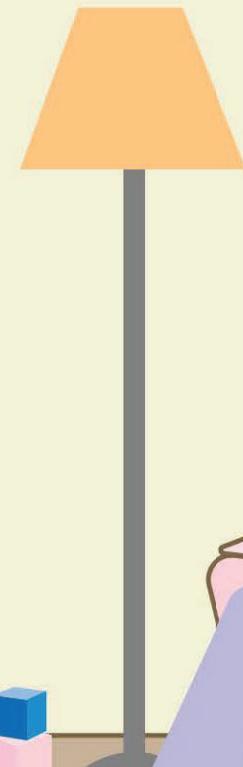

I SAID YOU ALMOST VACUUMED--

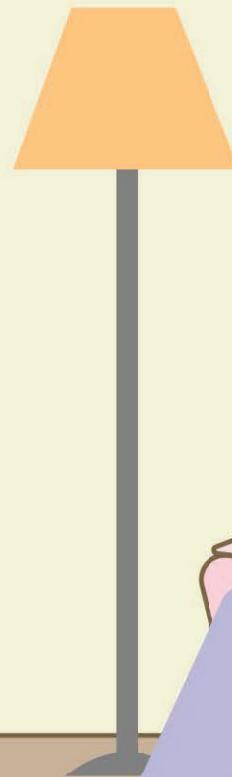

Horse unplugs the vacuum.

Hey, I was vacuuming!

But I was still putting away the toys here!

But this is the last spot I need to vacuum!

And this is the last toy I need to put away!

It's okay! Cat, why don't you take a break from vacuuming real fast?

But the plan was that I would vacuum up all the fur...

But you can't vacuum at the same time Dog is cleaning up the toys. There are other ways we can get the house clean!

Oh, I have an idea! Cat, can you help me dry off and put away the dishes?

Can we... change the plan like that?

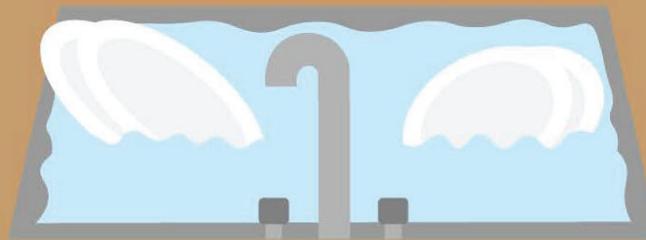

If we need to! It's more important we pay attention to each other's feelings!

Everyone continues cleaning.

Wow! I didn't think we'd be able to get the house clean in time for the party!

See! It all worked out in the end!

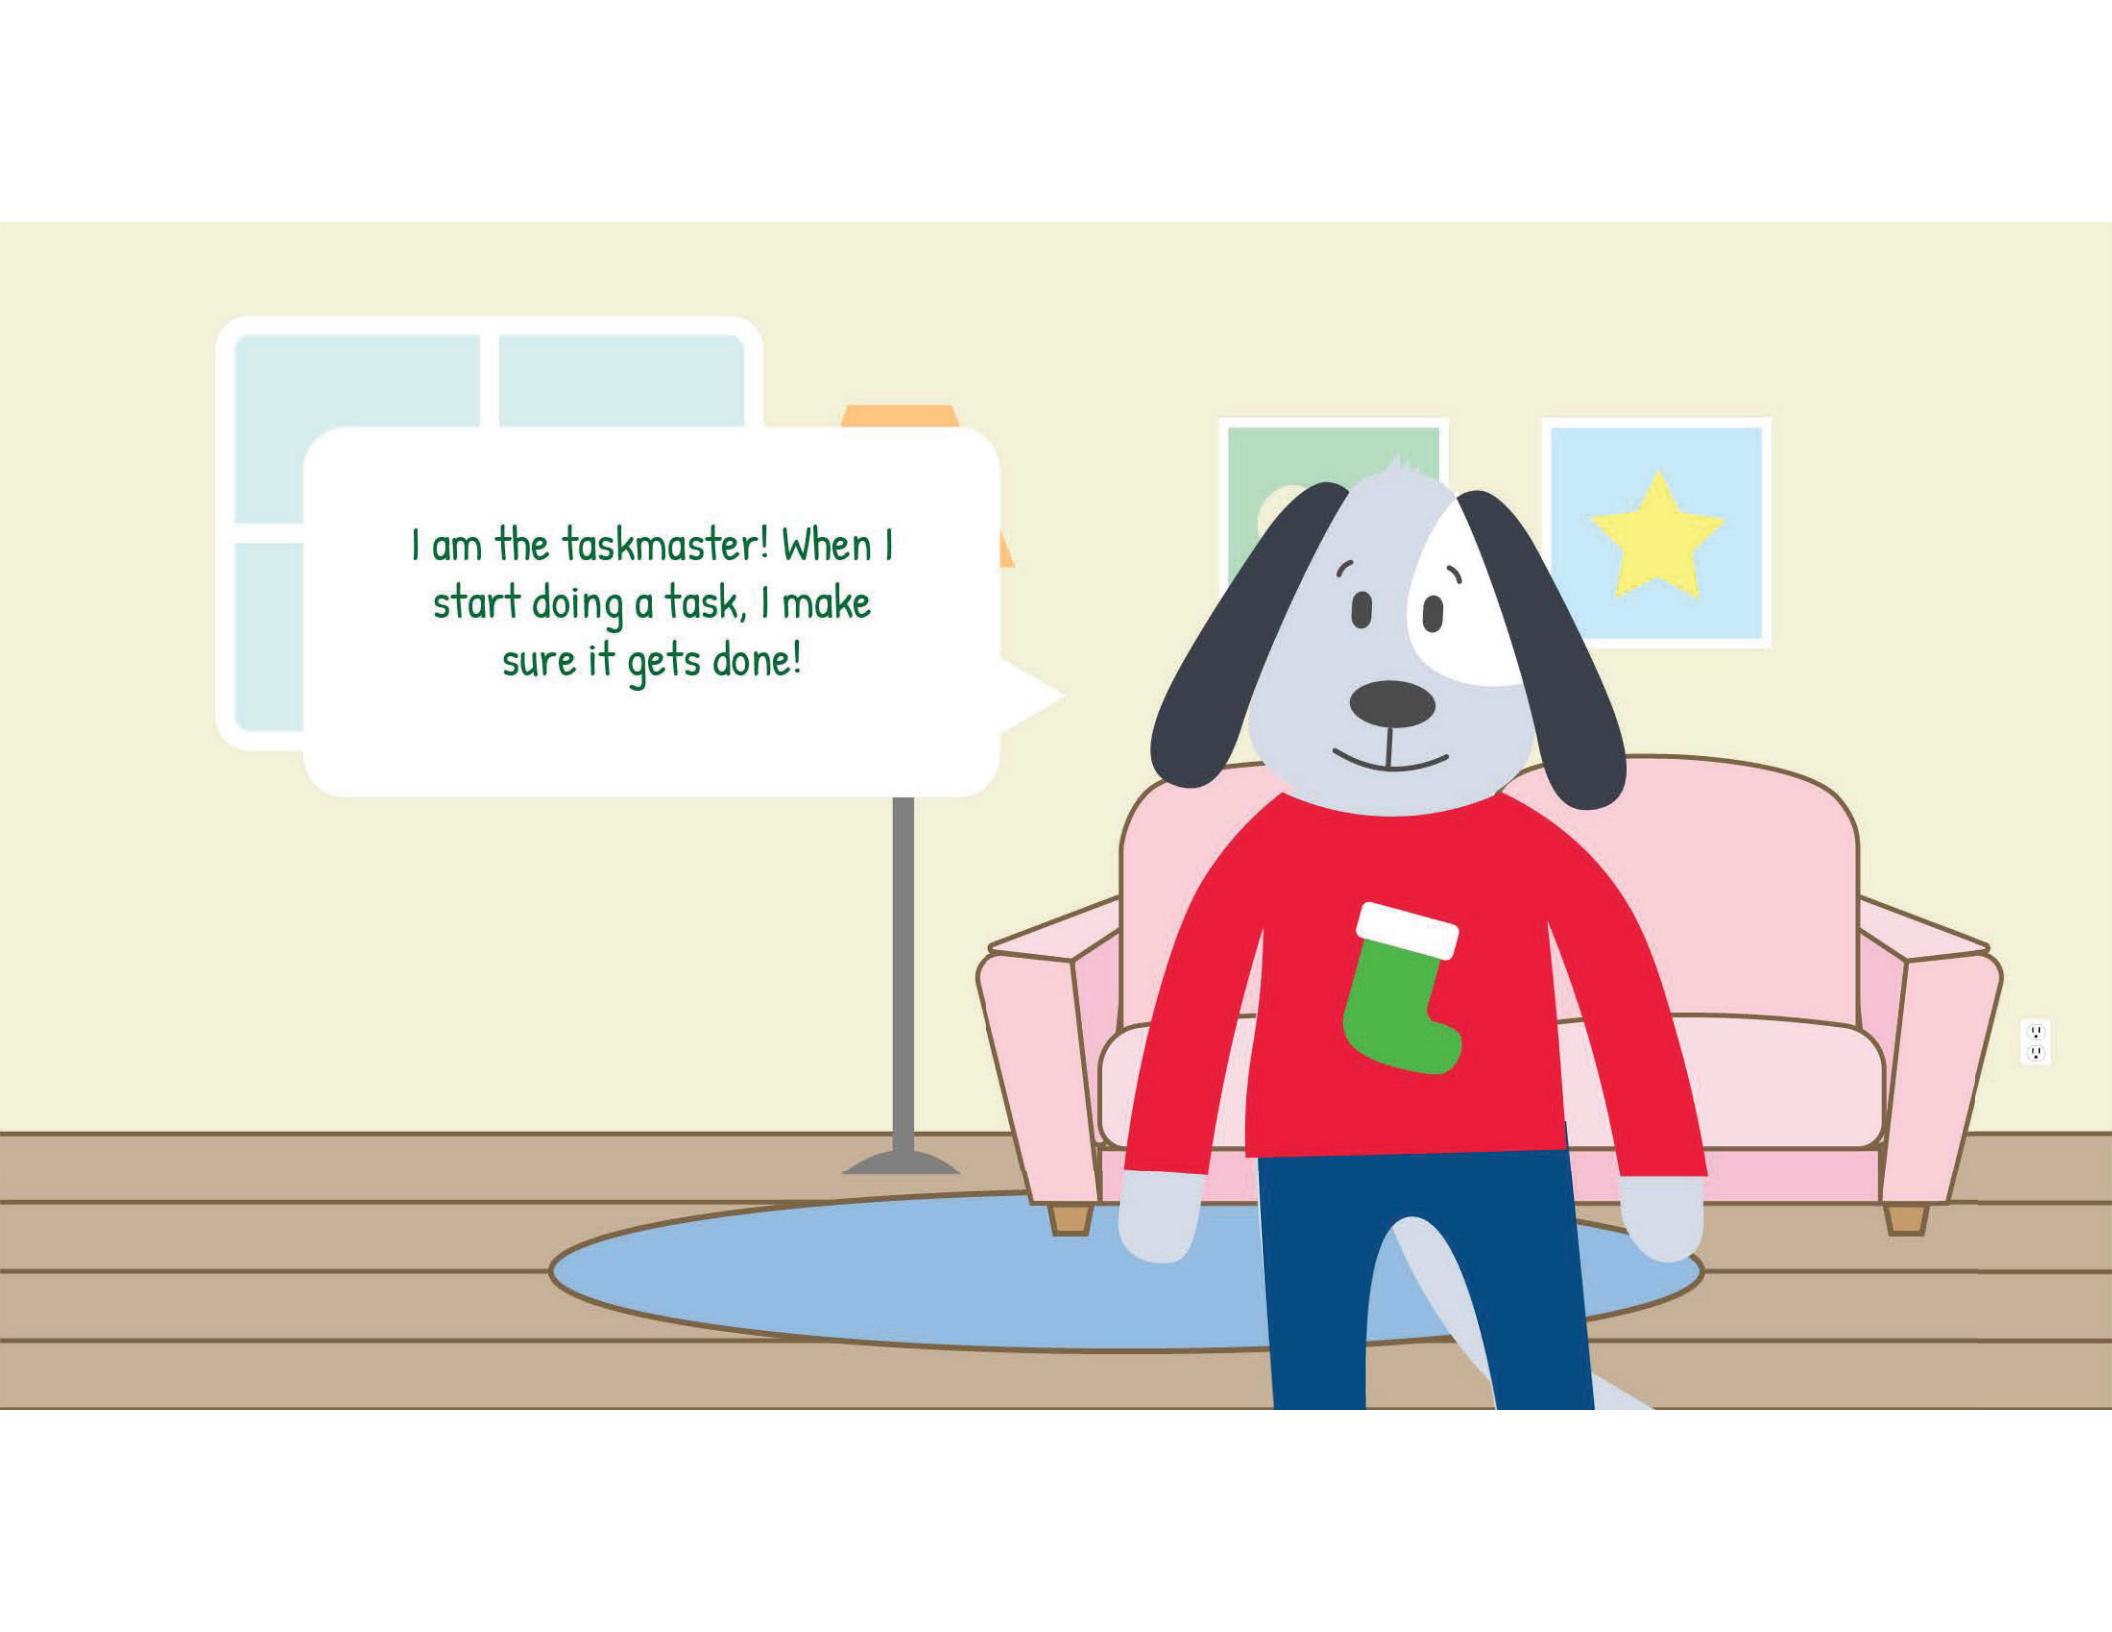

Now, we just need to wait for everyone to arrive!

I am the planner! When something needs to get done, I make a plan with the rest of my friends!

I am the peacemaker! If an argument happens between my friends, I help them out!

I am the taskmaster! When I start doing a task, I make sure it gets done!

I am the problem-solver! I can solve any problem!
