

THE CASE OF THE MISSING BUNNY

(focused)

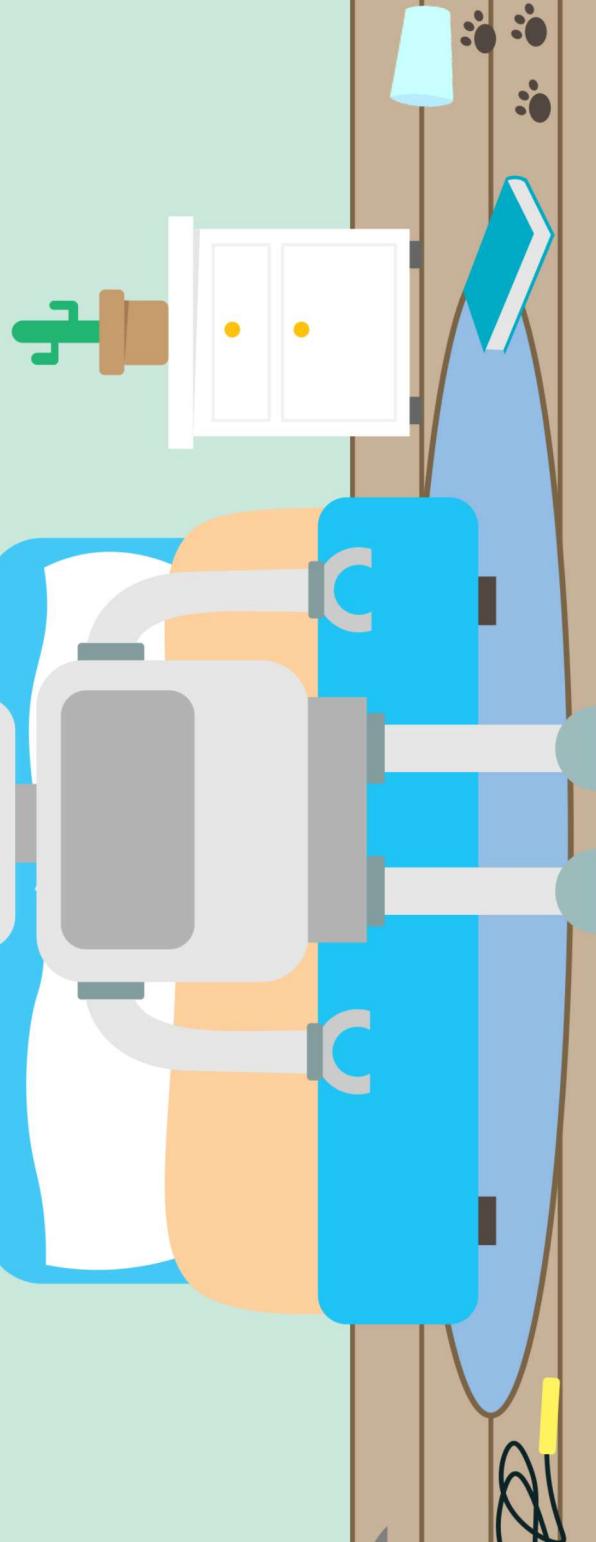

It was a dark and stormy day. Robot just got home when they realized...

BUN-BUN HAS GONE
MISSING! Bun-Bun is my best friend! I need them back!

Robot went and asked their friends to help them find Bun-Bun. First, they asked Detective Dog.

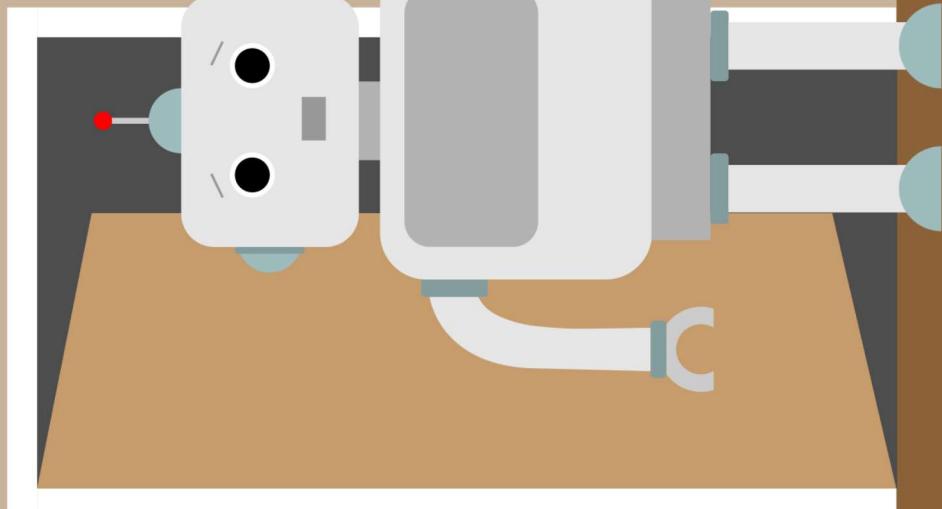

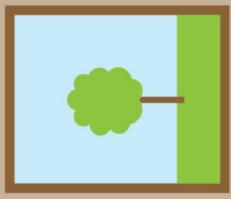

GROCERY

POLICE

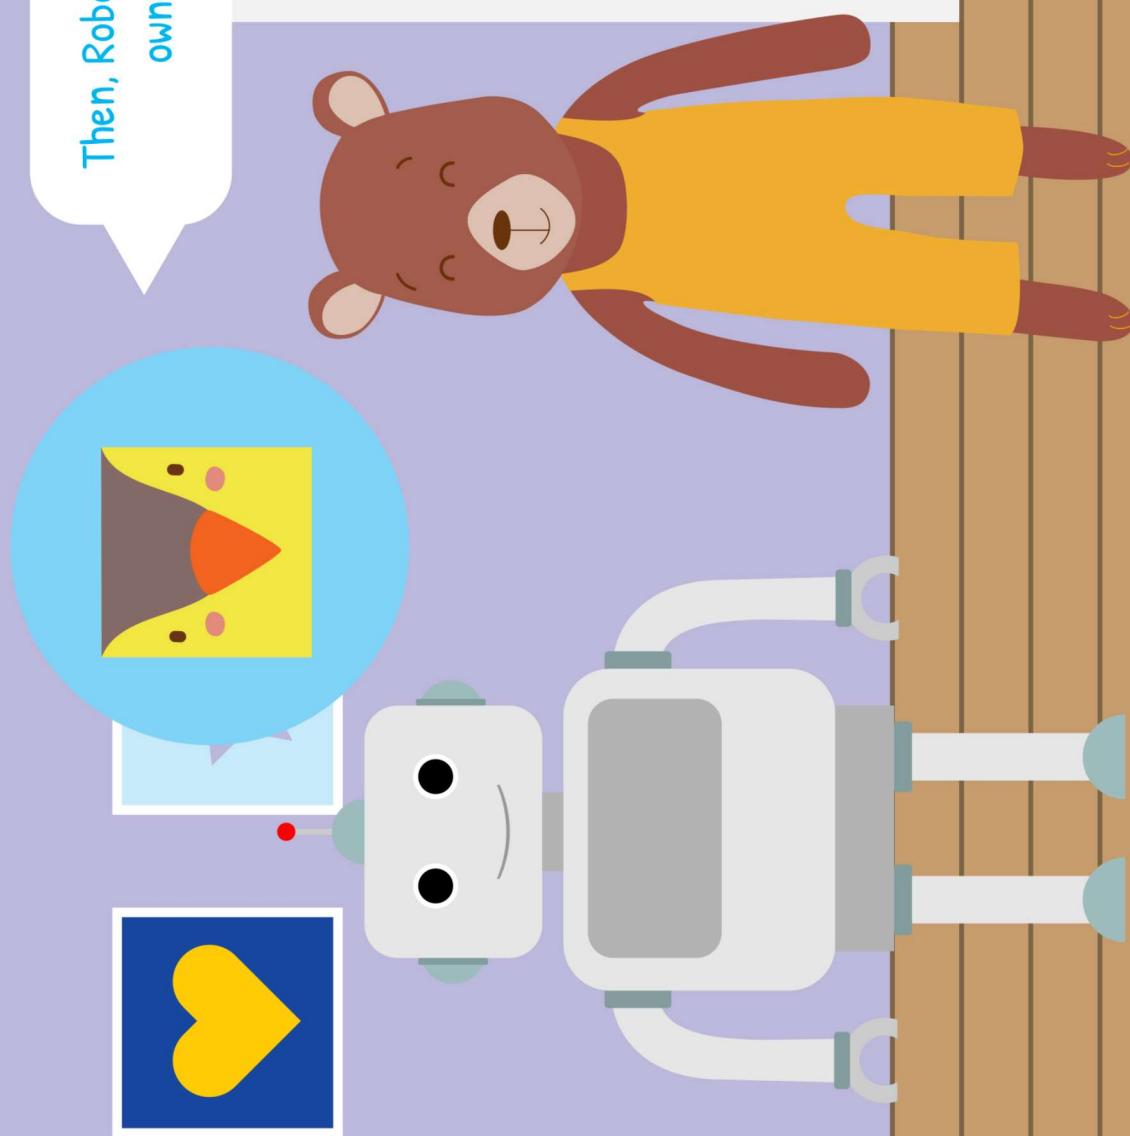

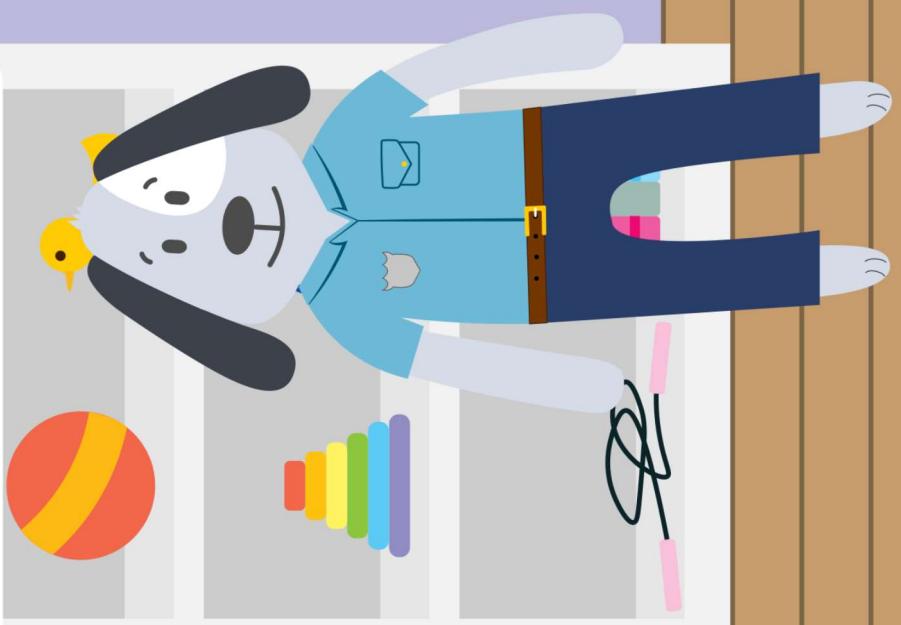

LAUNDROMAT

TOY STORE

Detective Dog is always ready to help a friend in need! What seems to be the problem?

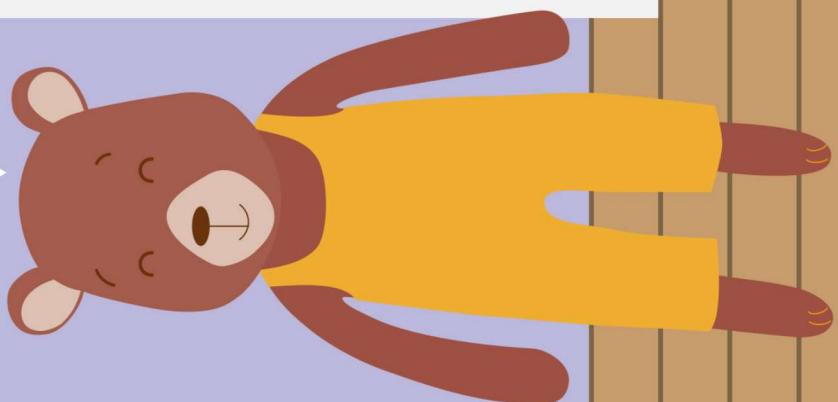

Then, Robot asked their friend, Bear. Bear owned a toy store in Big City.

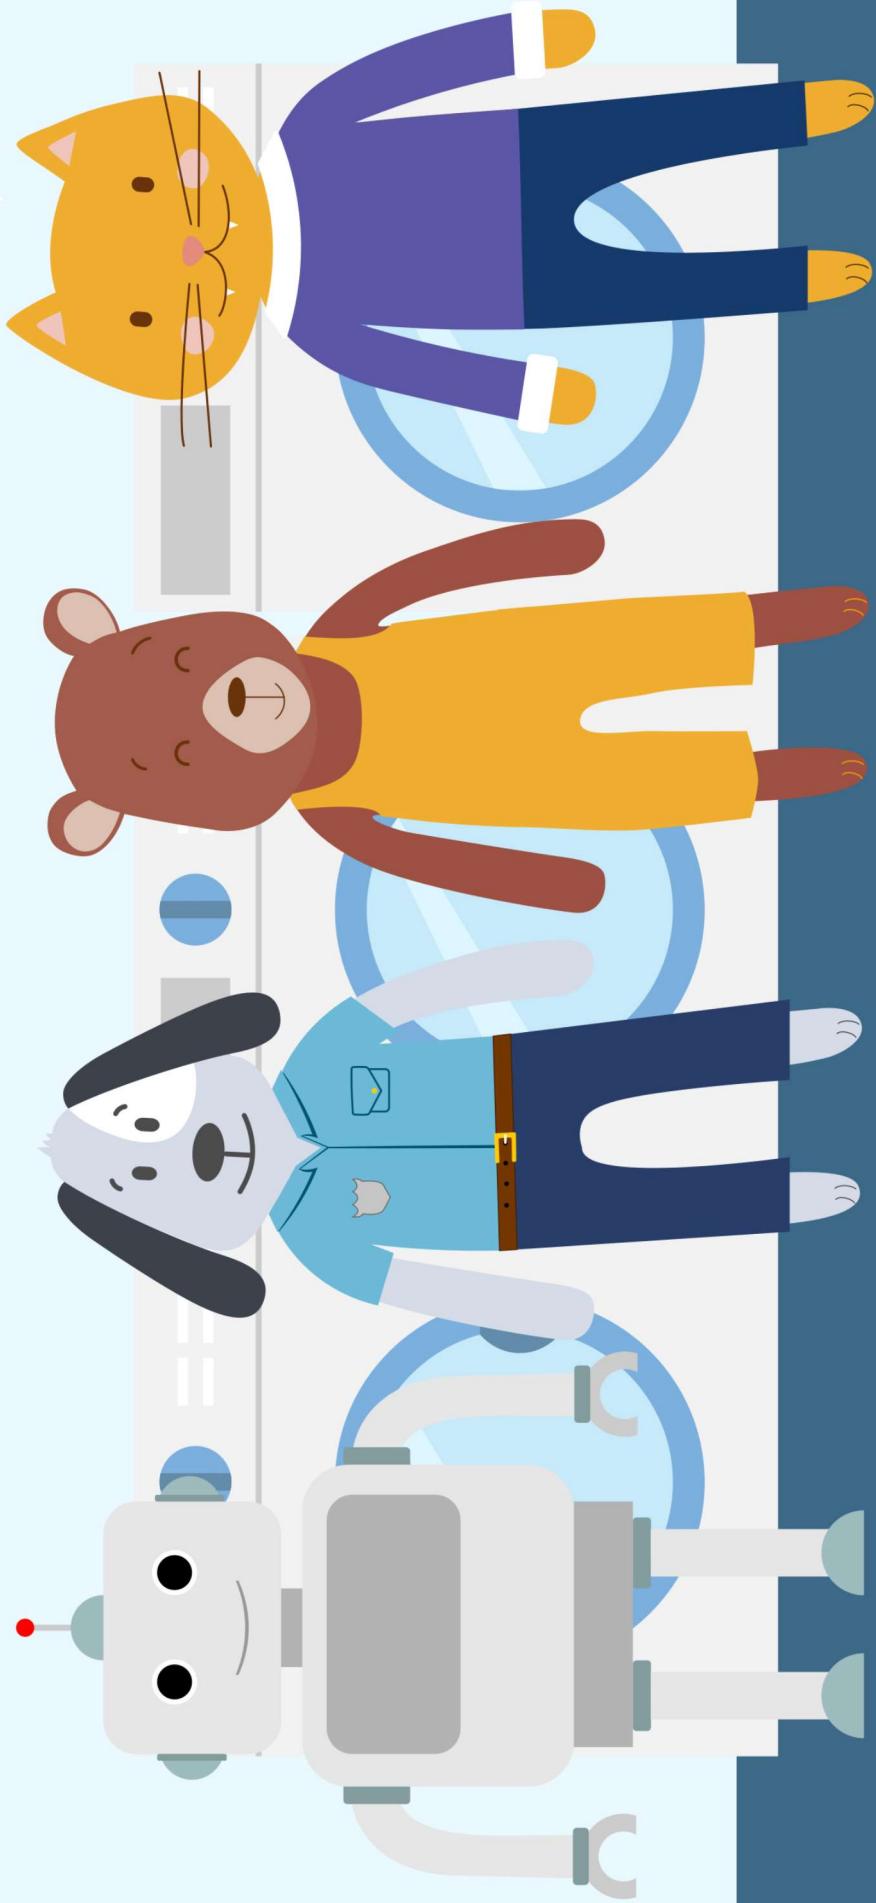

I like unique toys, and Bun-Bun is super unique! I should be able to find them fast!

Finally, Robot found their friend, Cat, to ask for help.

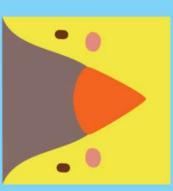

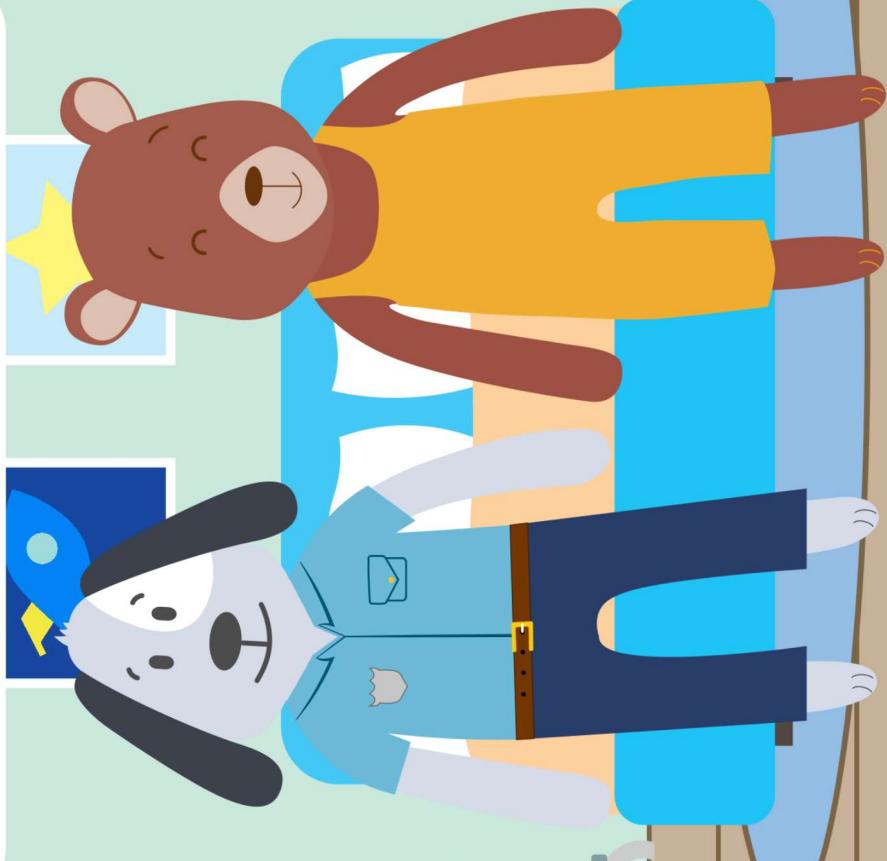

I'll know where Bun-Bun is! I like to keep things neat and tidy, so I know the right place for every toy!

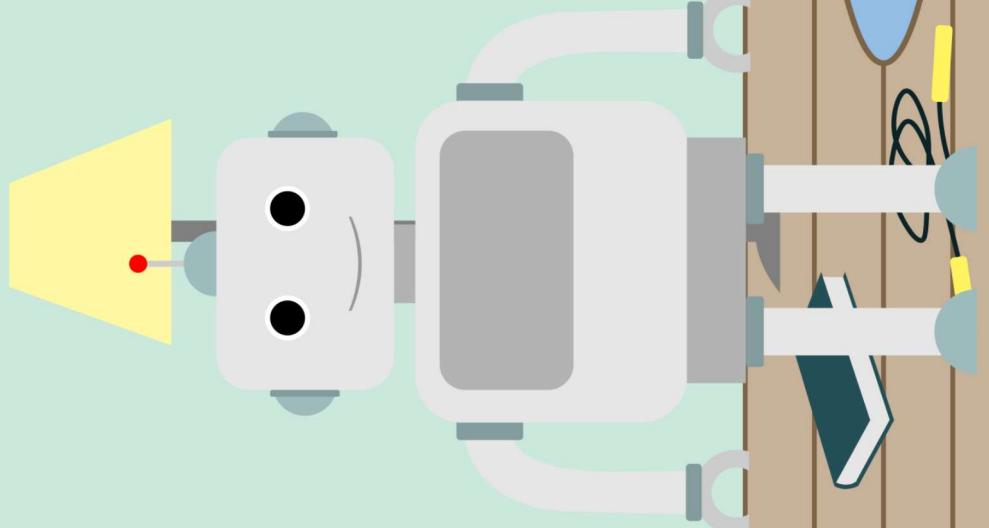

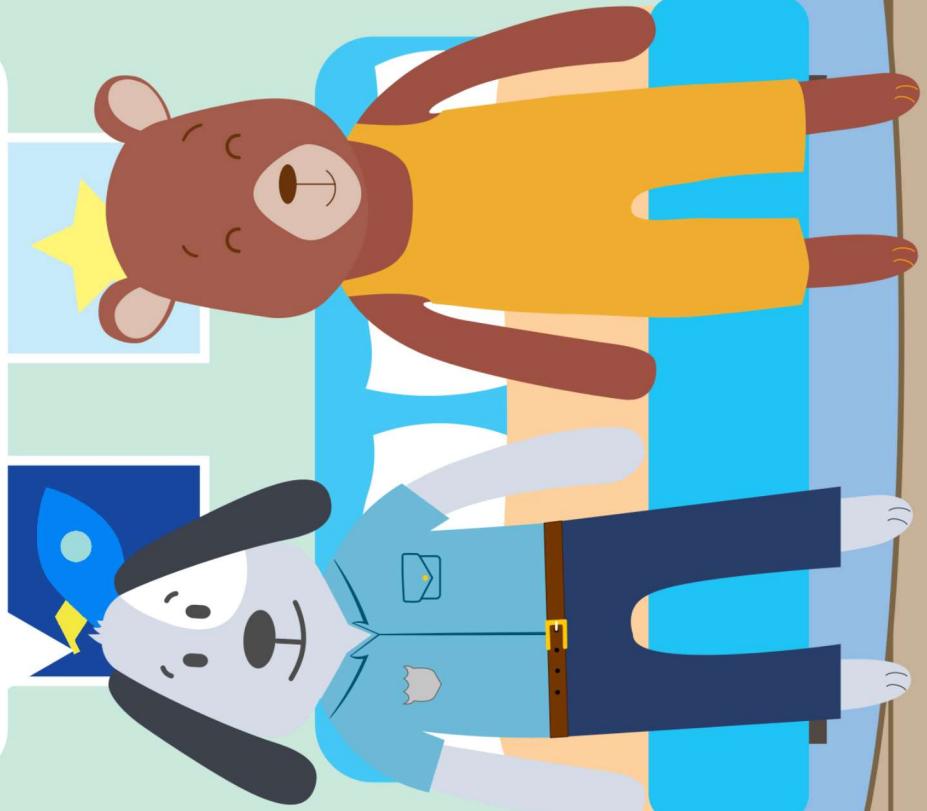

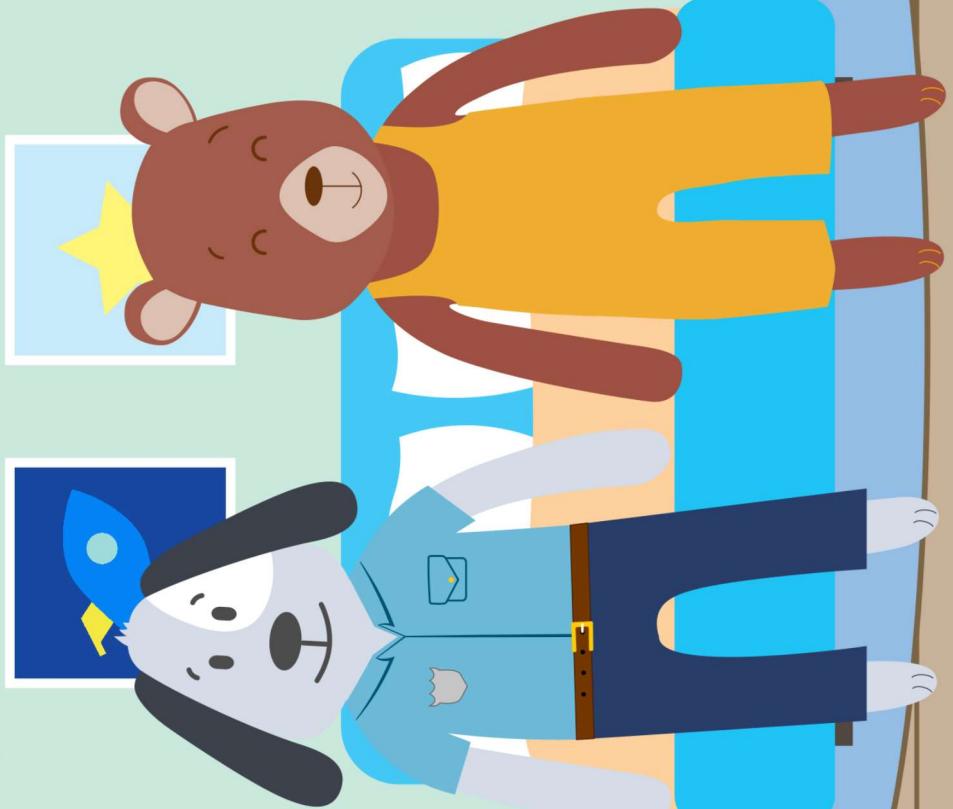

With their friends gathered, Robot went back to the scene of the crime first...their bedroom.

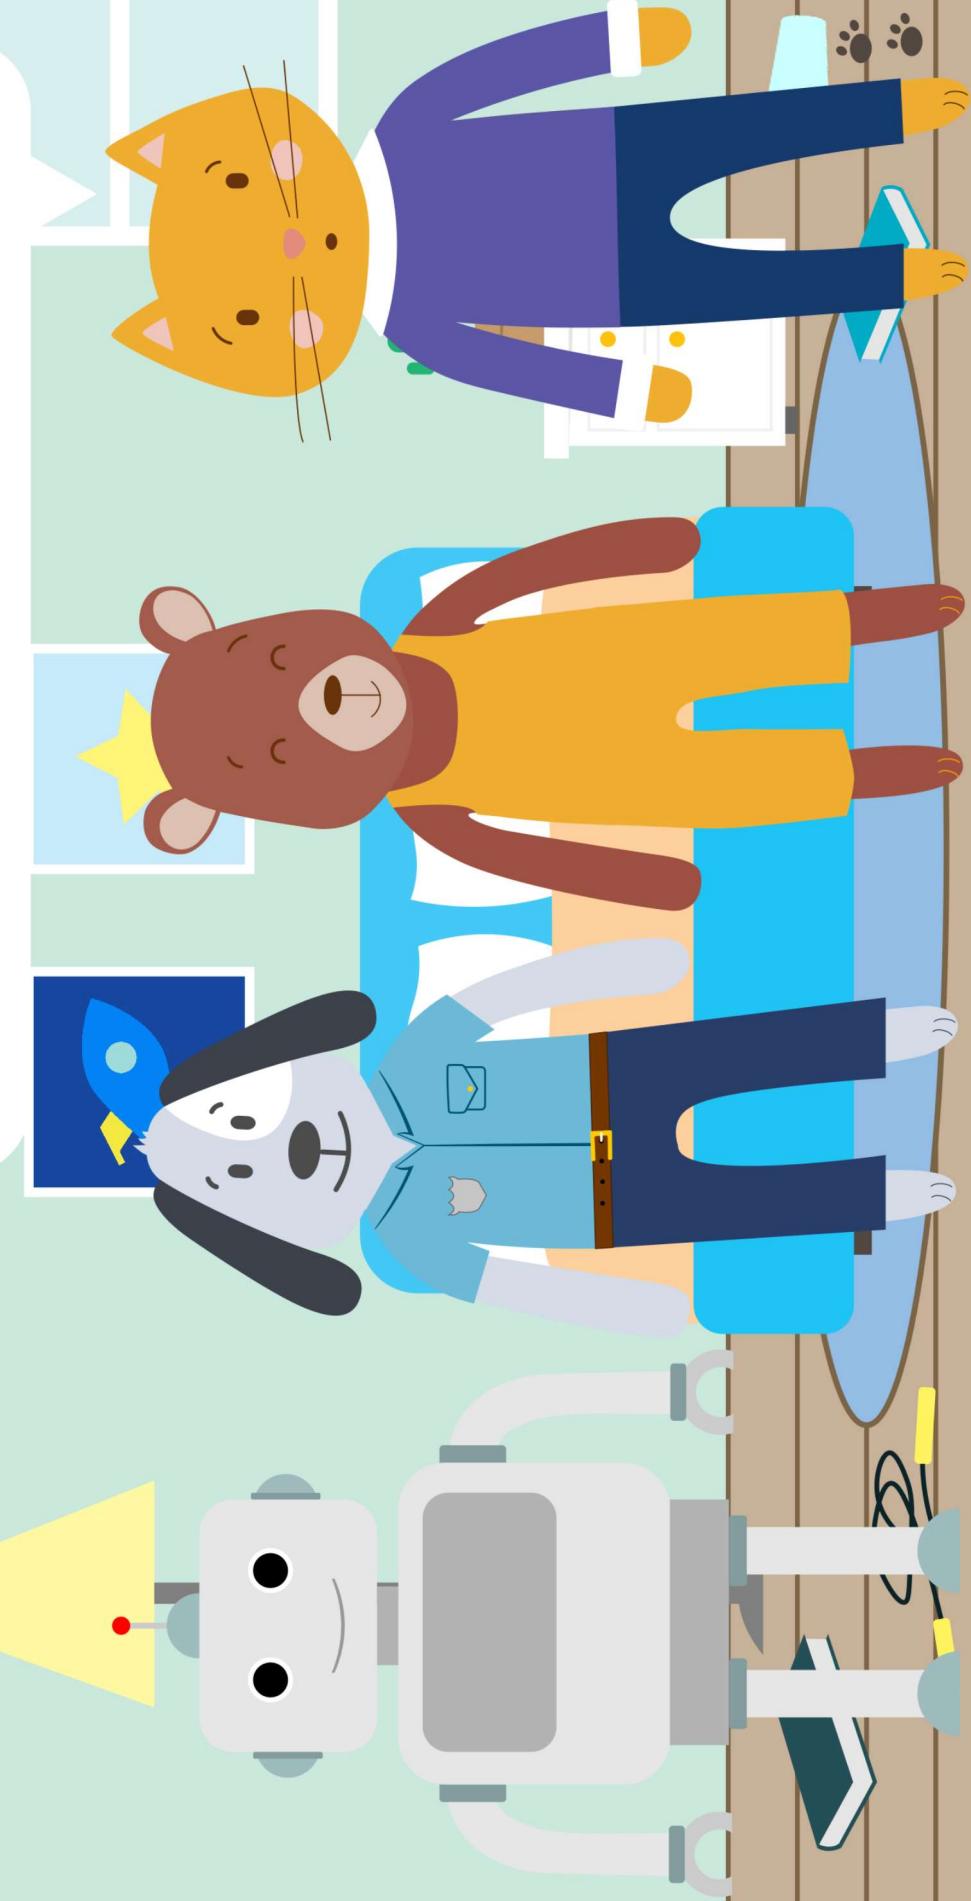

Tell us where you last saw Bun-Bun!

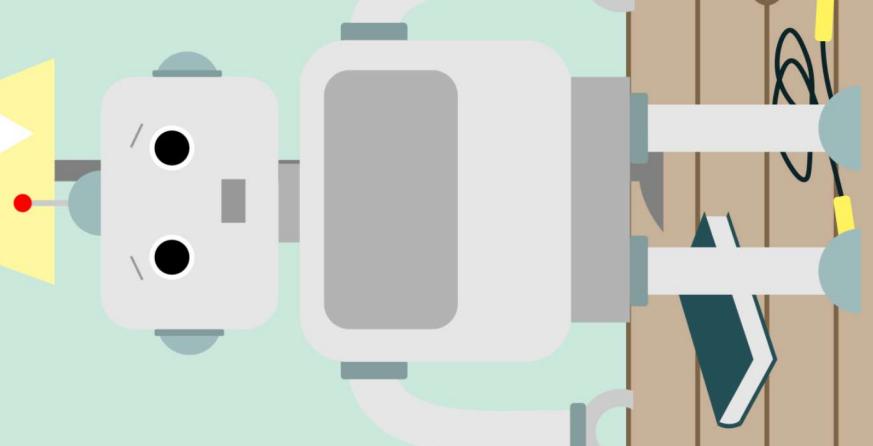

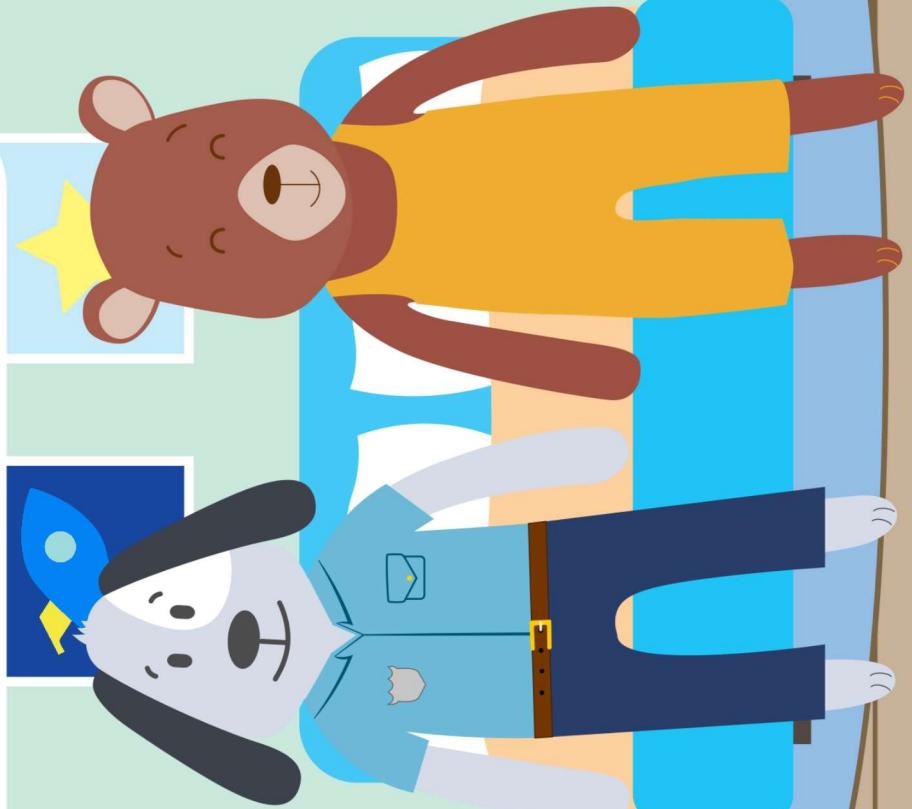

Right there! On my bed!

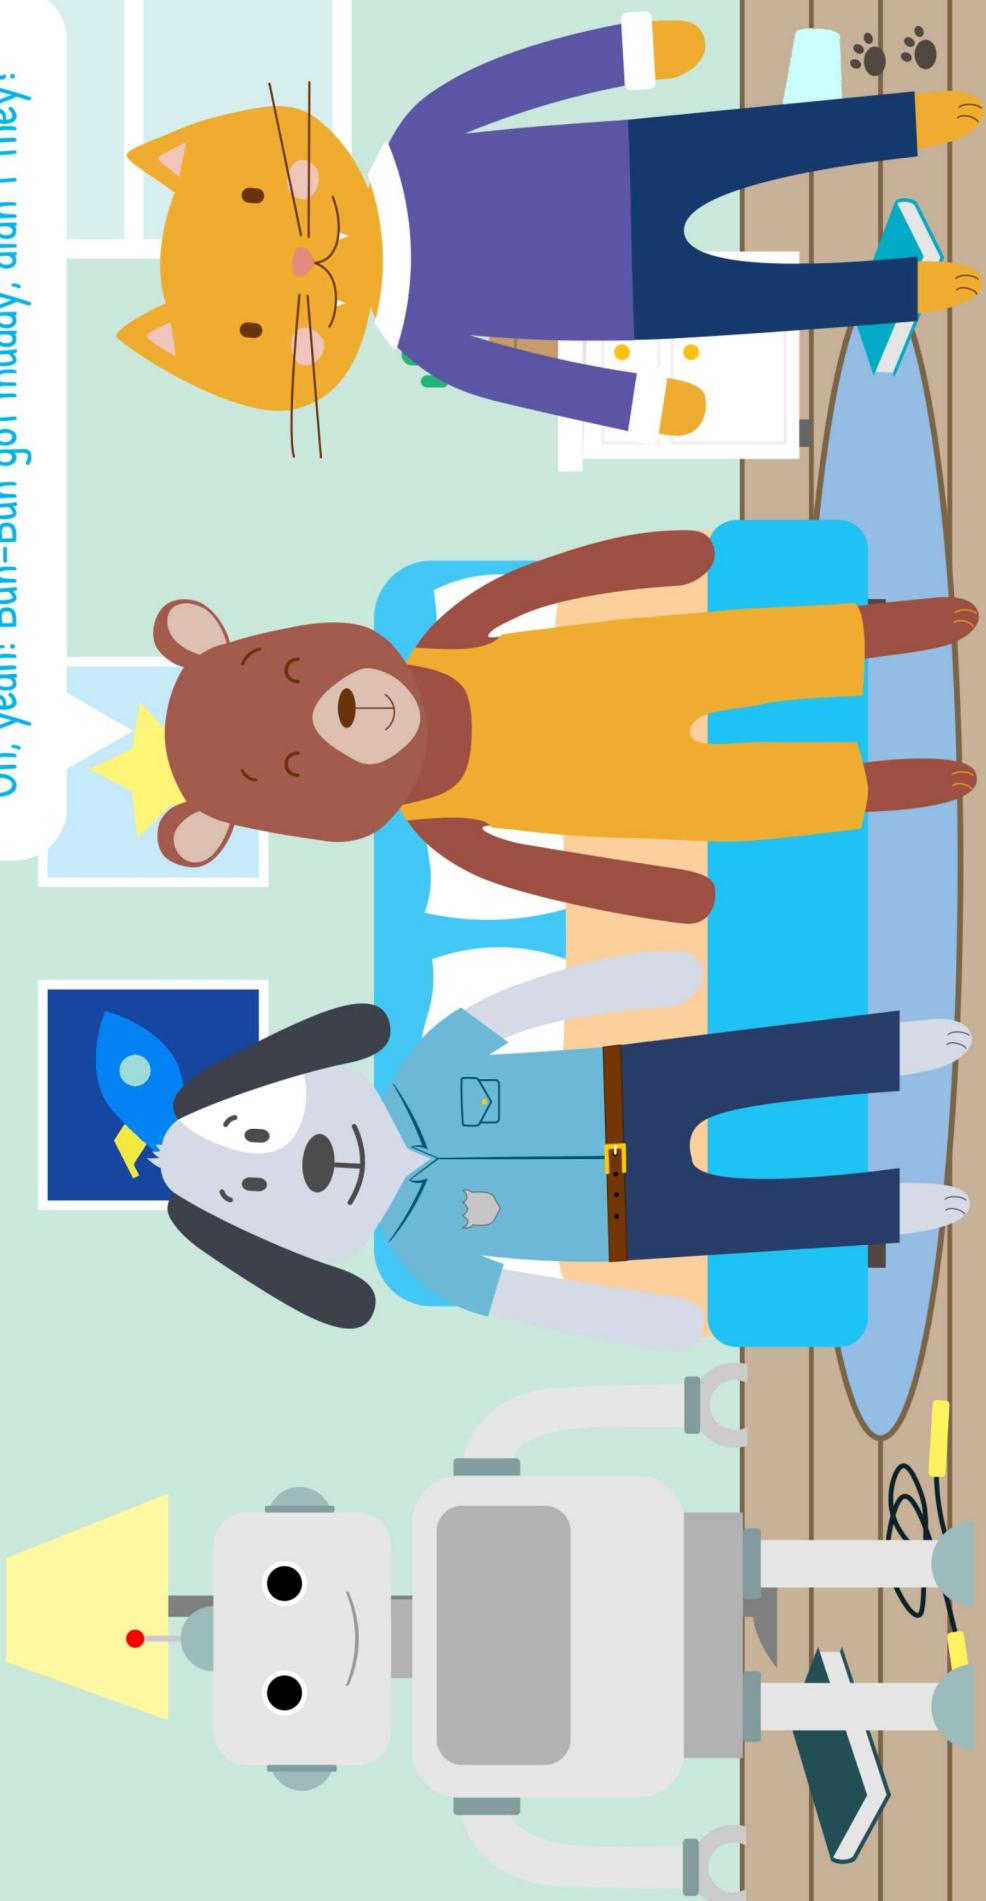

Your room is... a little muddy, isn't it? Your bed is all dirty!

That's because Bear and I were playing out in the rain!
We were playing space rangers with Bun-Bun.

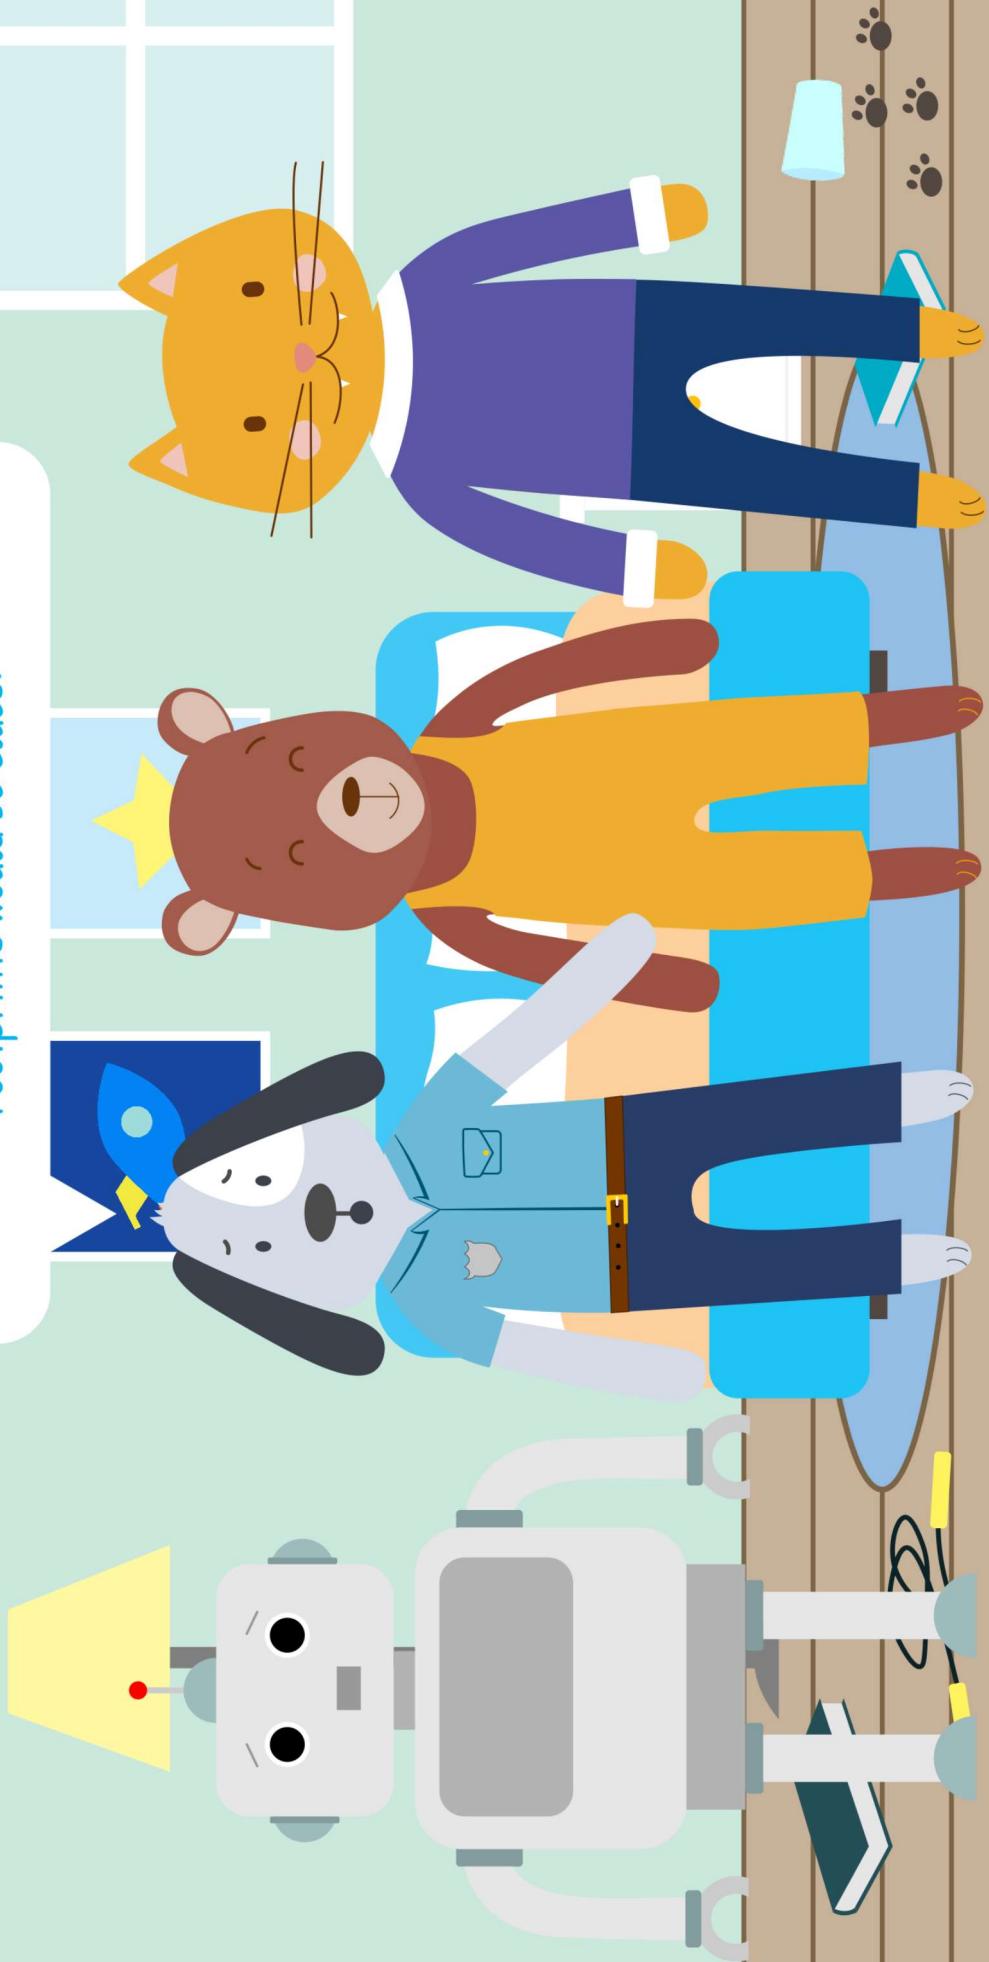

Oh, yeah! Bun-Bun got muddy, didn't they?

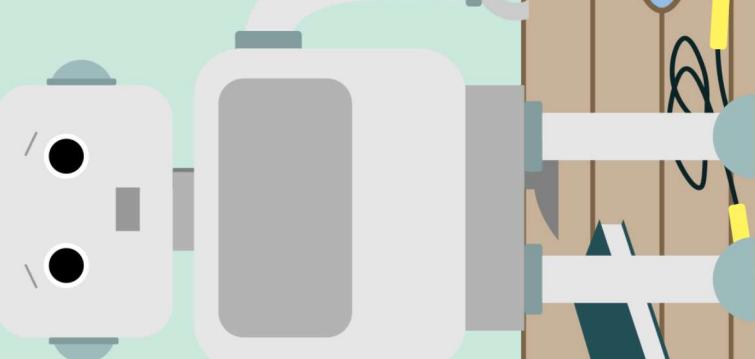

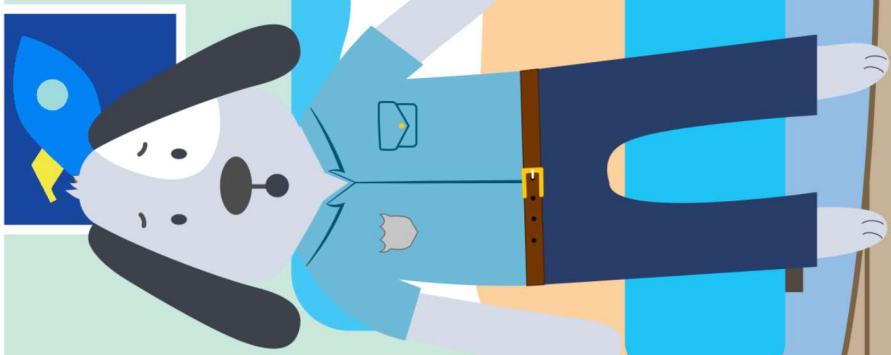

Not everything is muddy! My mom is washing my socks and my raincoat since I got those dirty!

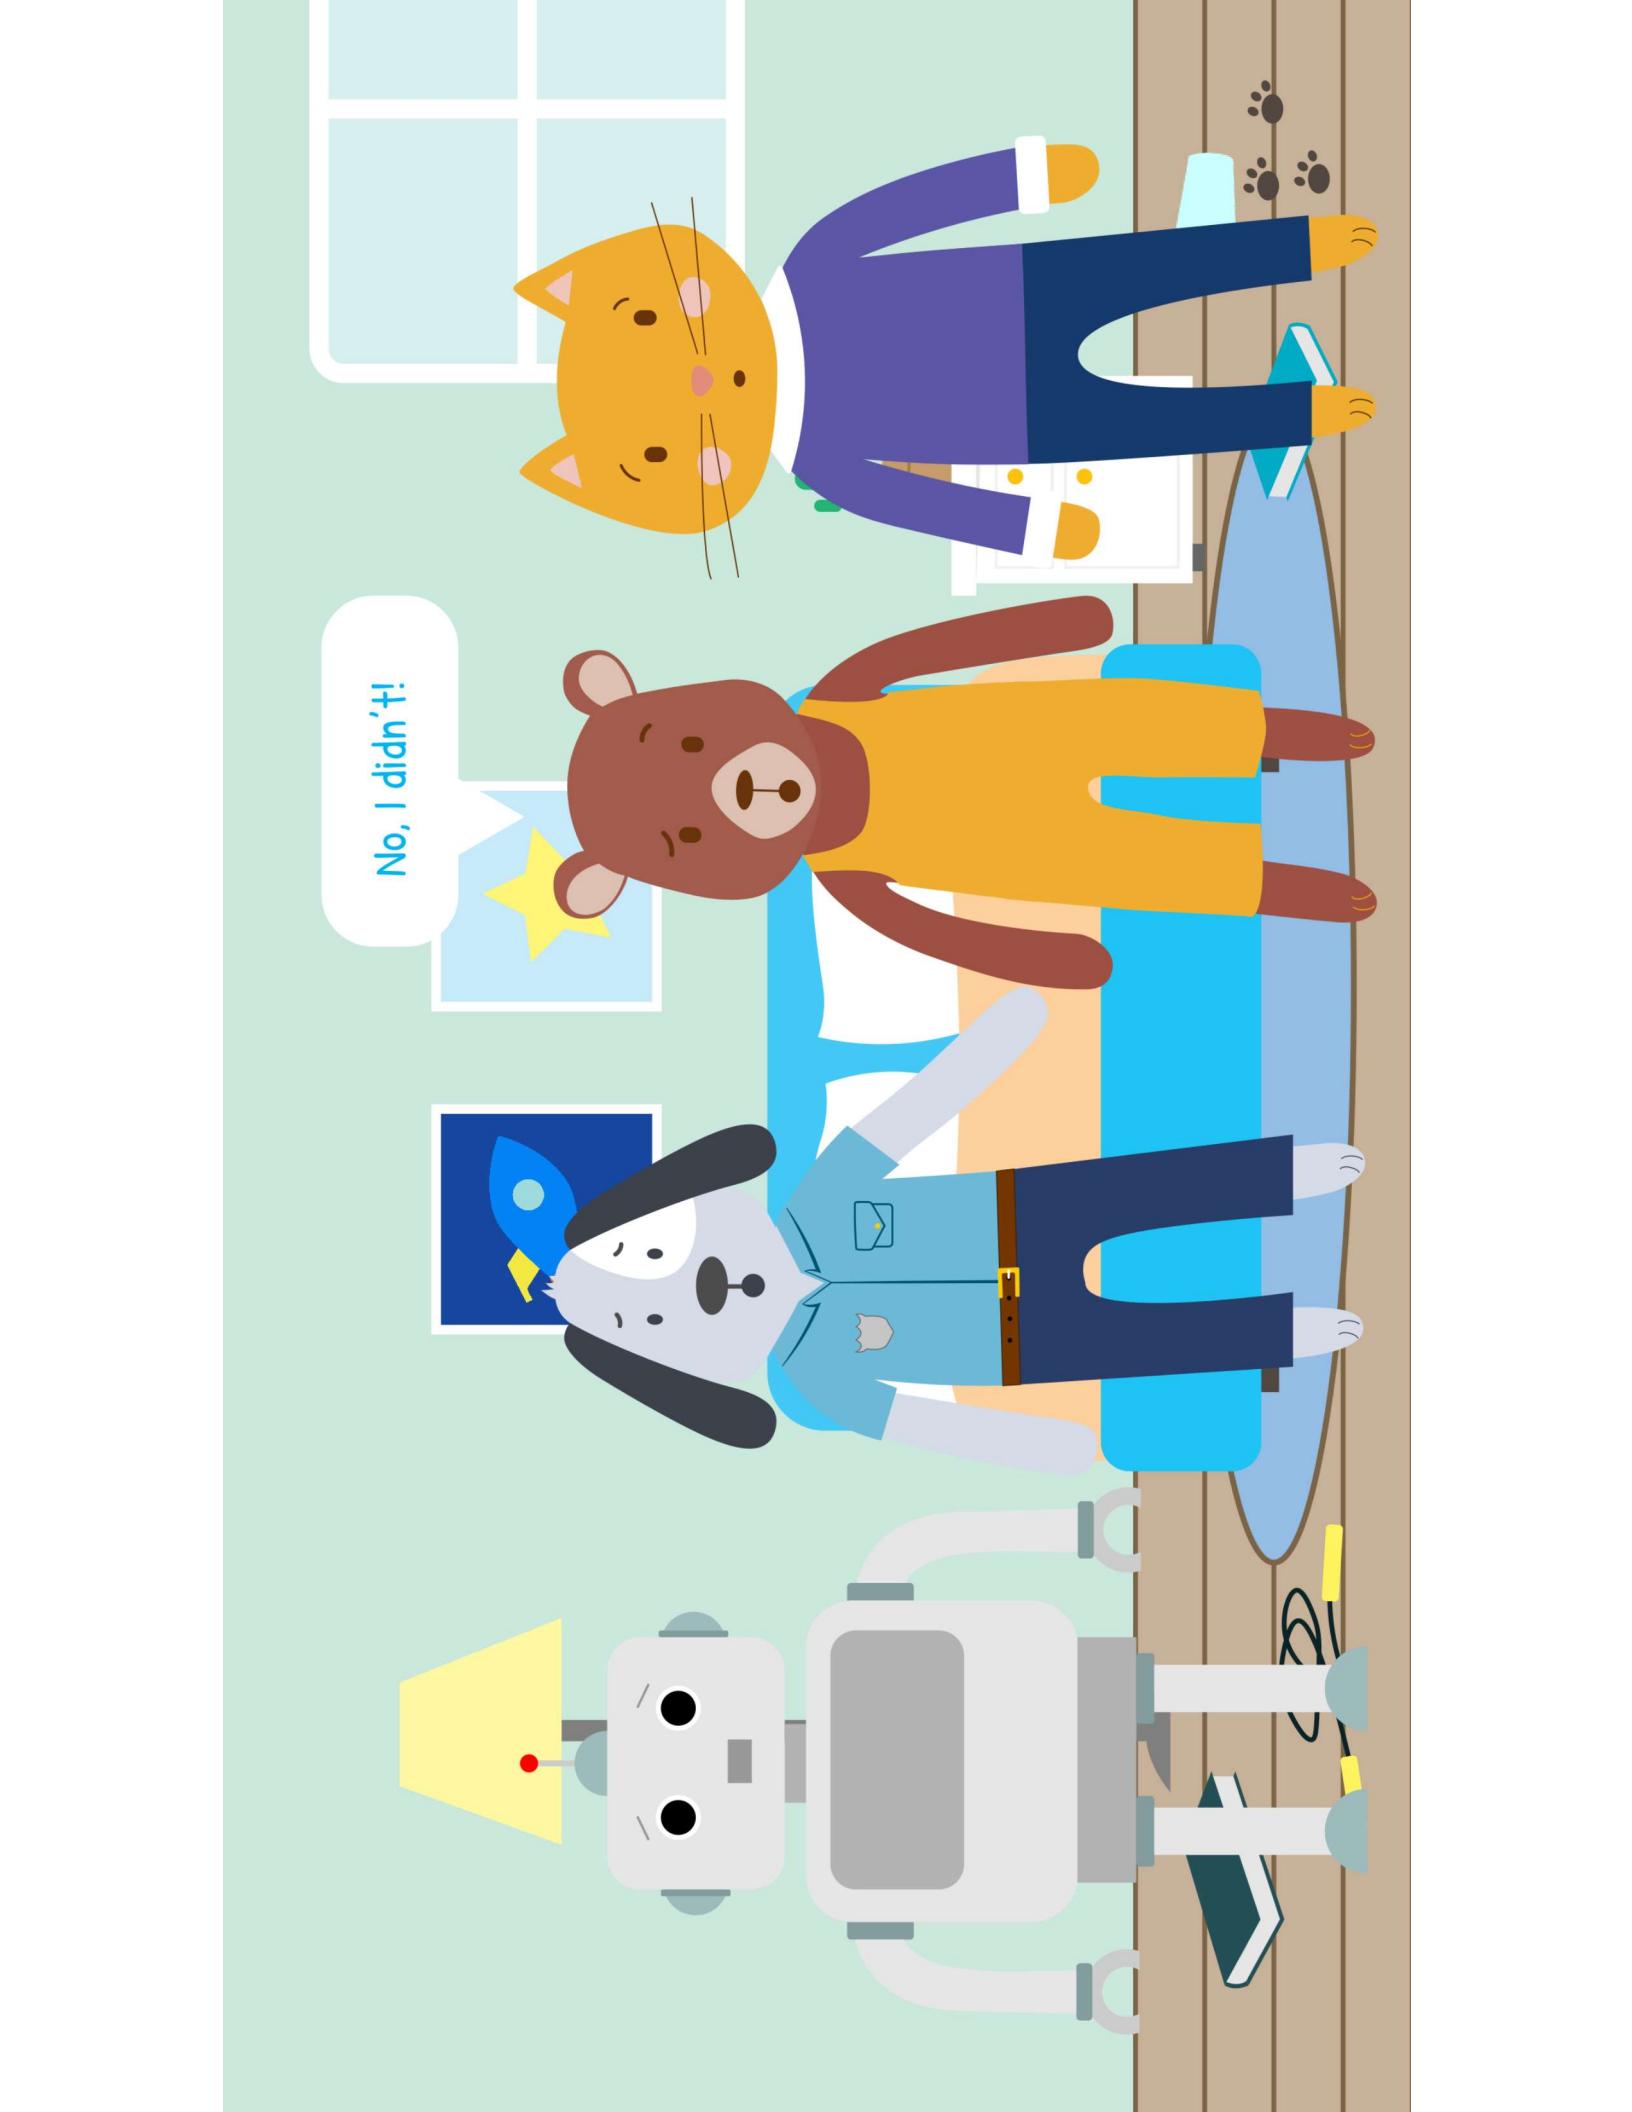

Wait! Look over there! Are those footprints?
Footprints would be clues!

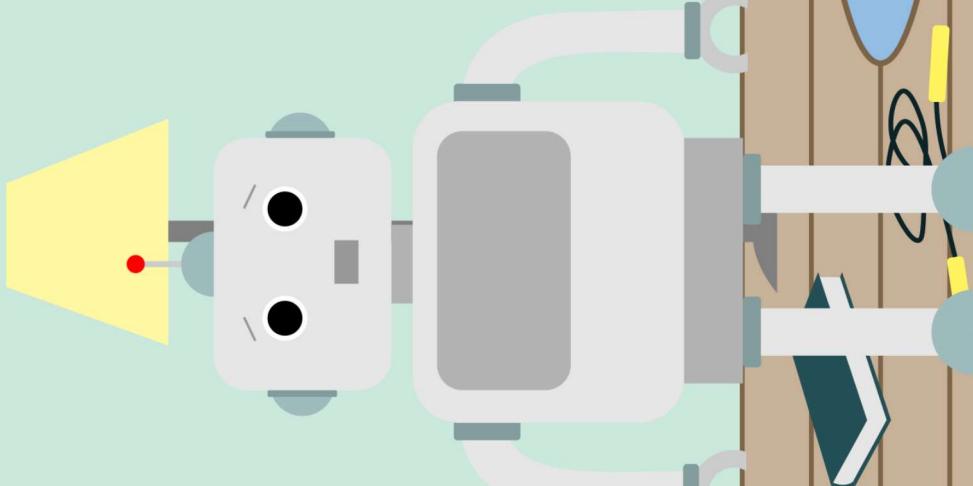

And they kinda look like Bear's footprints...
Bear, did you take Bun-Bun?

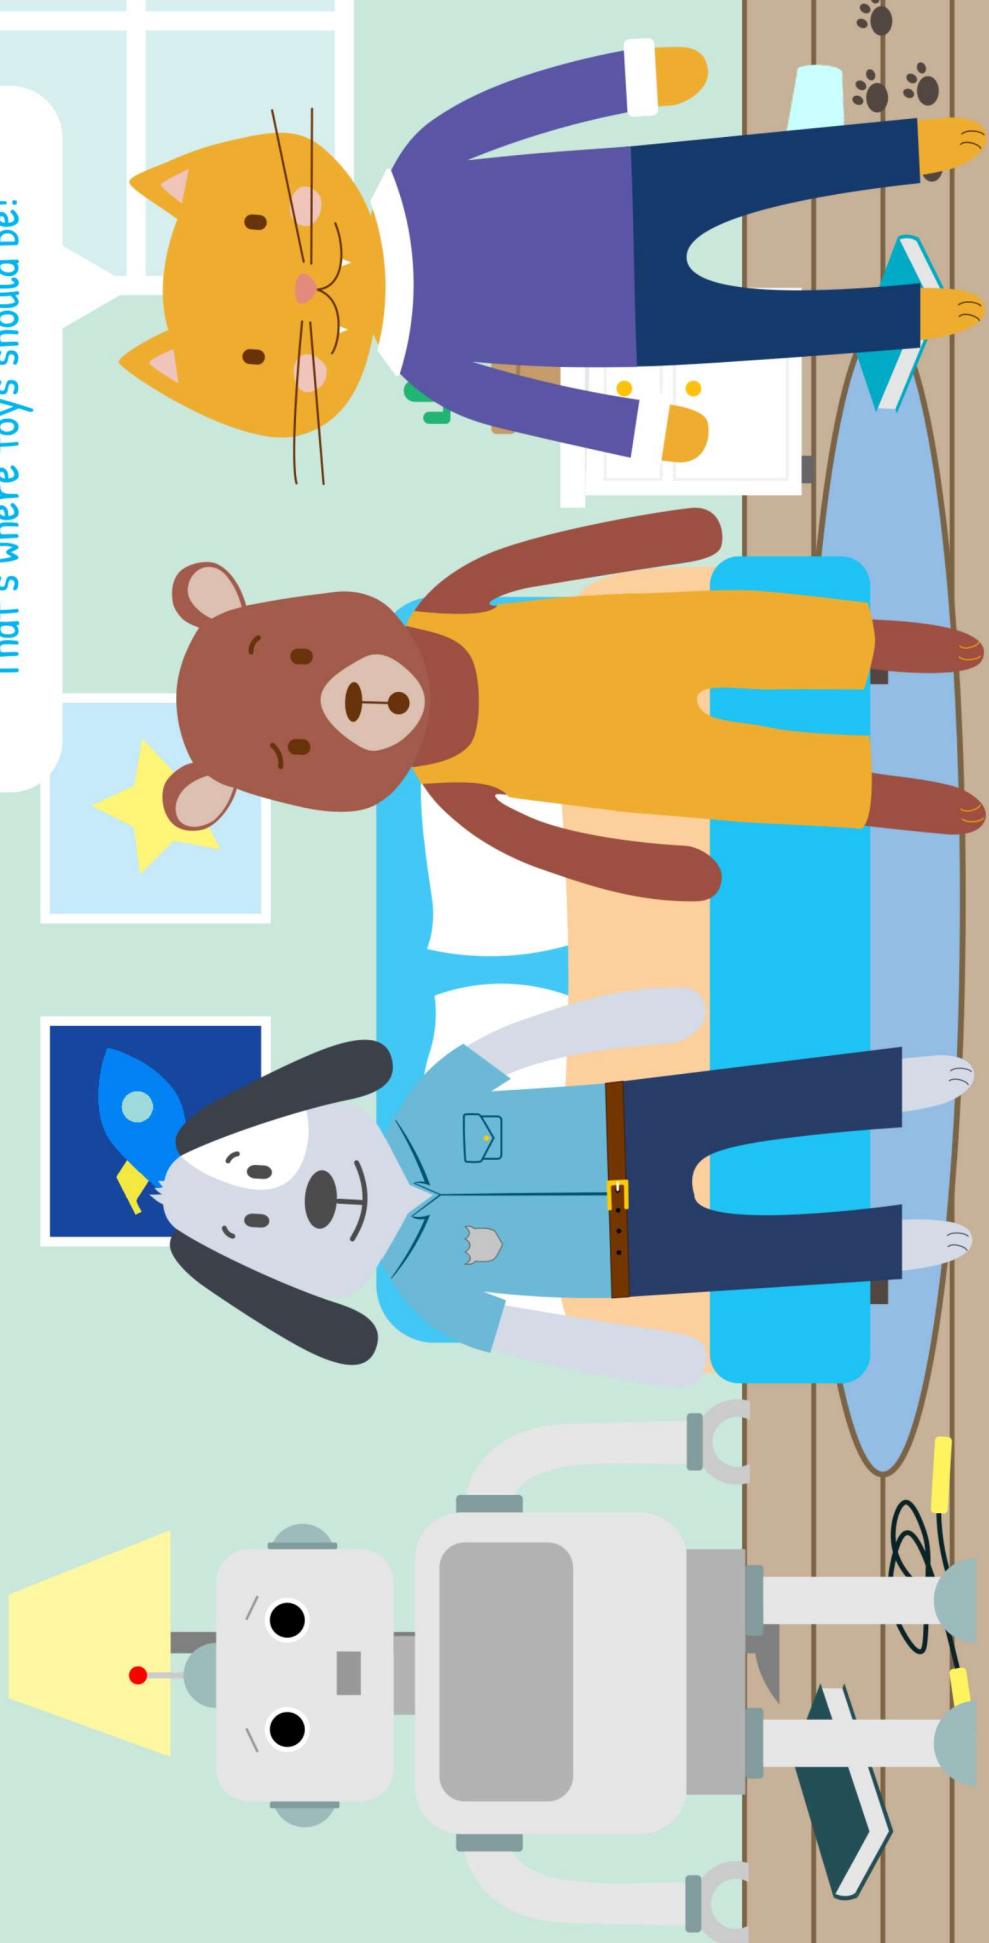

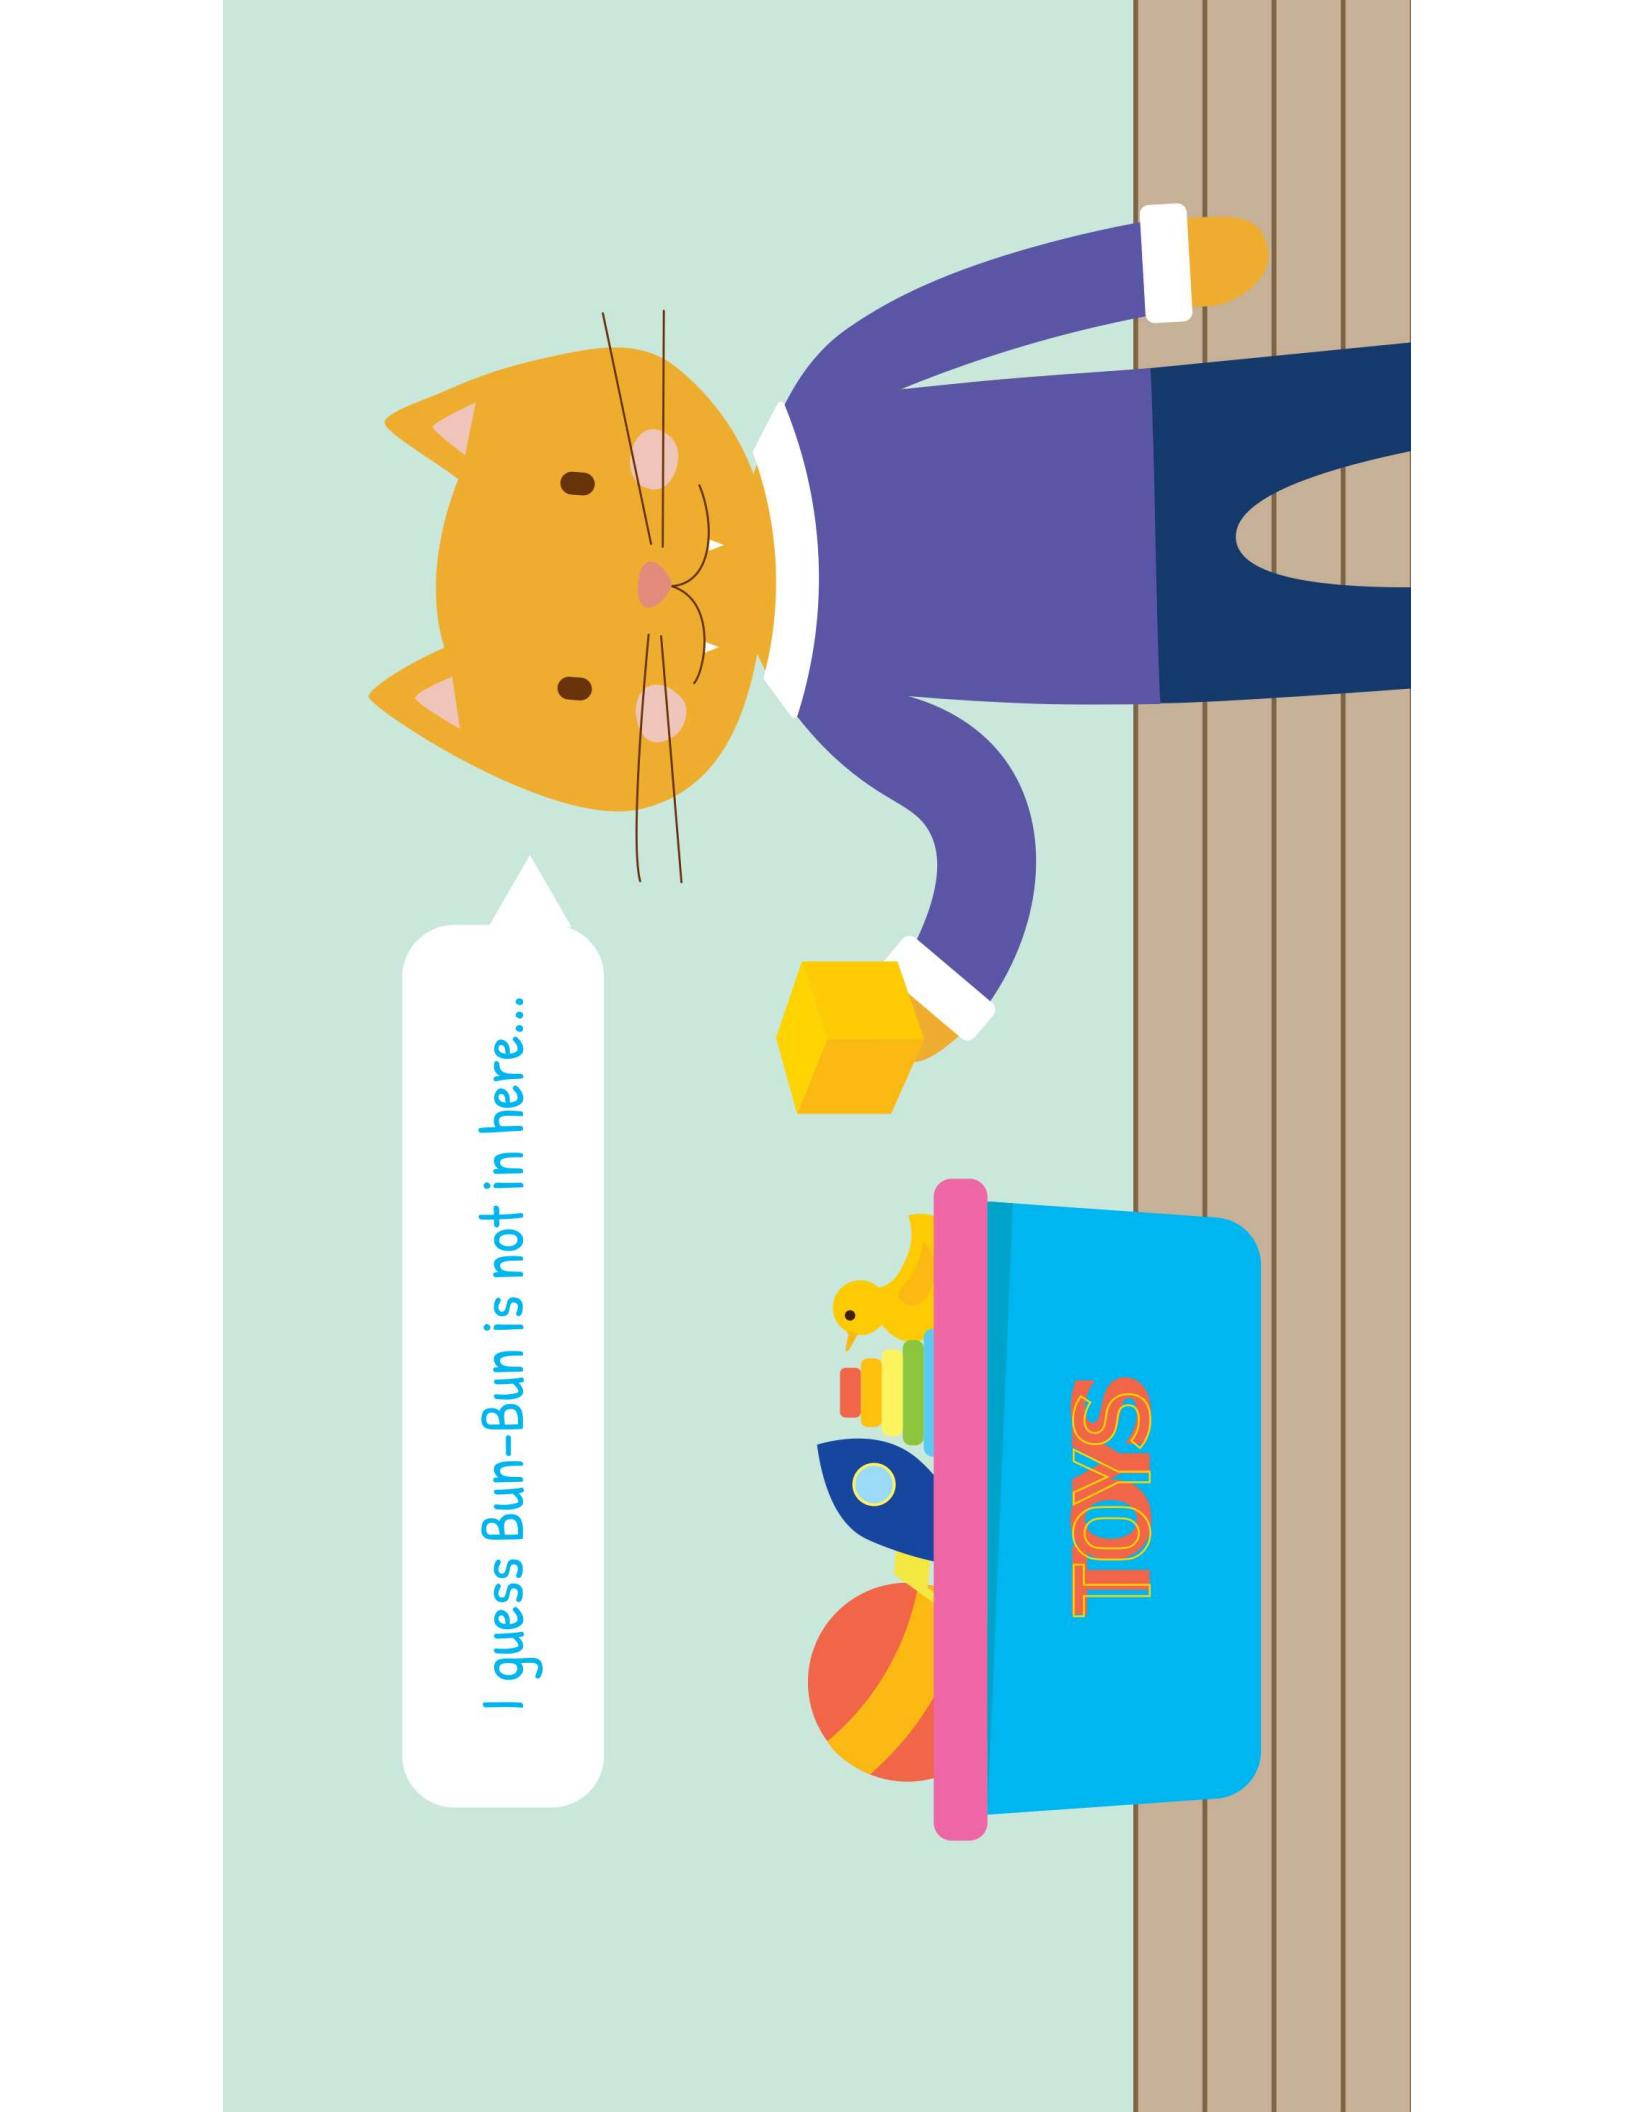

No, I didn't!

I believe Bear. We should keep looking around for clues!

I'm going to look in the toy chest.
That's where toys should be!

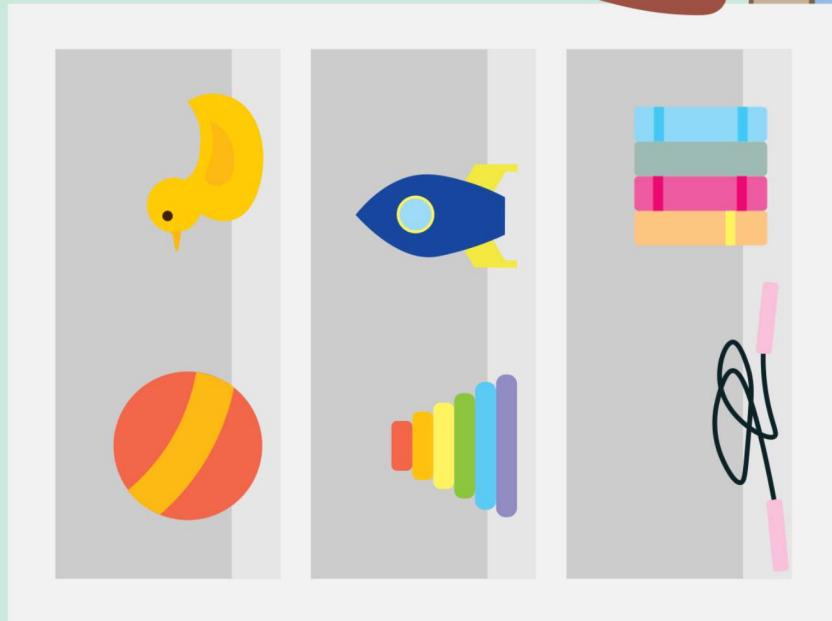

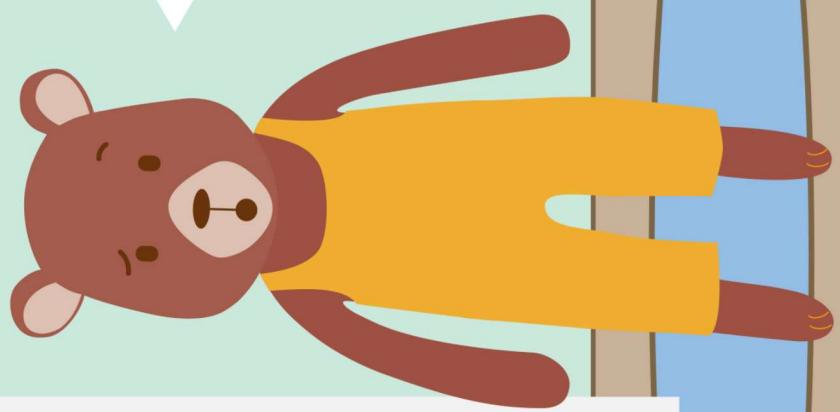

I guess Bun-Bun is not in here...

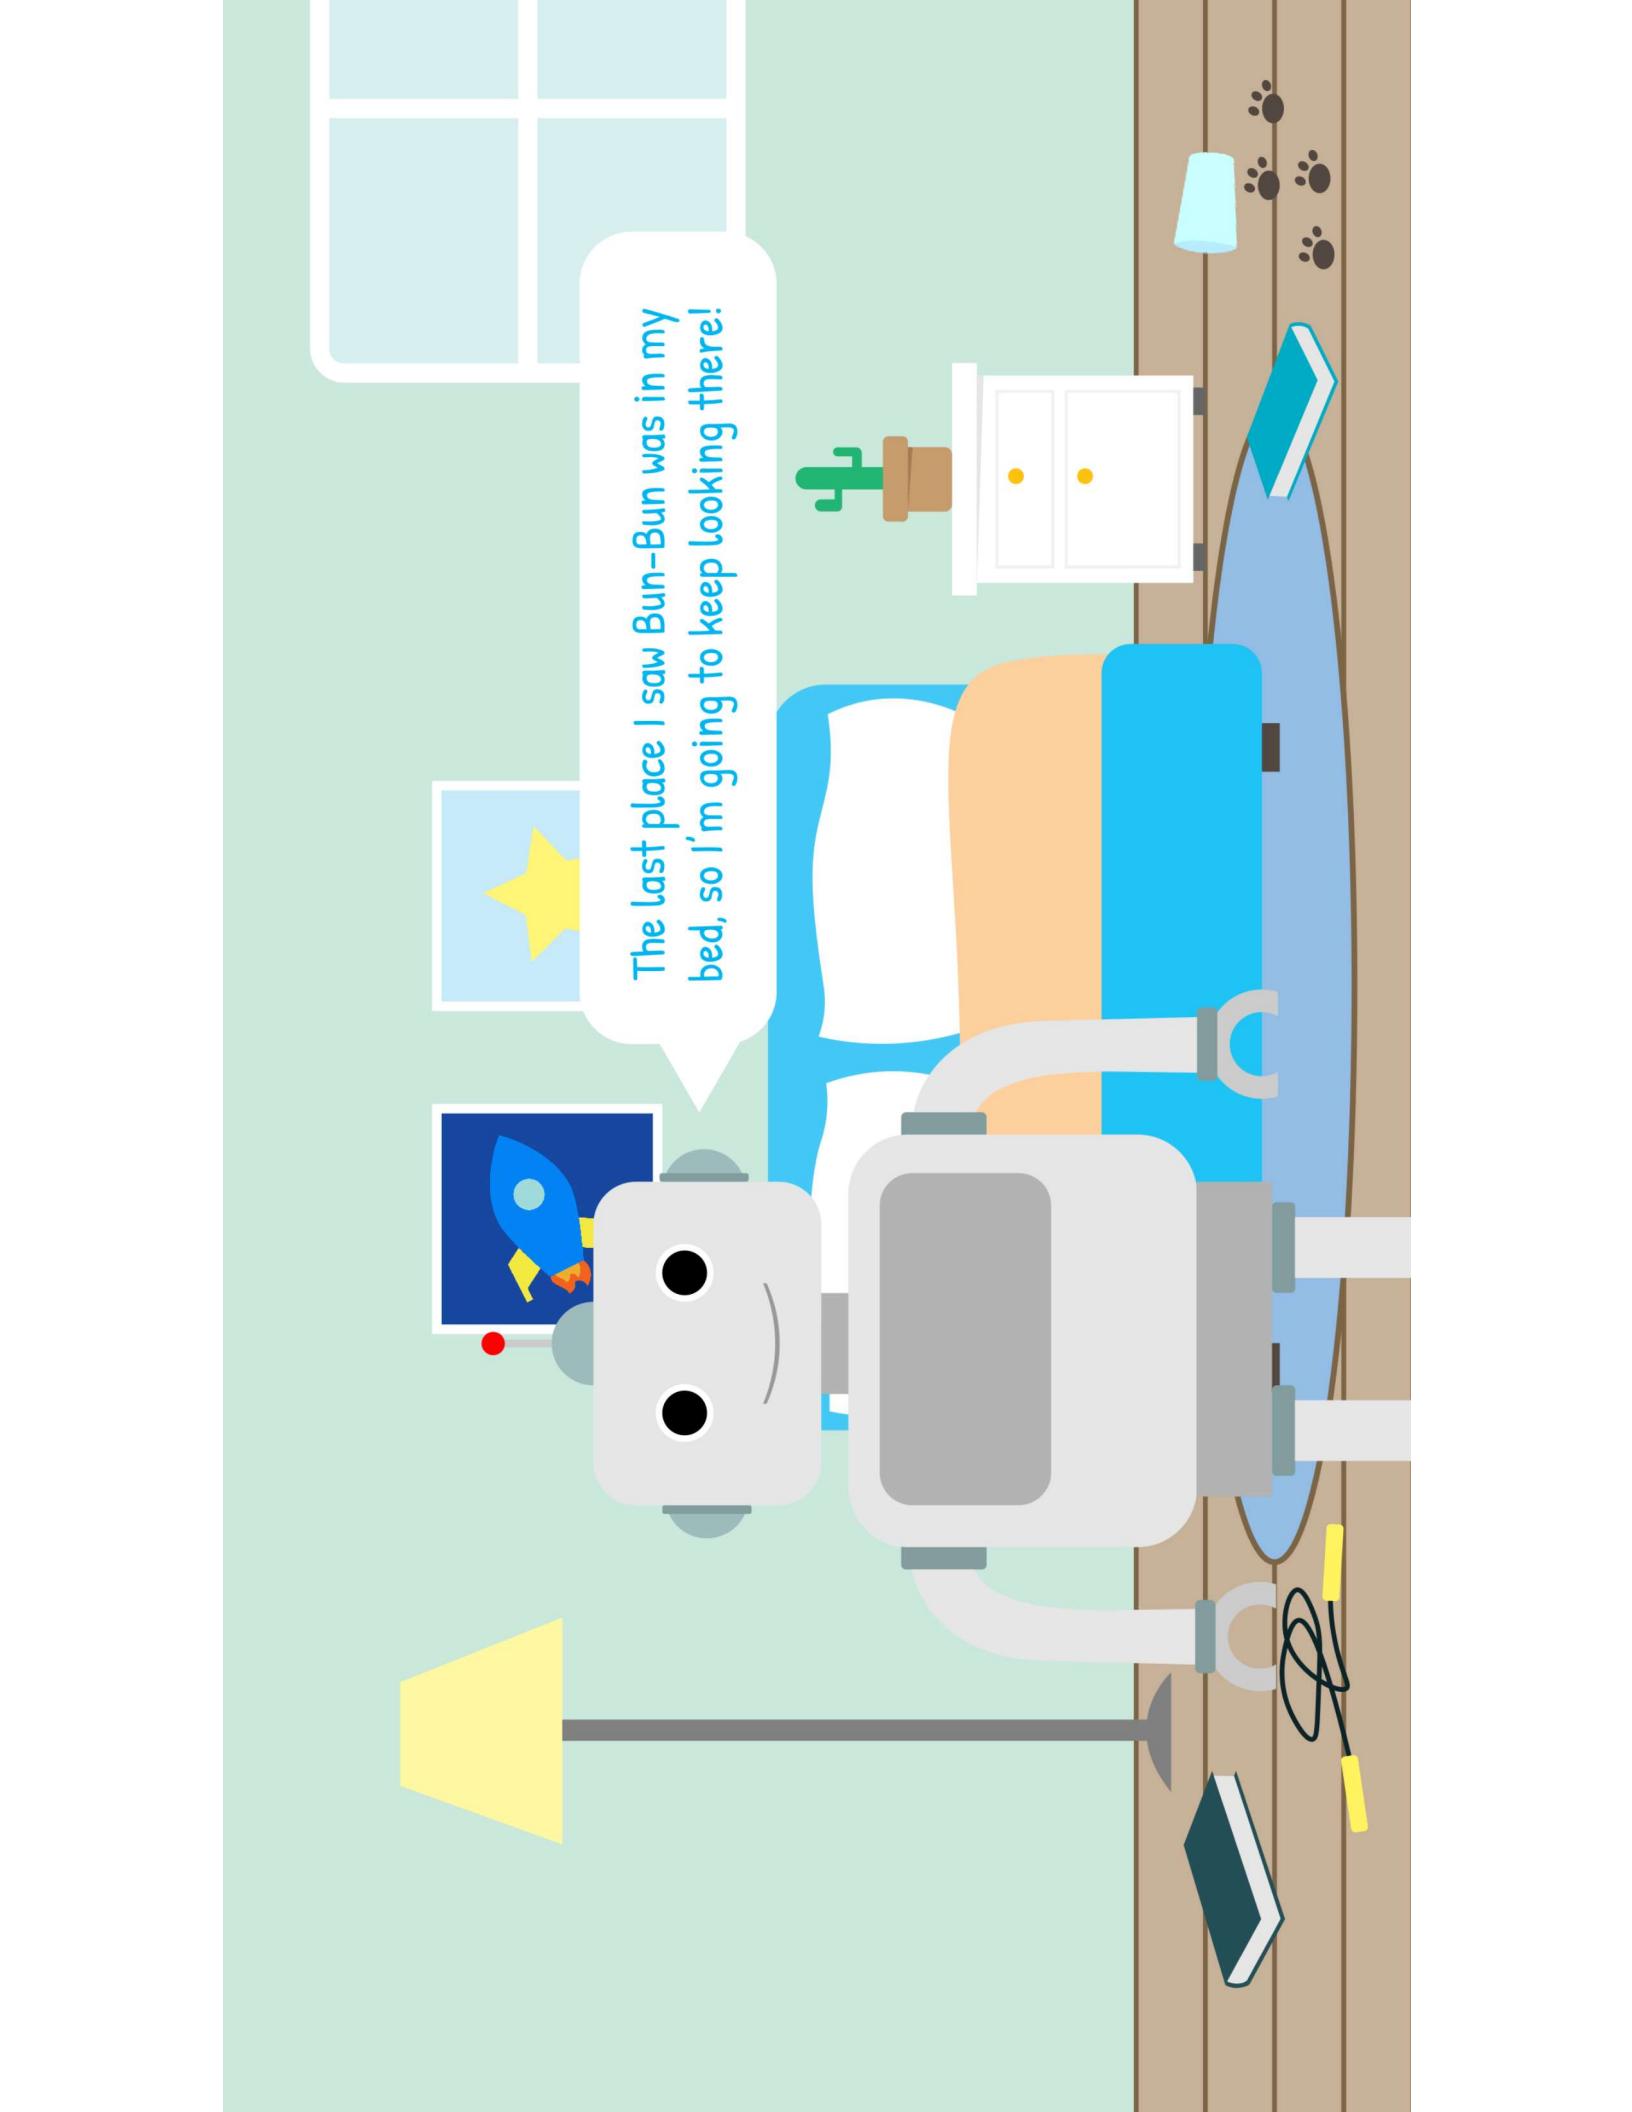

TOYS

I'm going to look on your shelves. A unique toy like that should be on display!

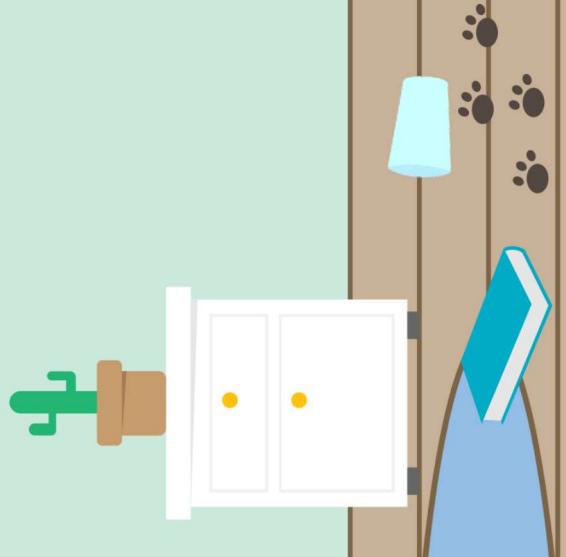

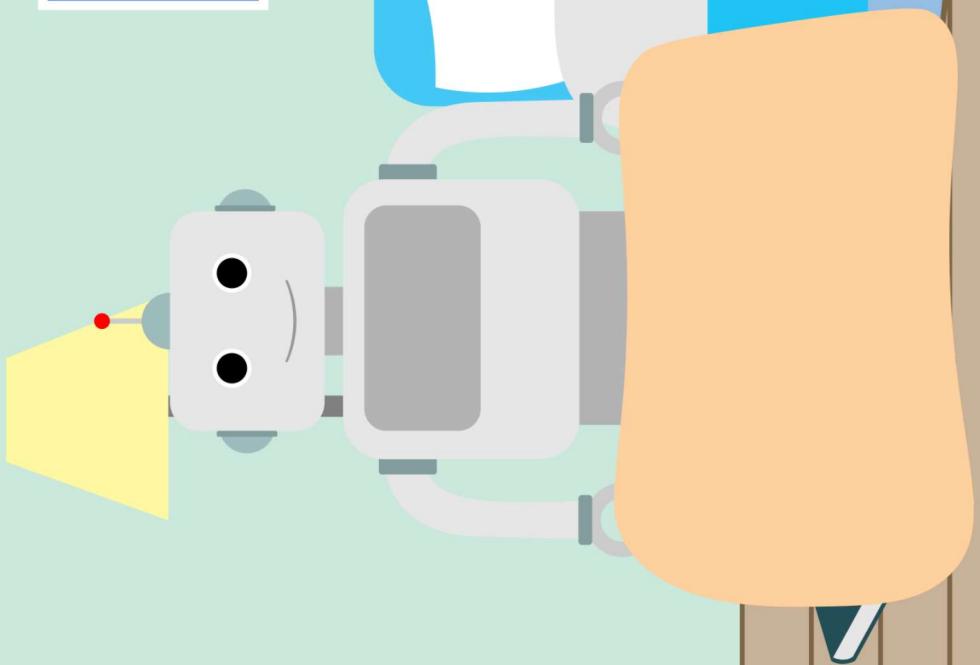

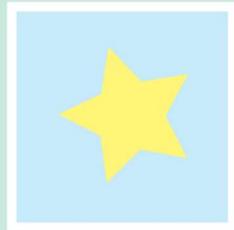

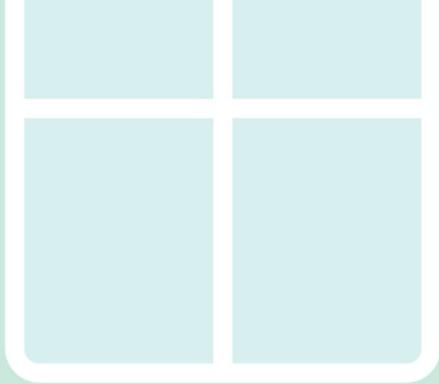

Bun-Bun is not up here.

The last place I saw Bun-Bun was in my bed, so I'm going to keep looking there!

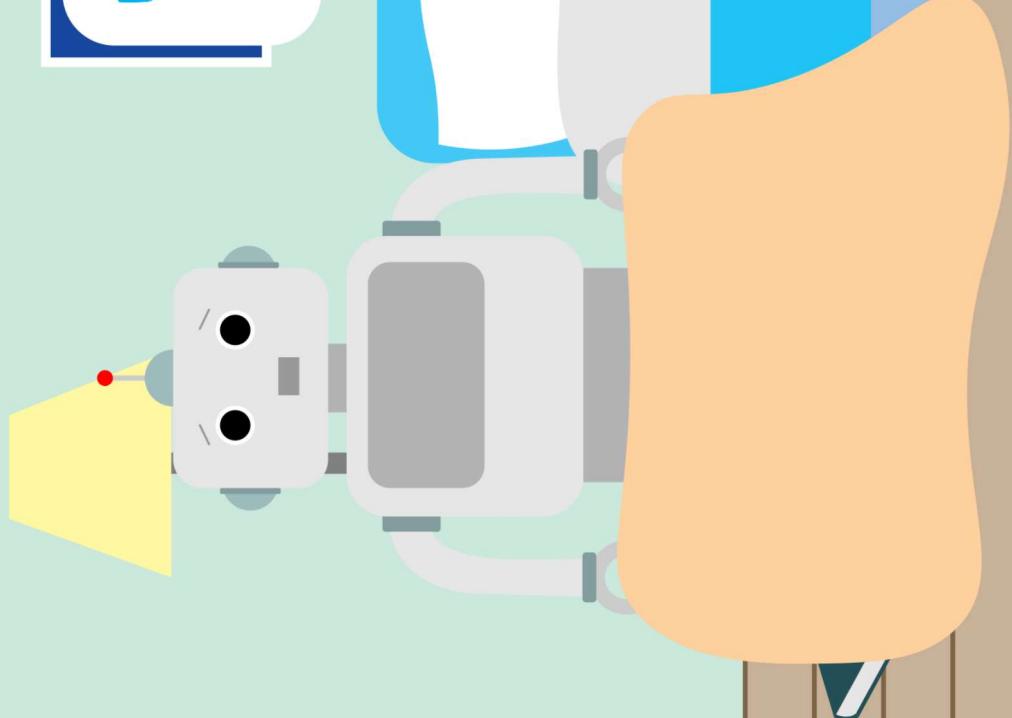

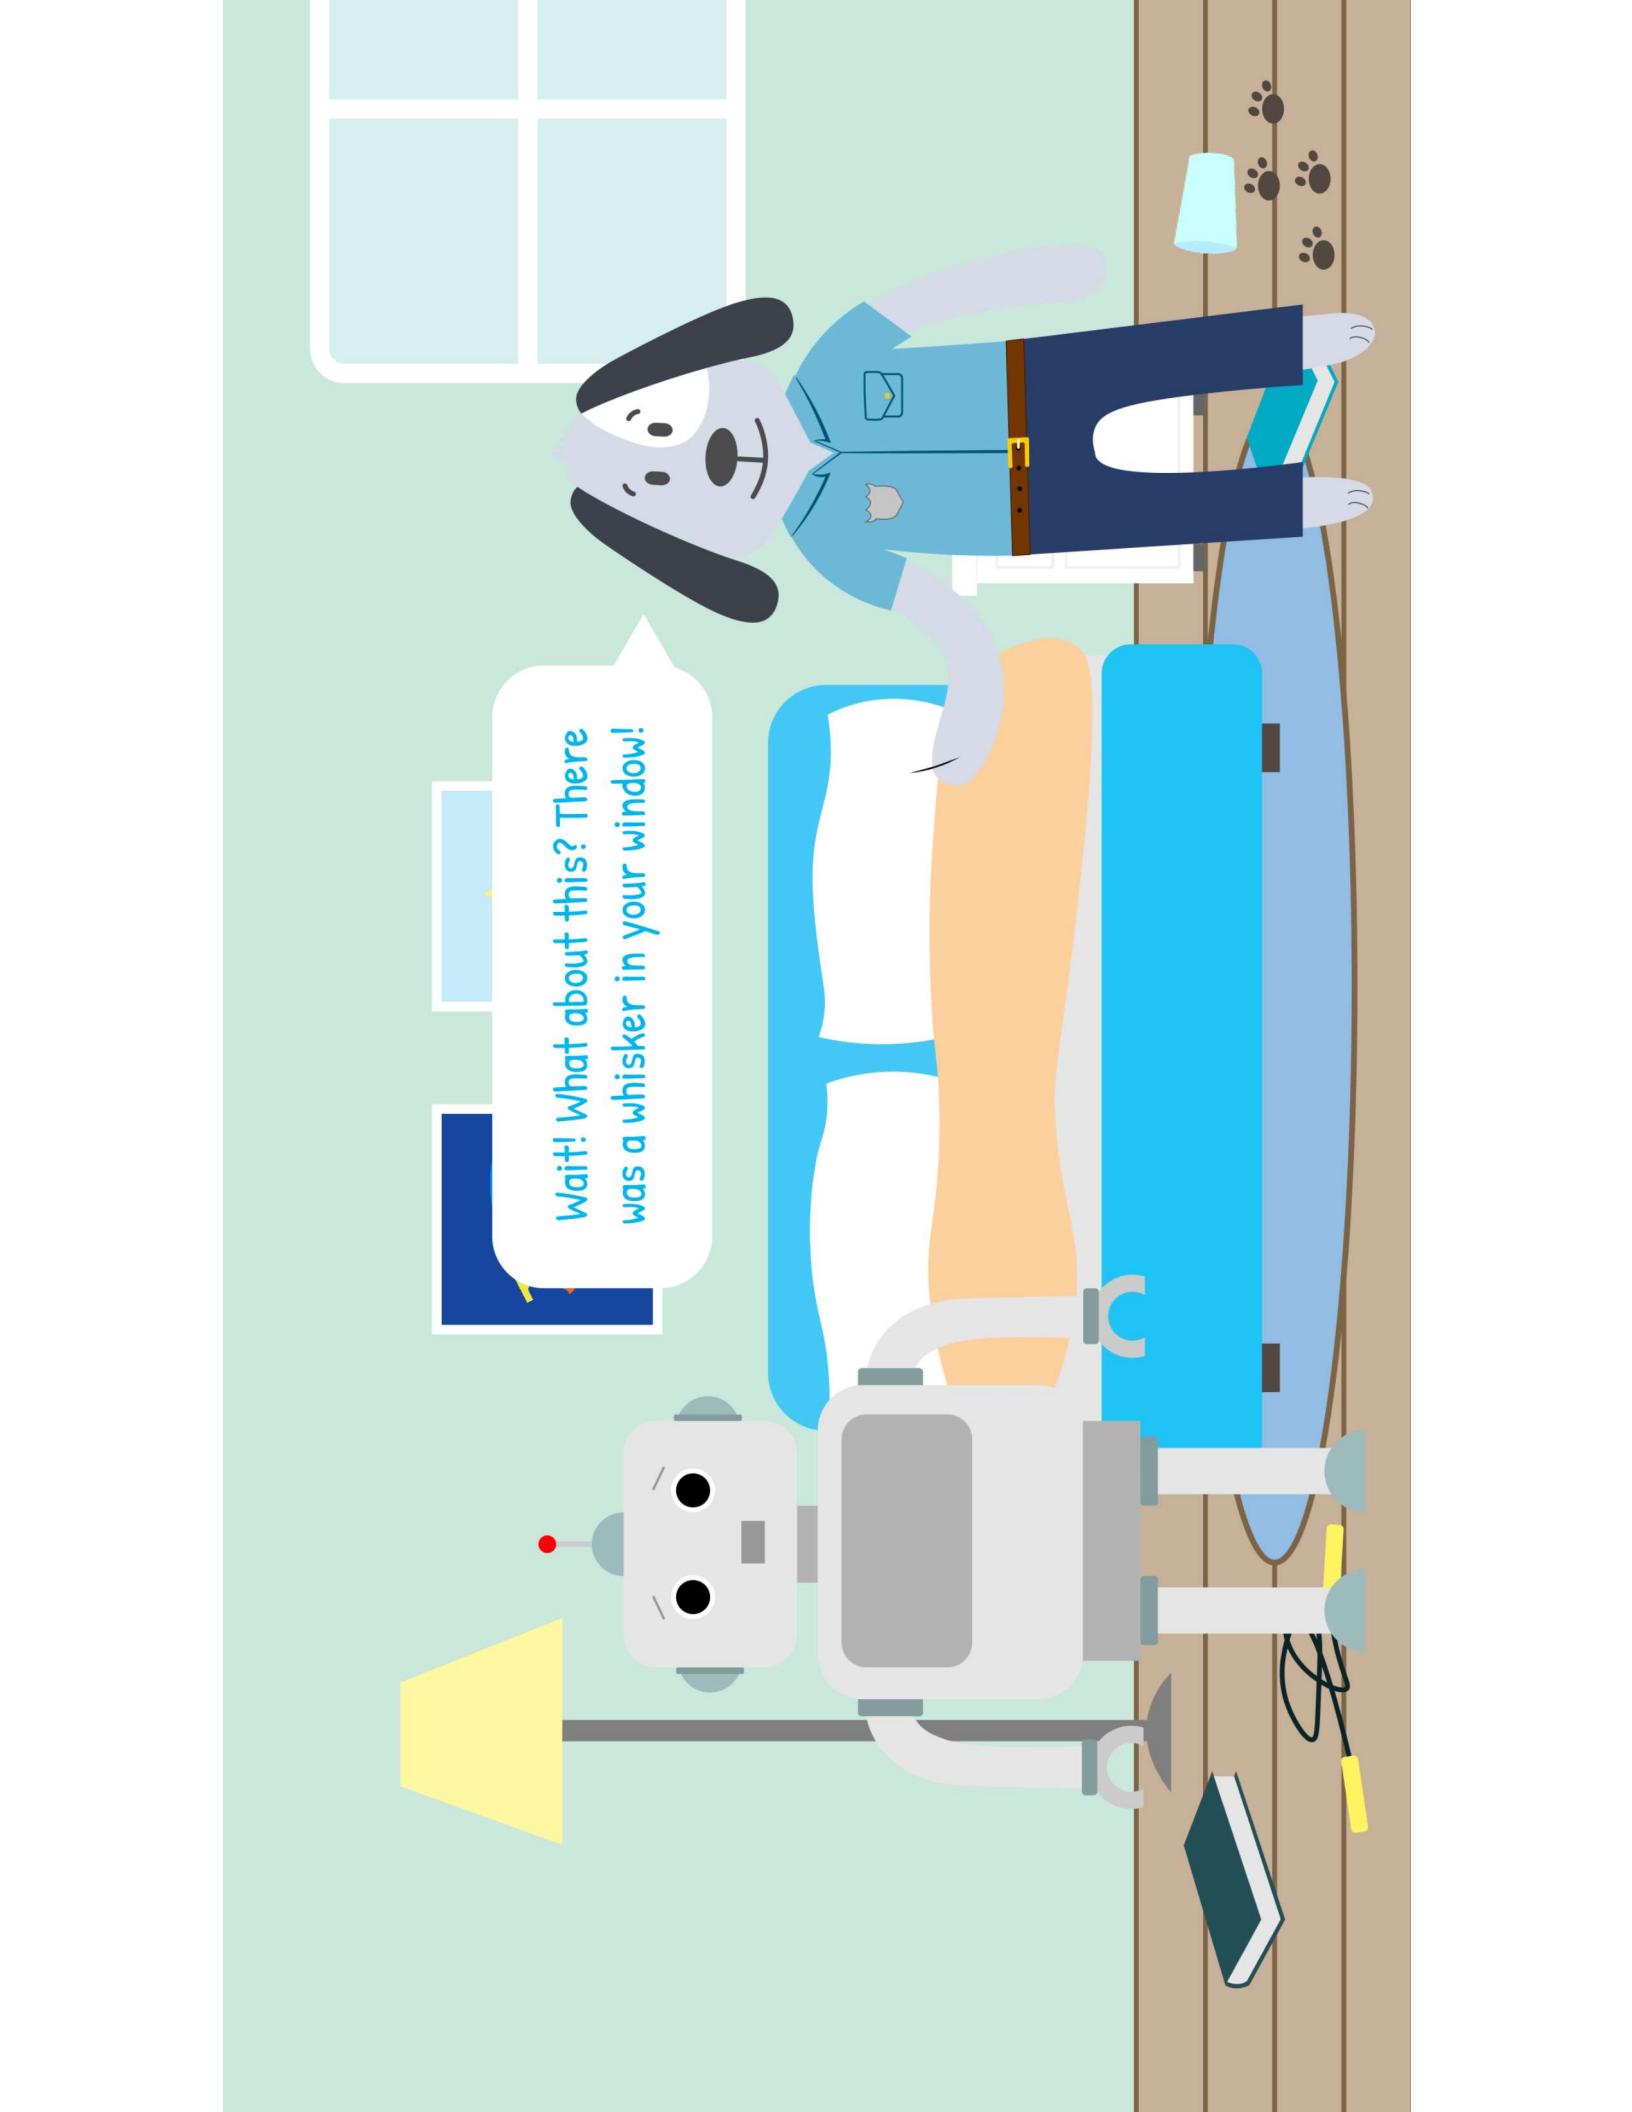

Oh no! Where could Bun-Bun be?

Don't give up yet! I bet Bun-Bun is still around! I'm going to look around your room some more.

Wait! What about this? There was a whisker in your window!

Cat has whiskers!

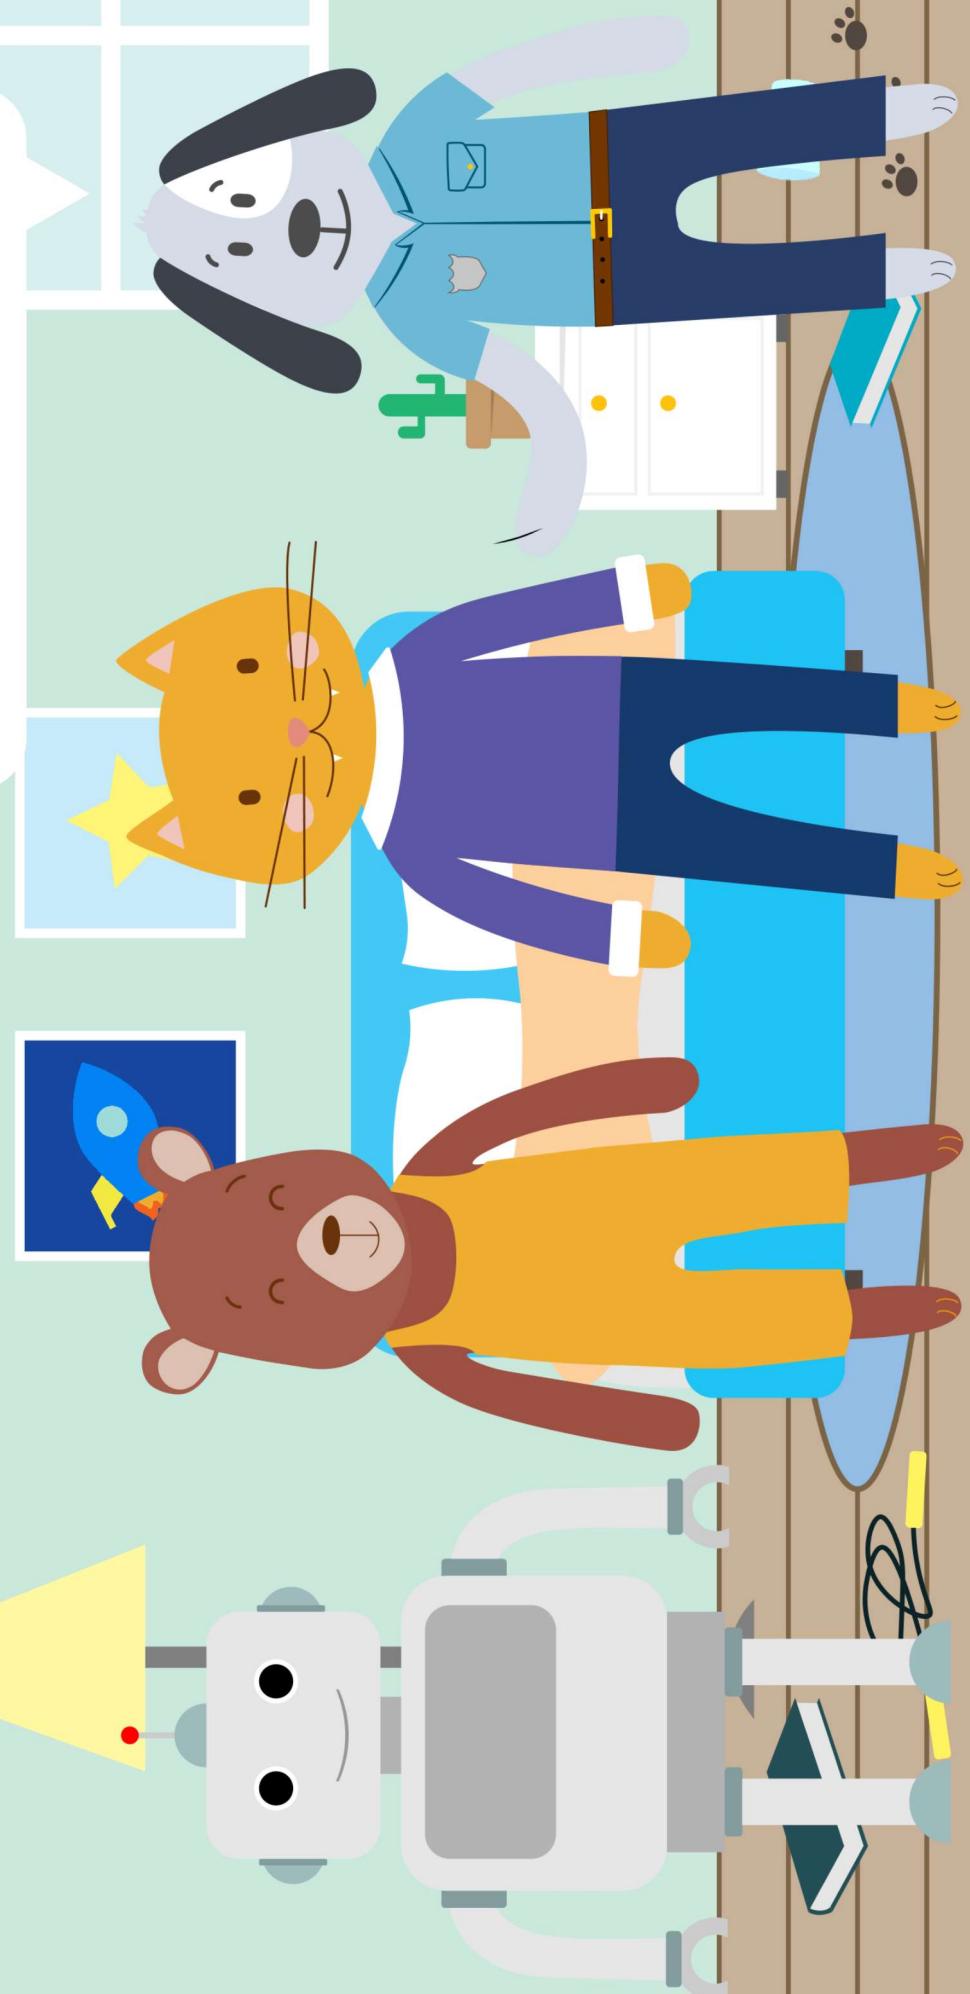

Cat, did you take Bun-Bun?

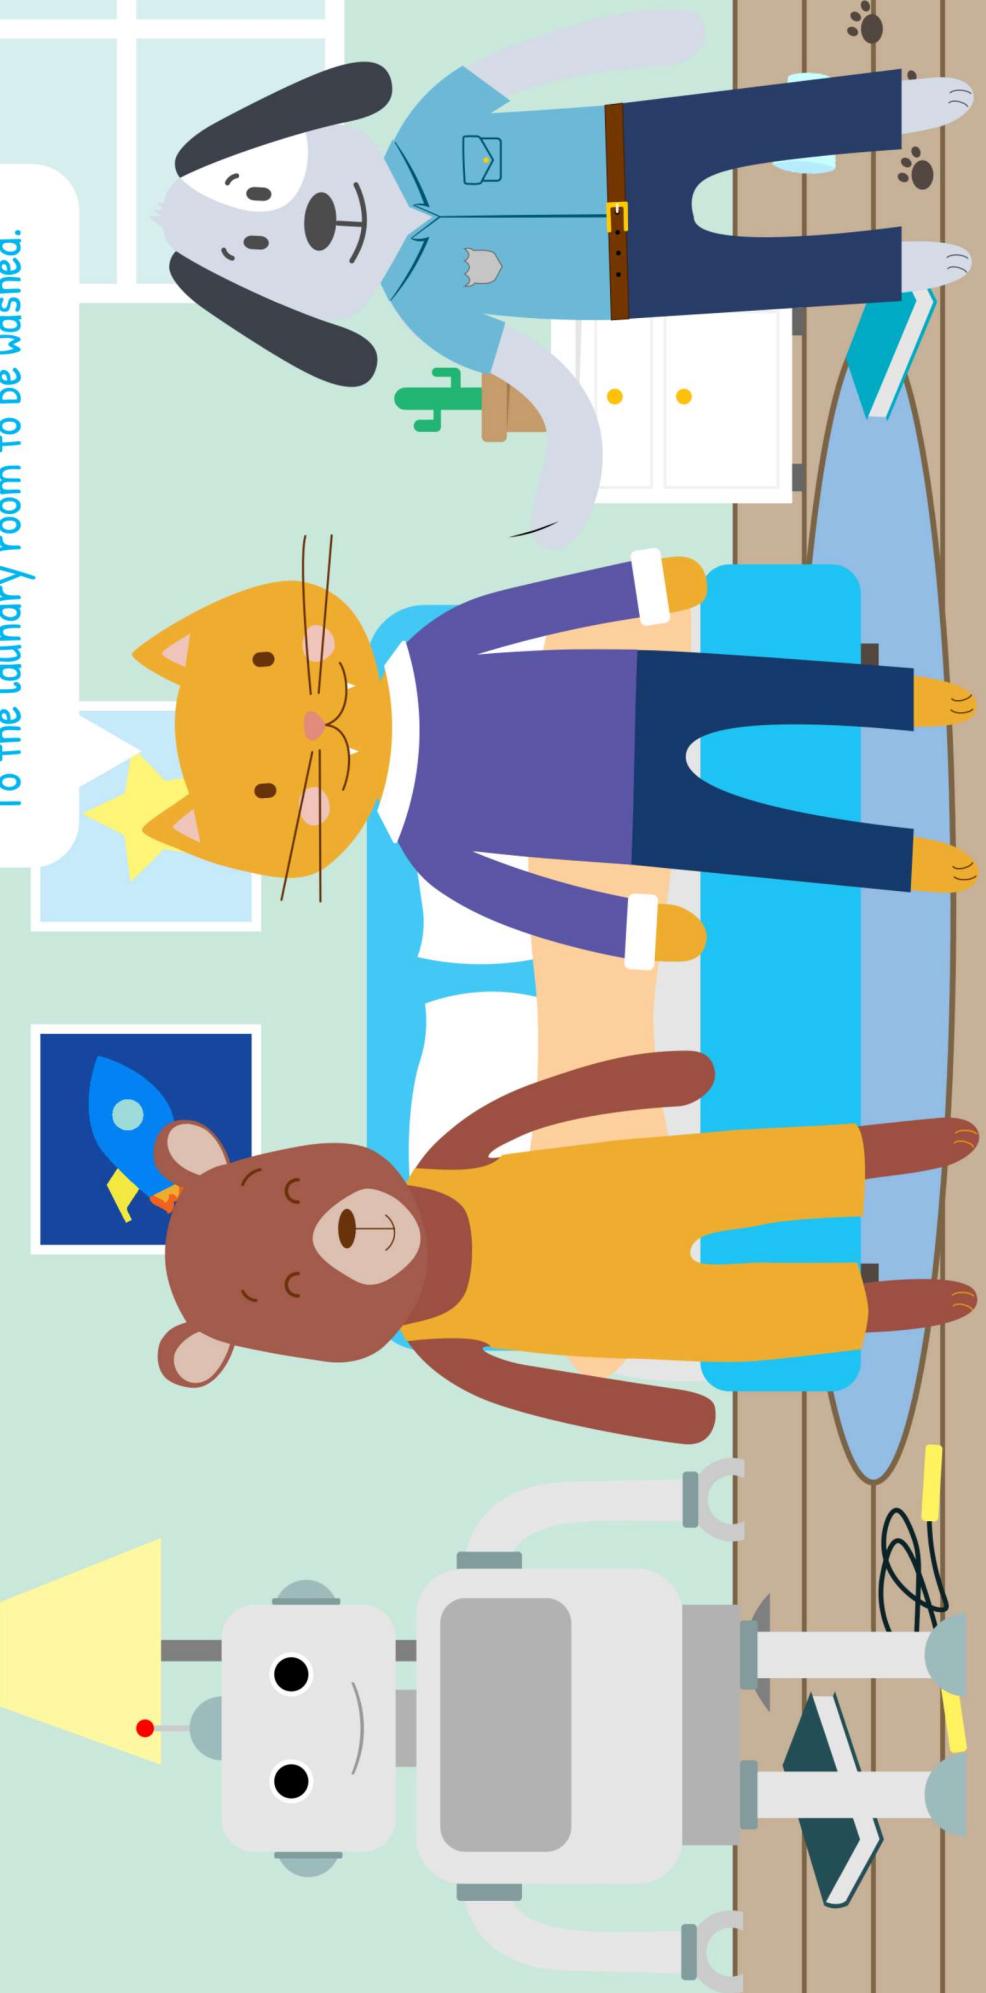

No, I didn't! But... oh, I just remembered. When I was helping your mom, she asked me to grab all of your muddy clothes. Maybe I accidentally grabbed Bun-Bun then!

That would make sense! Where would you take the muddy clothes?

To the Laundry room to be washed.

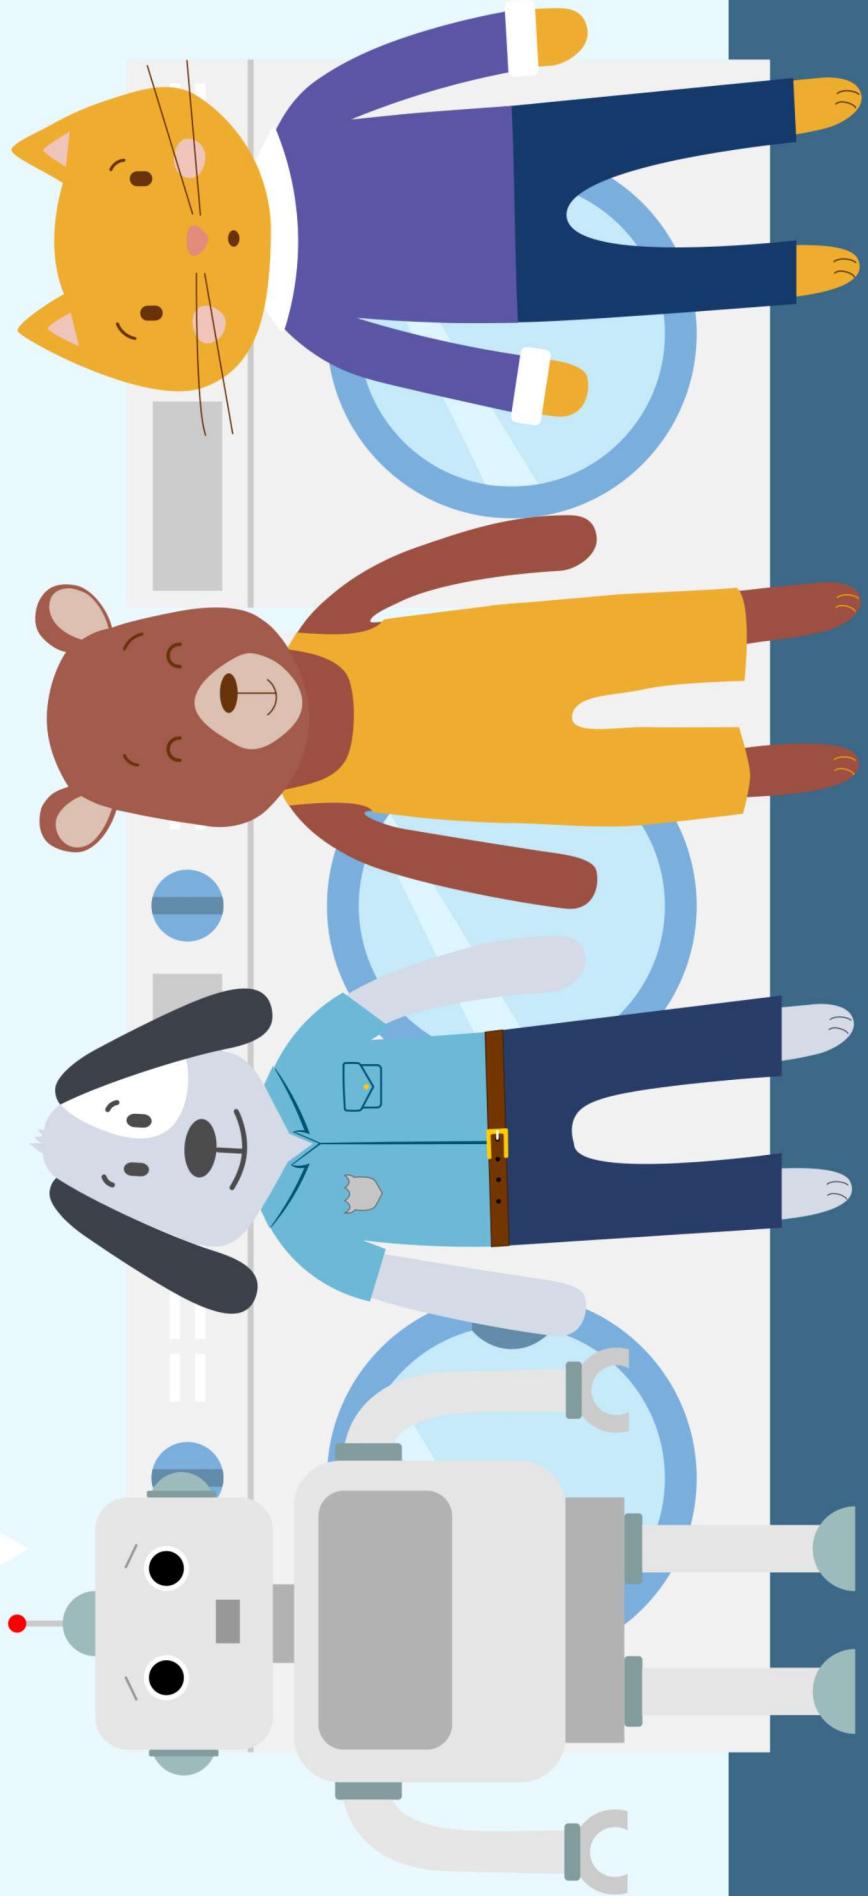

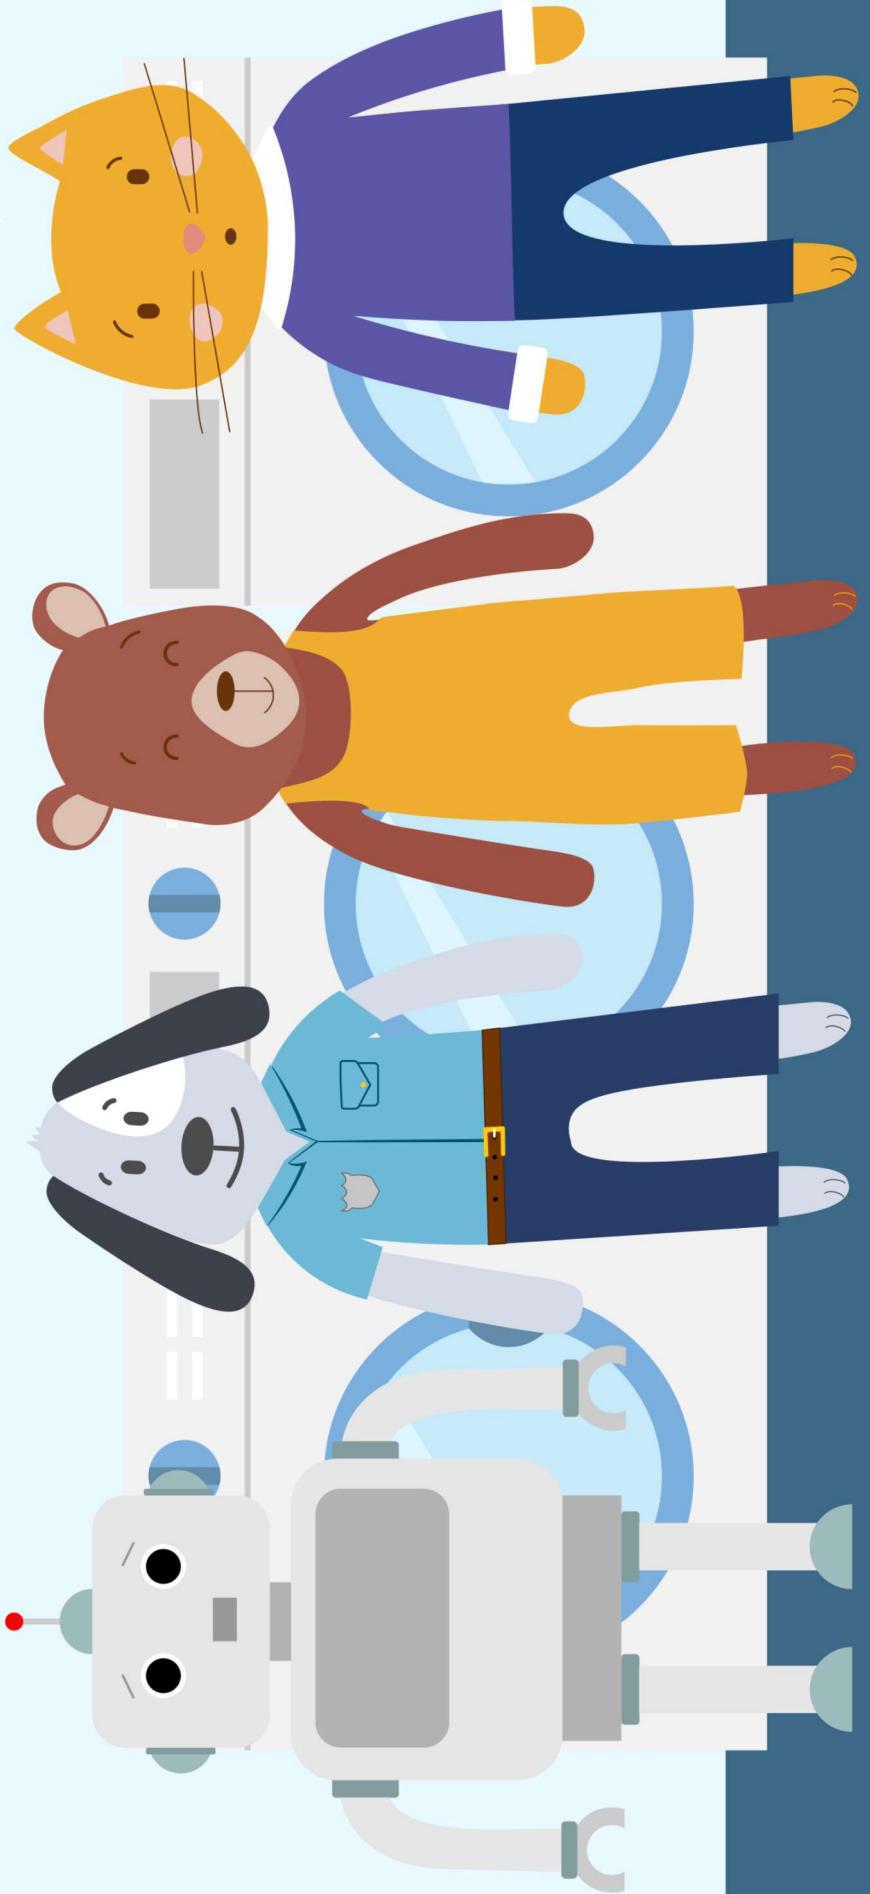

Let's go!

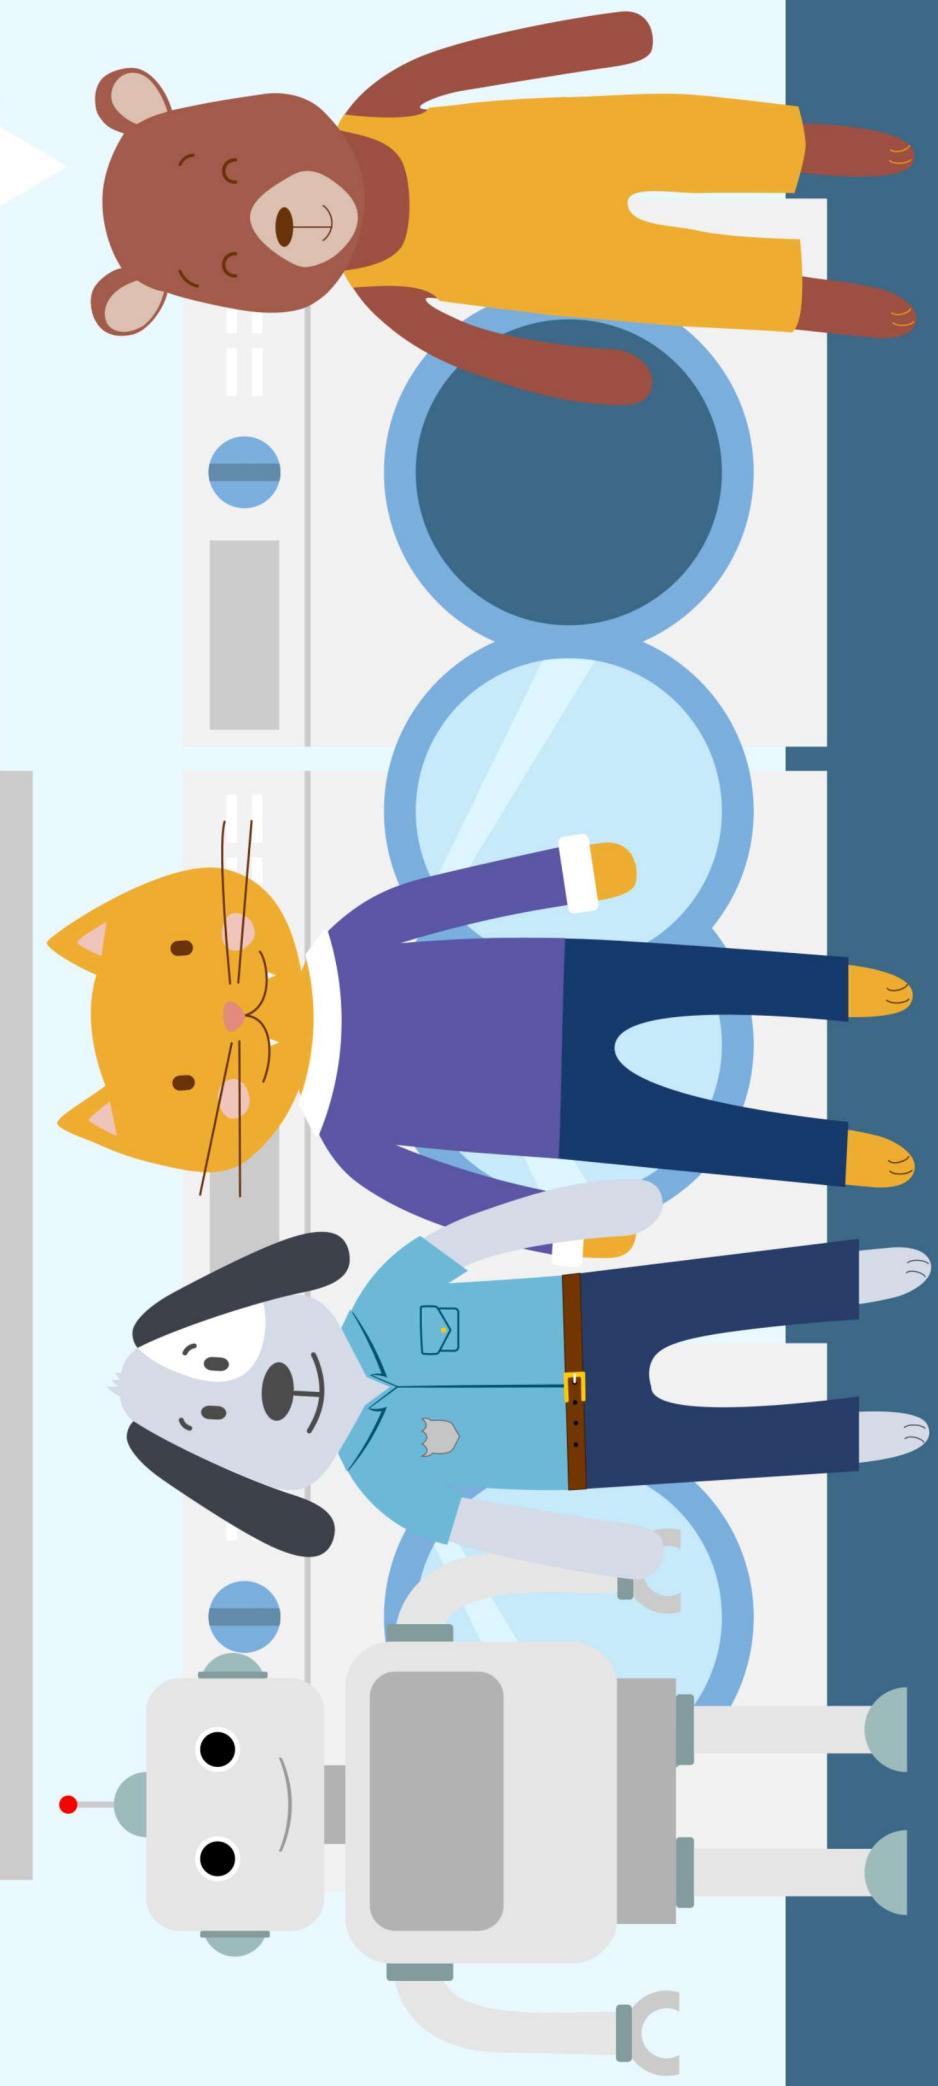

I don't see Bun-Bun, Cat!

It hasn't been long enough for Bun-Bun to be in a basket to be put away!

Maybe Bun-Bun is still in the washing machine then! Let me pop the lid!

Or... maybe not.

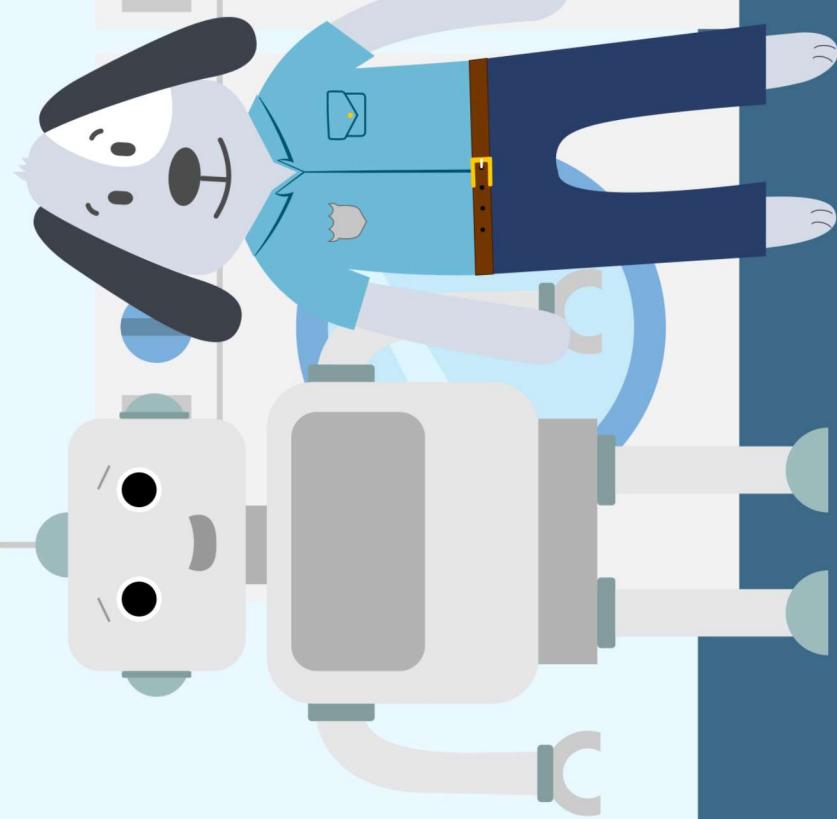

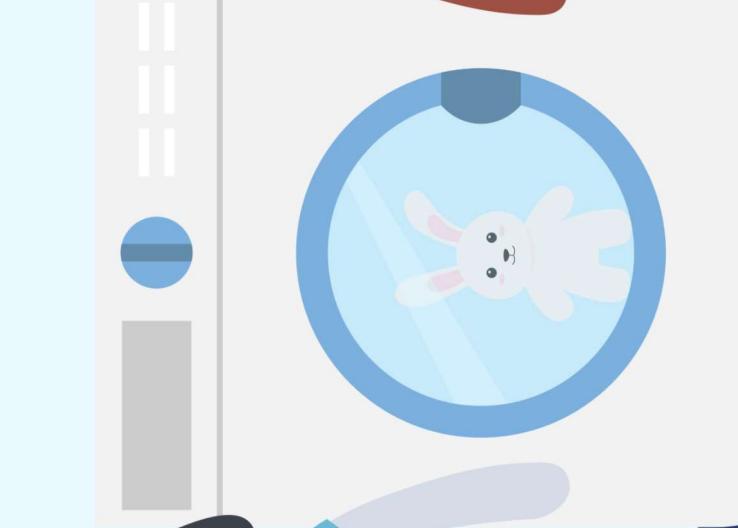

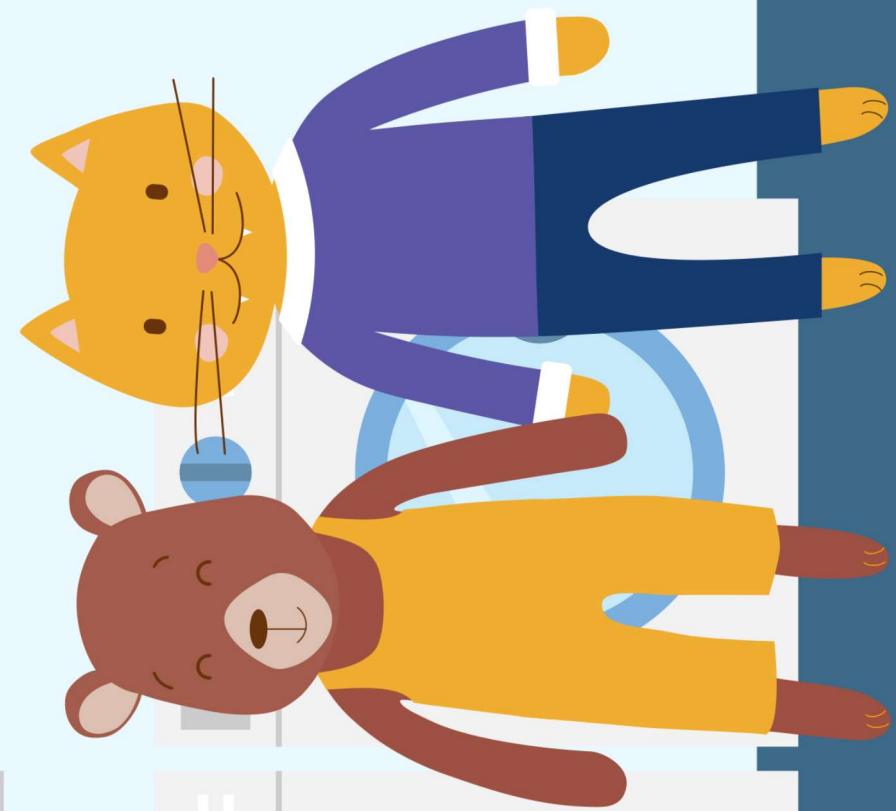

We'll never find Bun-Bun now!

Don't give up hope! We haven't checked the dryer yet!

Bun-Bun! We found you!

We just needed to look around and find clues!

See, Robot? There was no reason to get upset.

You're right, Cat. Thank you for helping me find Bun-Bun.

No problem! We make a pretty good team!

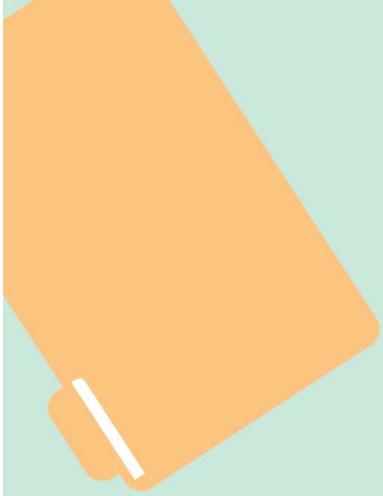

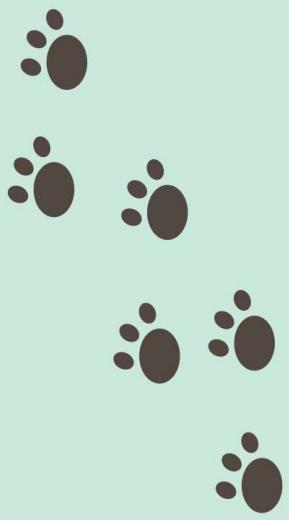

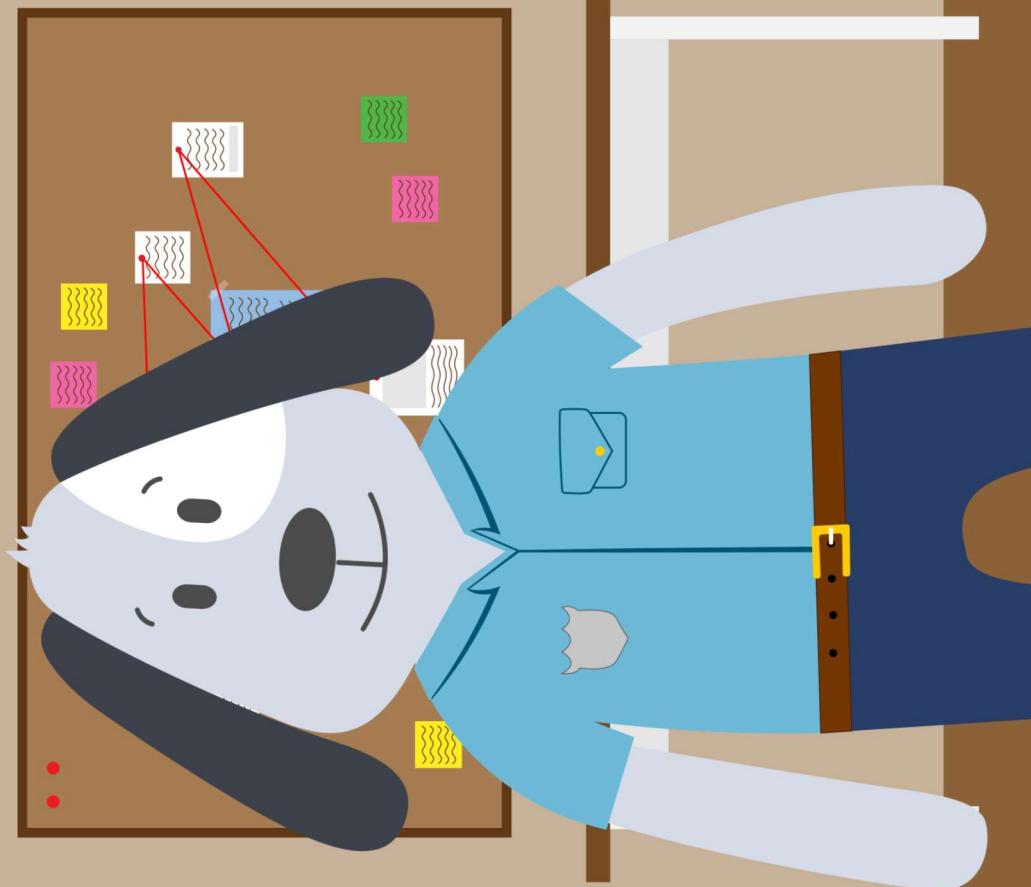

Uh, speaking of that, has anyone seen my jacket?

THE END

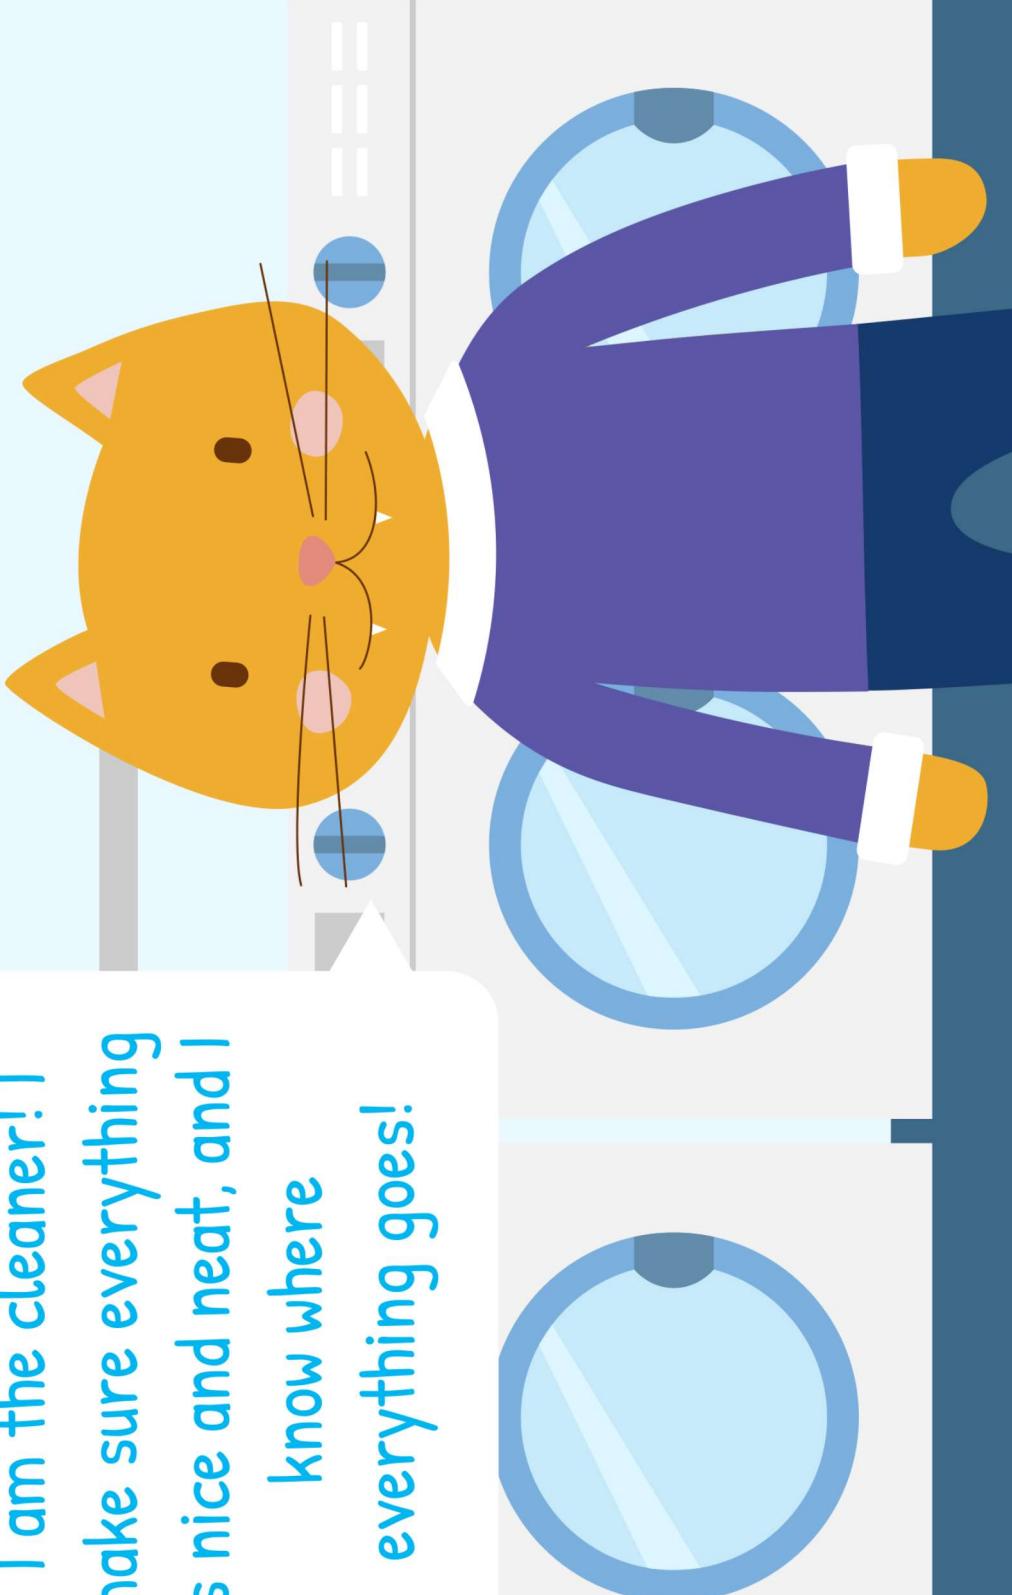

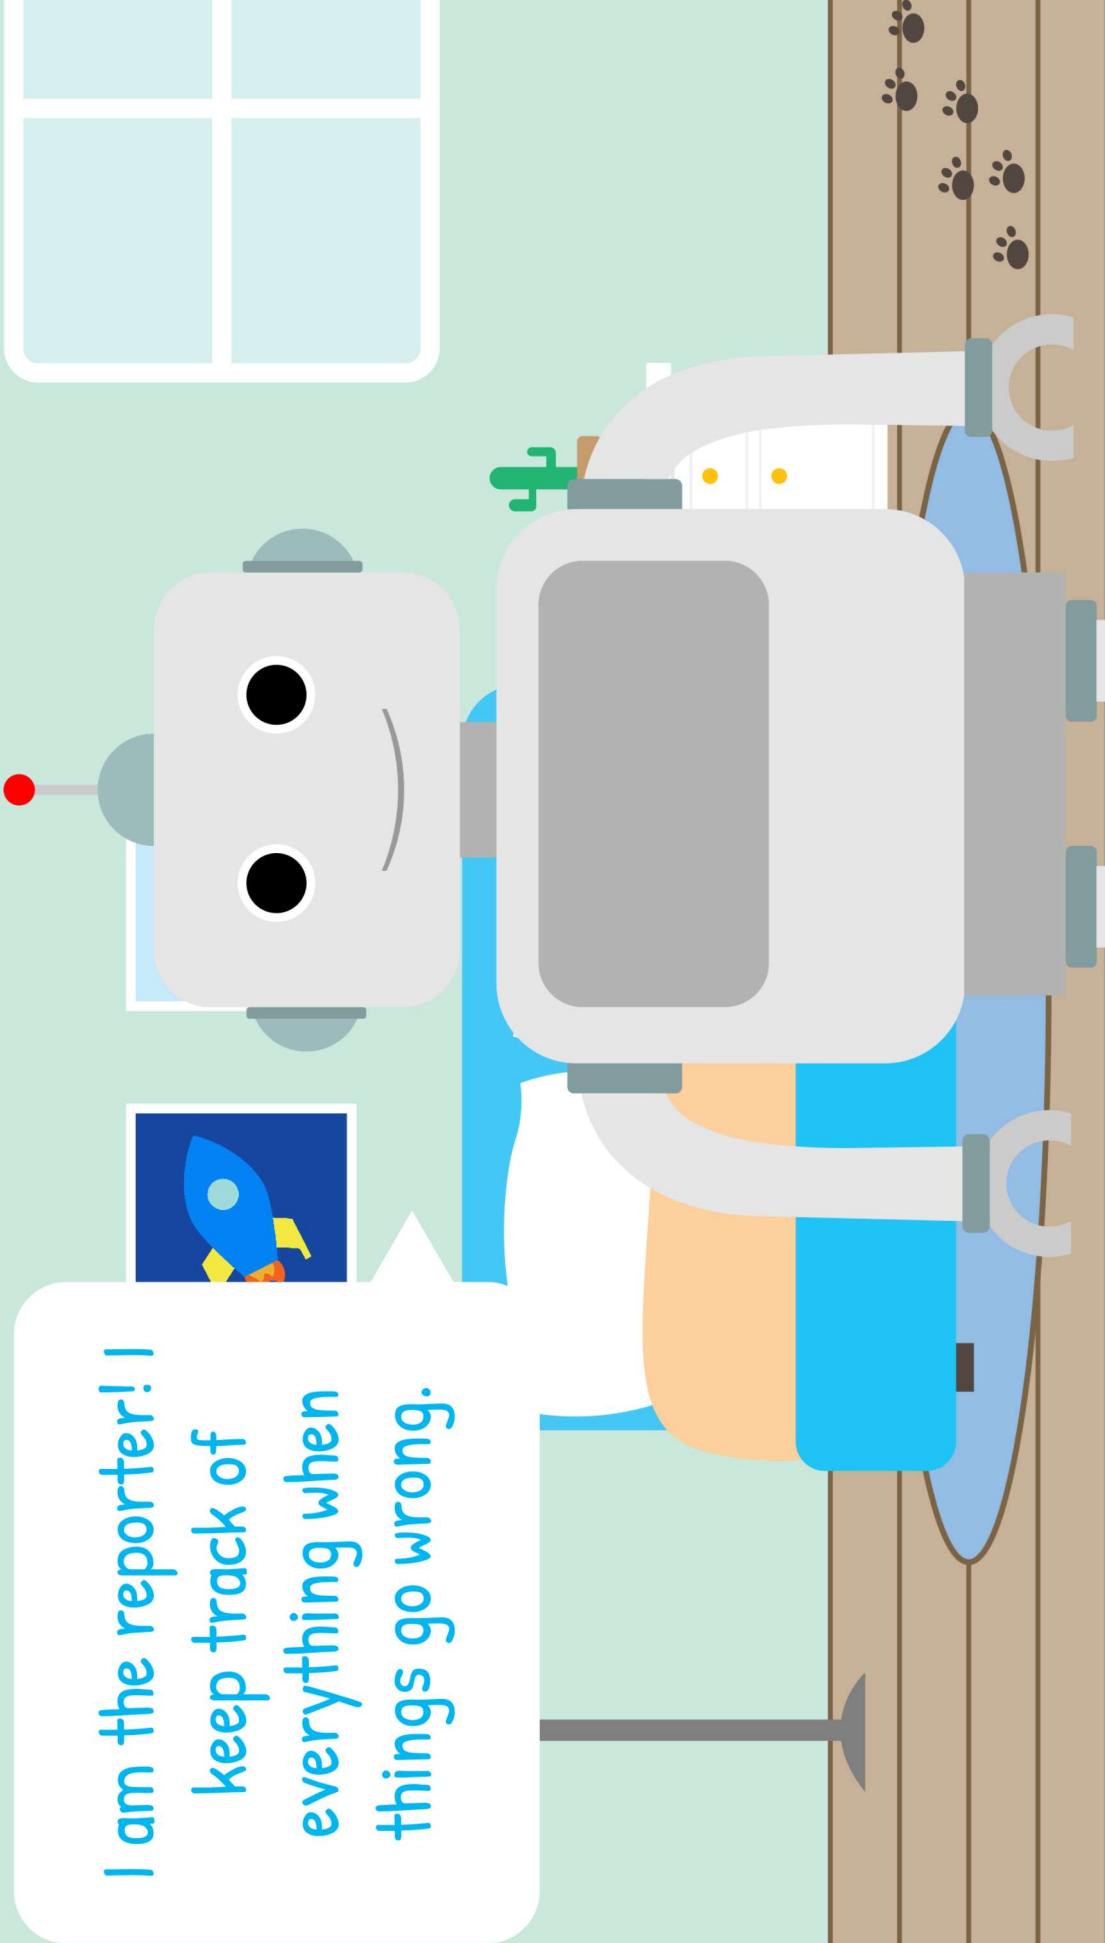

I am the detective!
I'm good at solving puzzles.

TOYS

I am the store owner! I know all about toys.

I am the cleaner! I make sure everything is nice and neat, and I
