

SNOW DAY

Bear, Monkey, Cat, and Dog
wake up to snow outside!

And the best news is we have all day to play!

And I know just what to do...

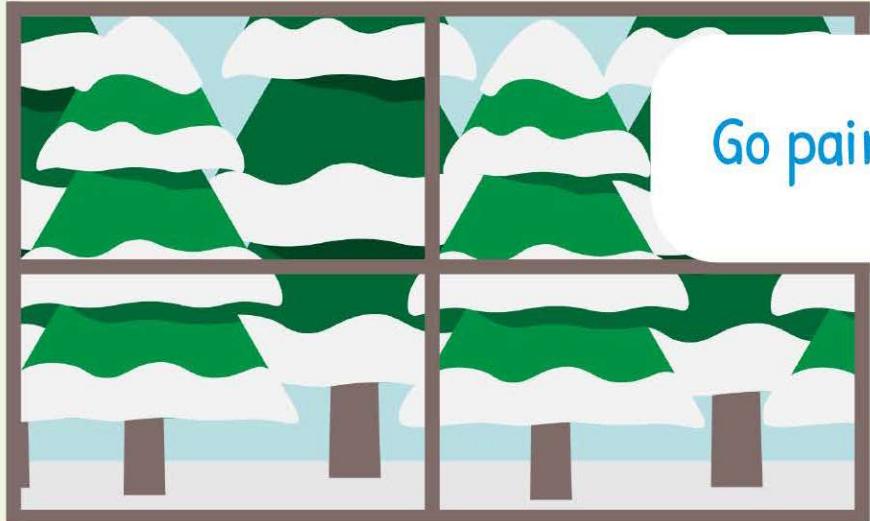

Go ice-skating!

Go adventuring!

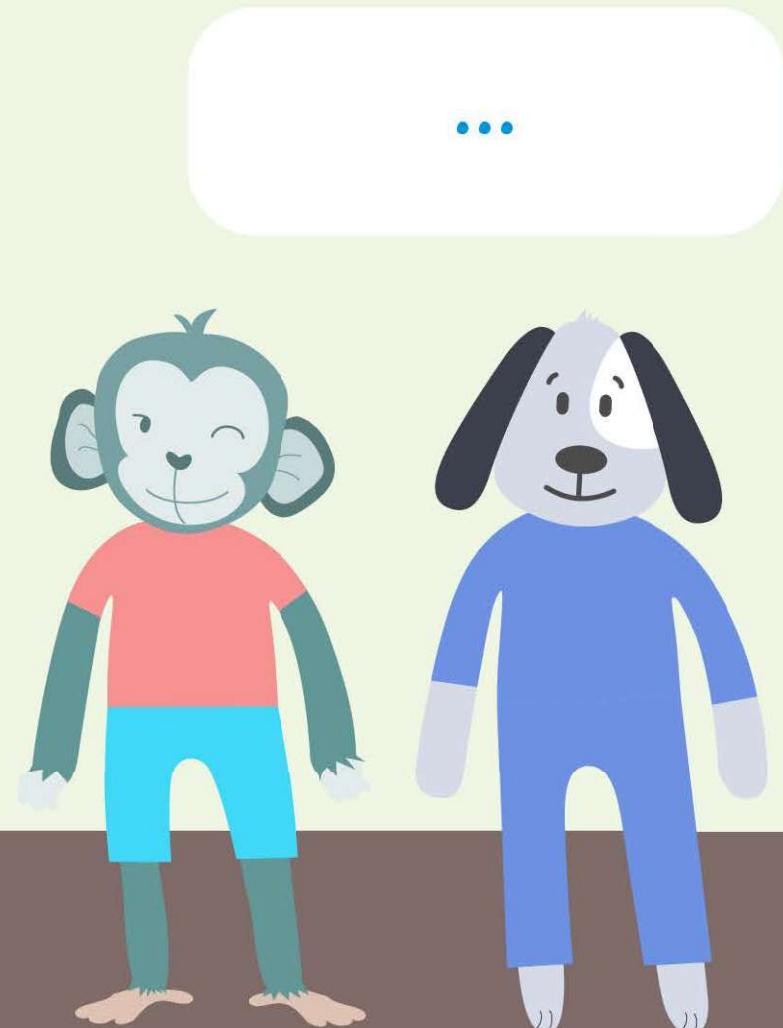

Go paint a picture!

Go to the greenhouse!

I can't believe you'd want to stay inside when it's so nice out!

It's cold and wet outside, and I don't like it!

Where's your sense of adventure?

That doesn't sound fun to me...

What should we do then? On the count of three, everyone say what activity you want to do today! One... two... three...

I can't believe that didn't work!

Well, Monkey and I will go outside and have fun, and you two can stay inside.

Fine.

Fine.

Dog, what do you want to do?

I want to go to the greenhouses and water my plants.

Oh... but plants aren't fun to draw. They're just green.

Well, you go plant, and I'll go draw!

Fine.

Fine.

Cat sets up an easel and starts painting.

A cartoon illustration of a dog standing in a greenhouse. The dog is white with black ears and a black nose. It is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt and blue pants. The dog is holding a silver watering can and is watering a green plant in a tan pot. In the background, there are several other potted plants on shelves, including a tall green plant and a cactus. The greenhouse has a glass door with a black frame. Outside the greenhouse, there are green hills and a blue sky.

Dog goes to the greenhouse and starts watering their plants.

Meanwhile, outside:

Watch me do a spin!

Again? I'm bored. I want to go explore!

This is super fun! Do you want to do a spin?

No! I want to go climb that tree!

I want to keep ice-skating.
Ice-skating is more fun!
I'm so fast on the ice.

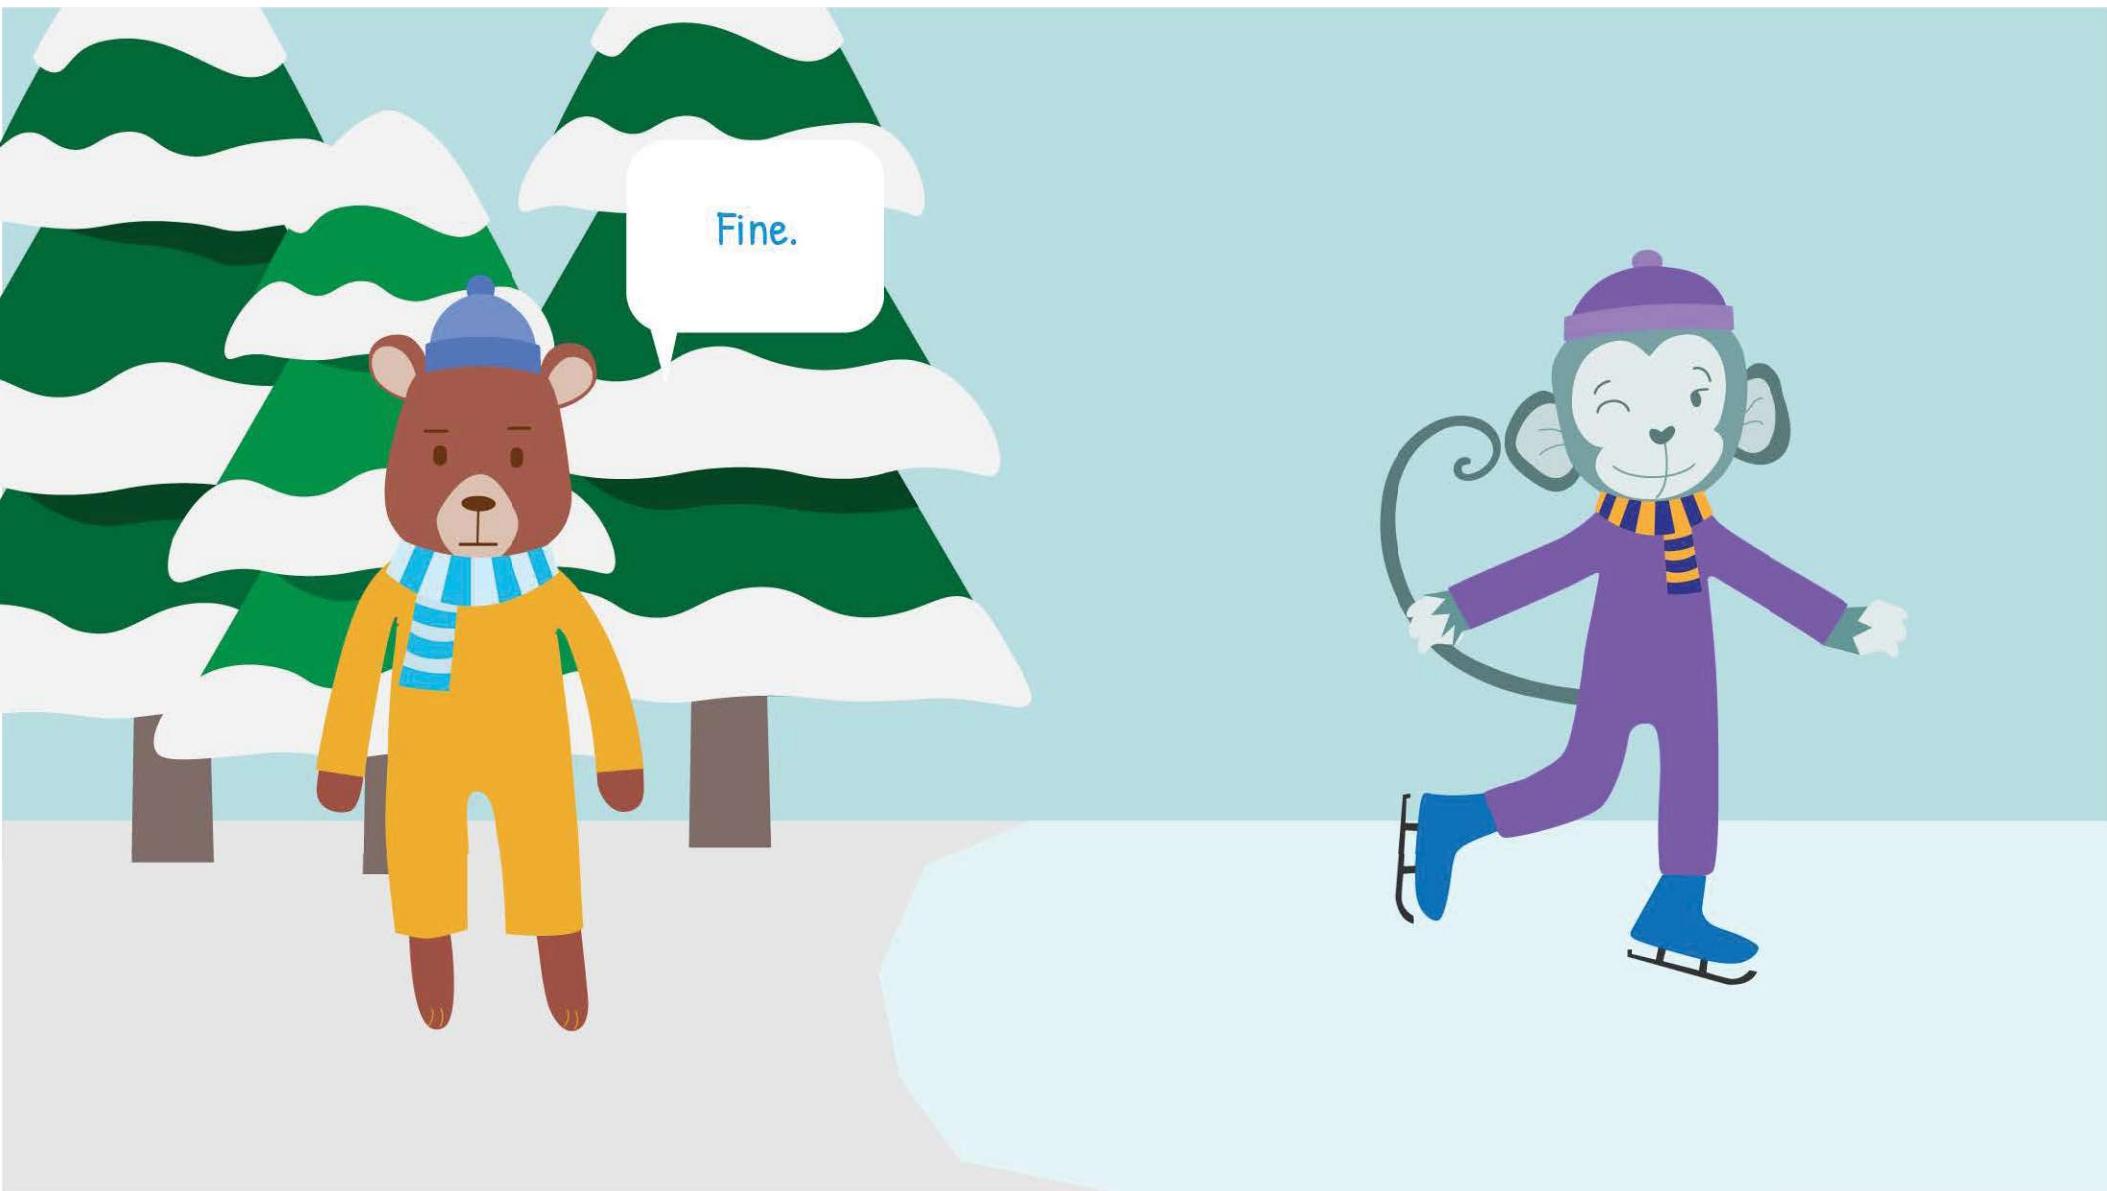

I want to see something new, Monkey.

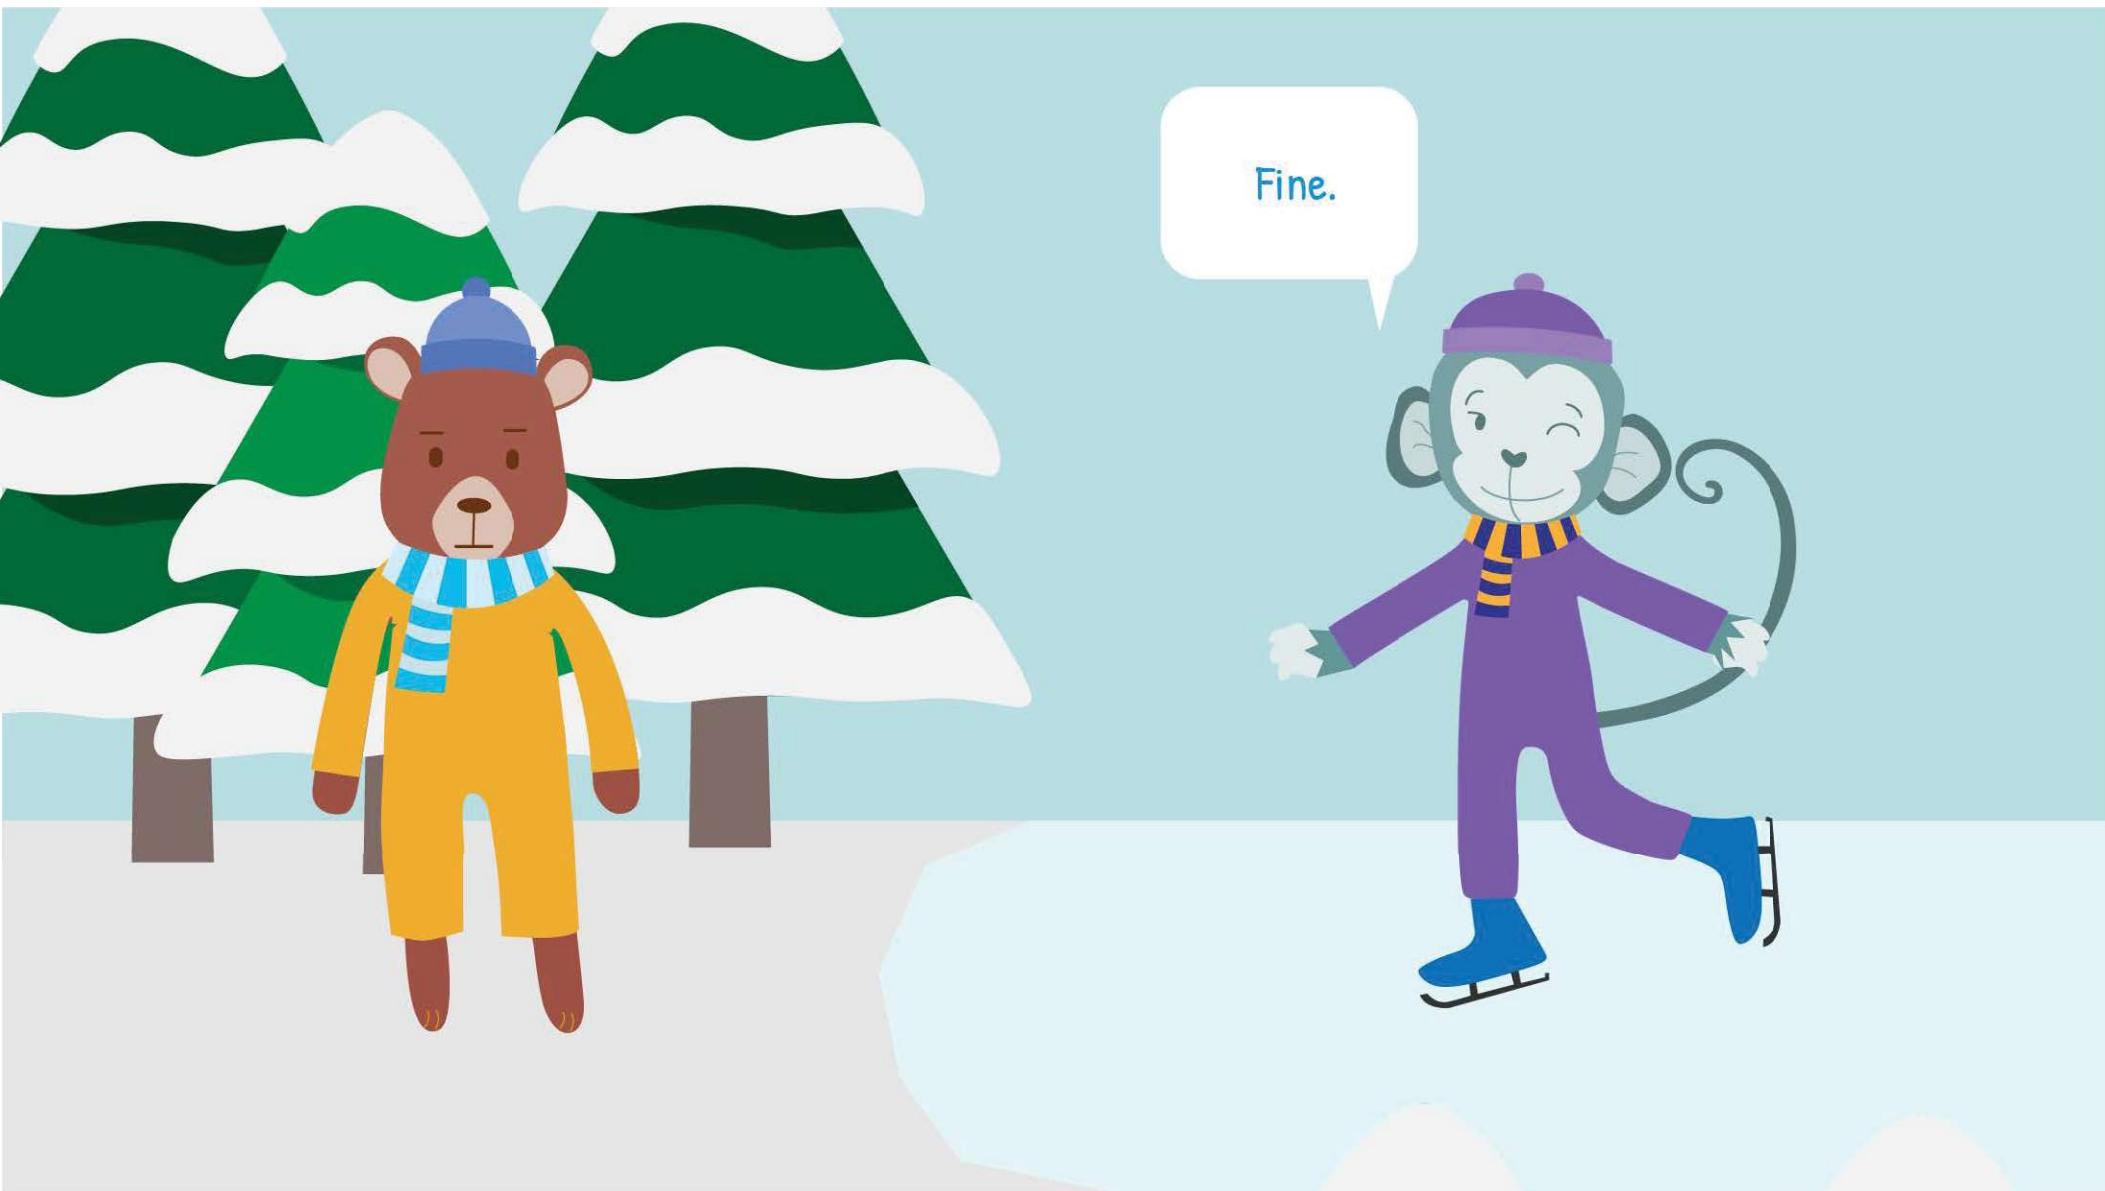

Go see something new then.
I'm going to stay here!

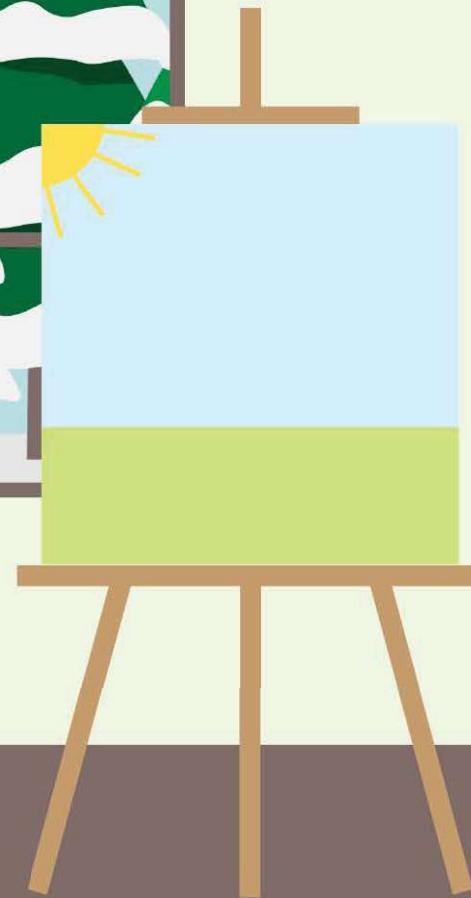

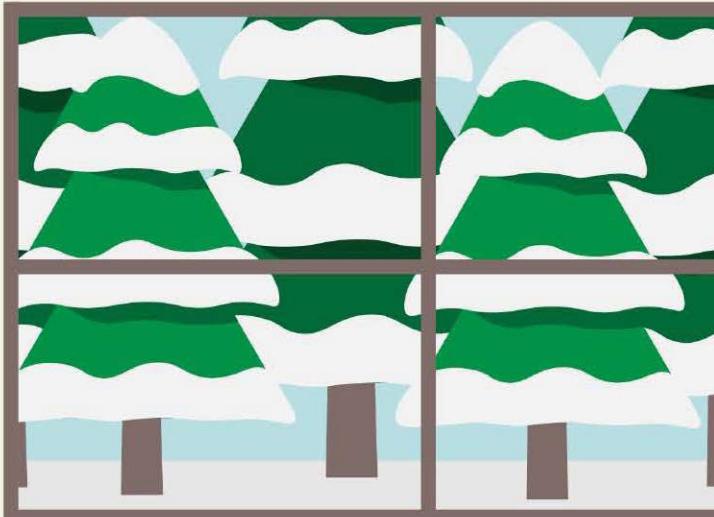

Fine.

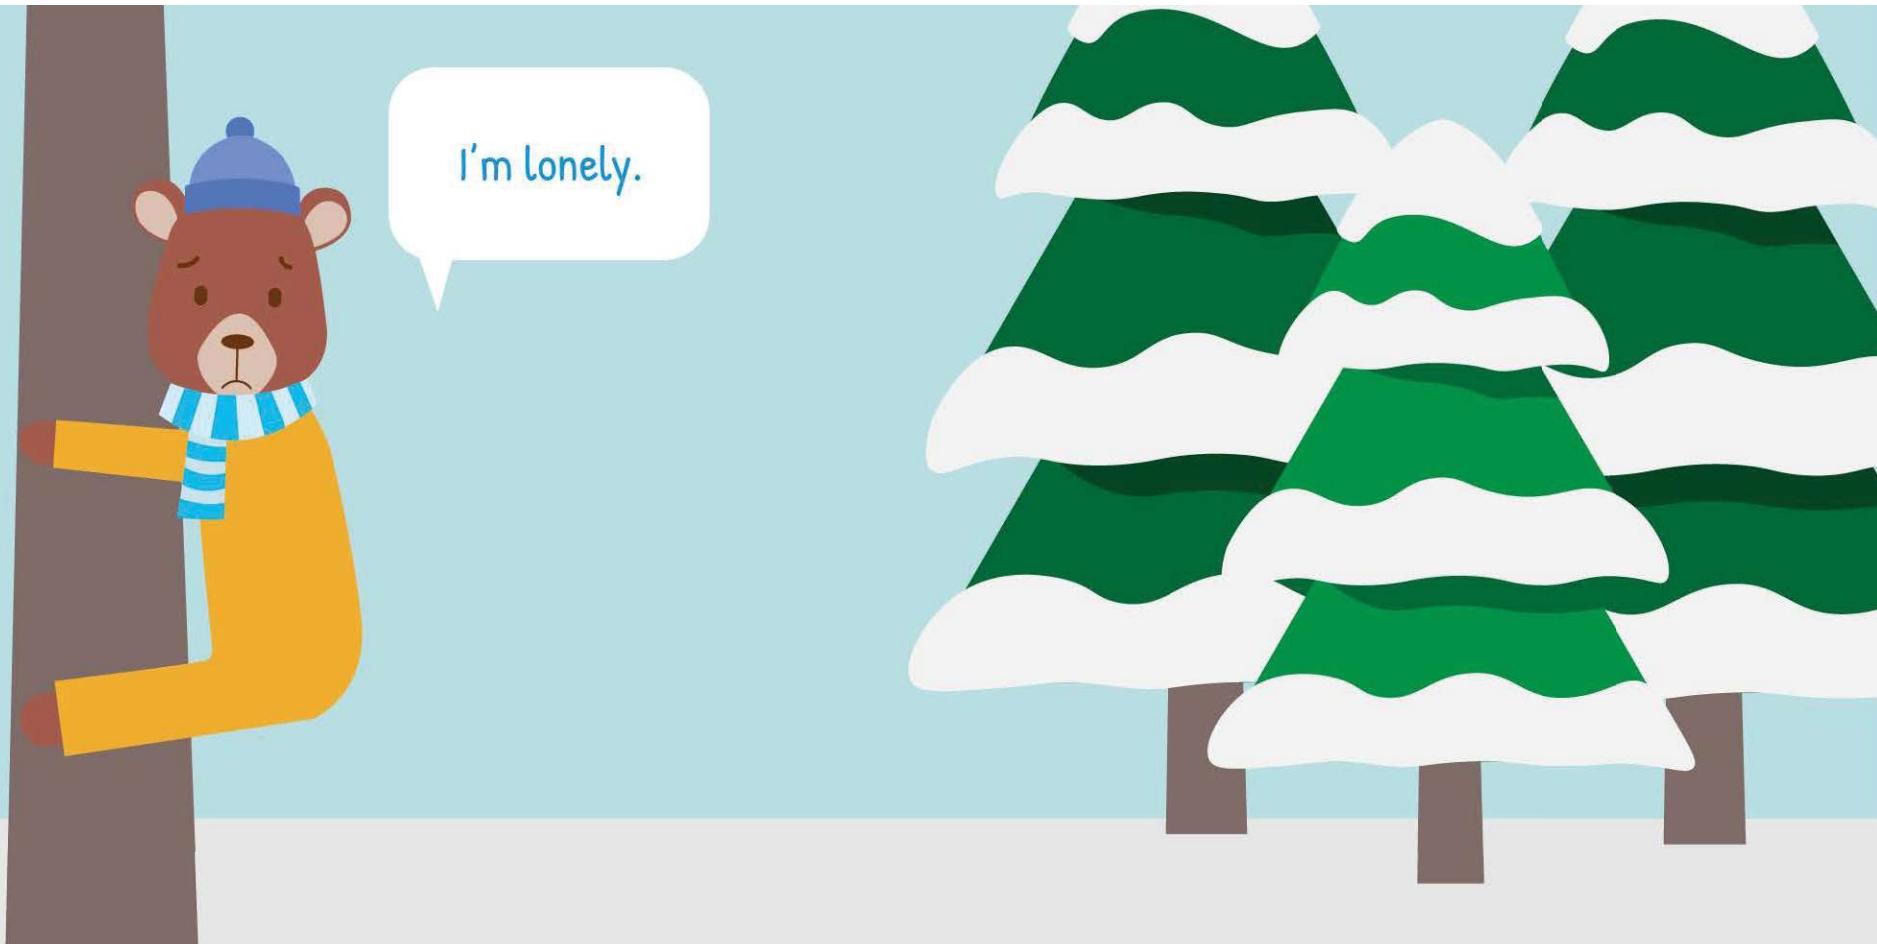

Fine.

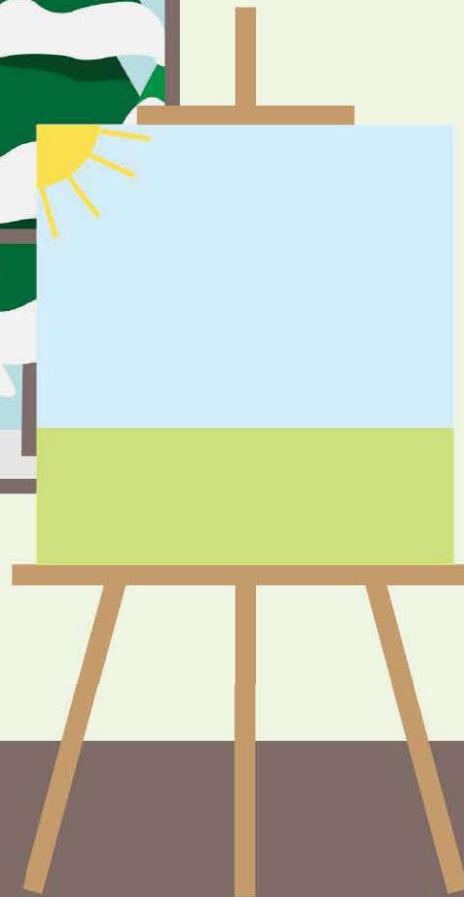

I'm lonely.

I'm lonely.

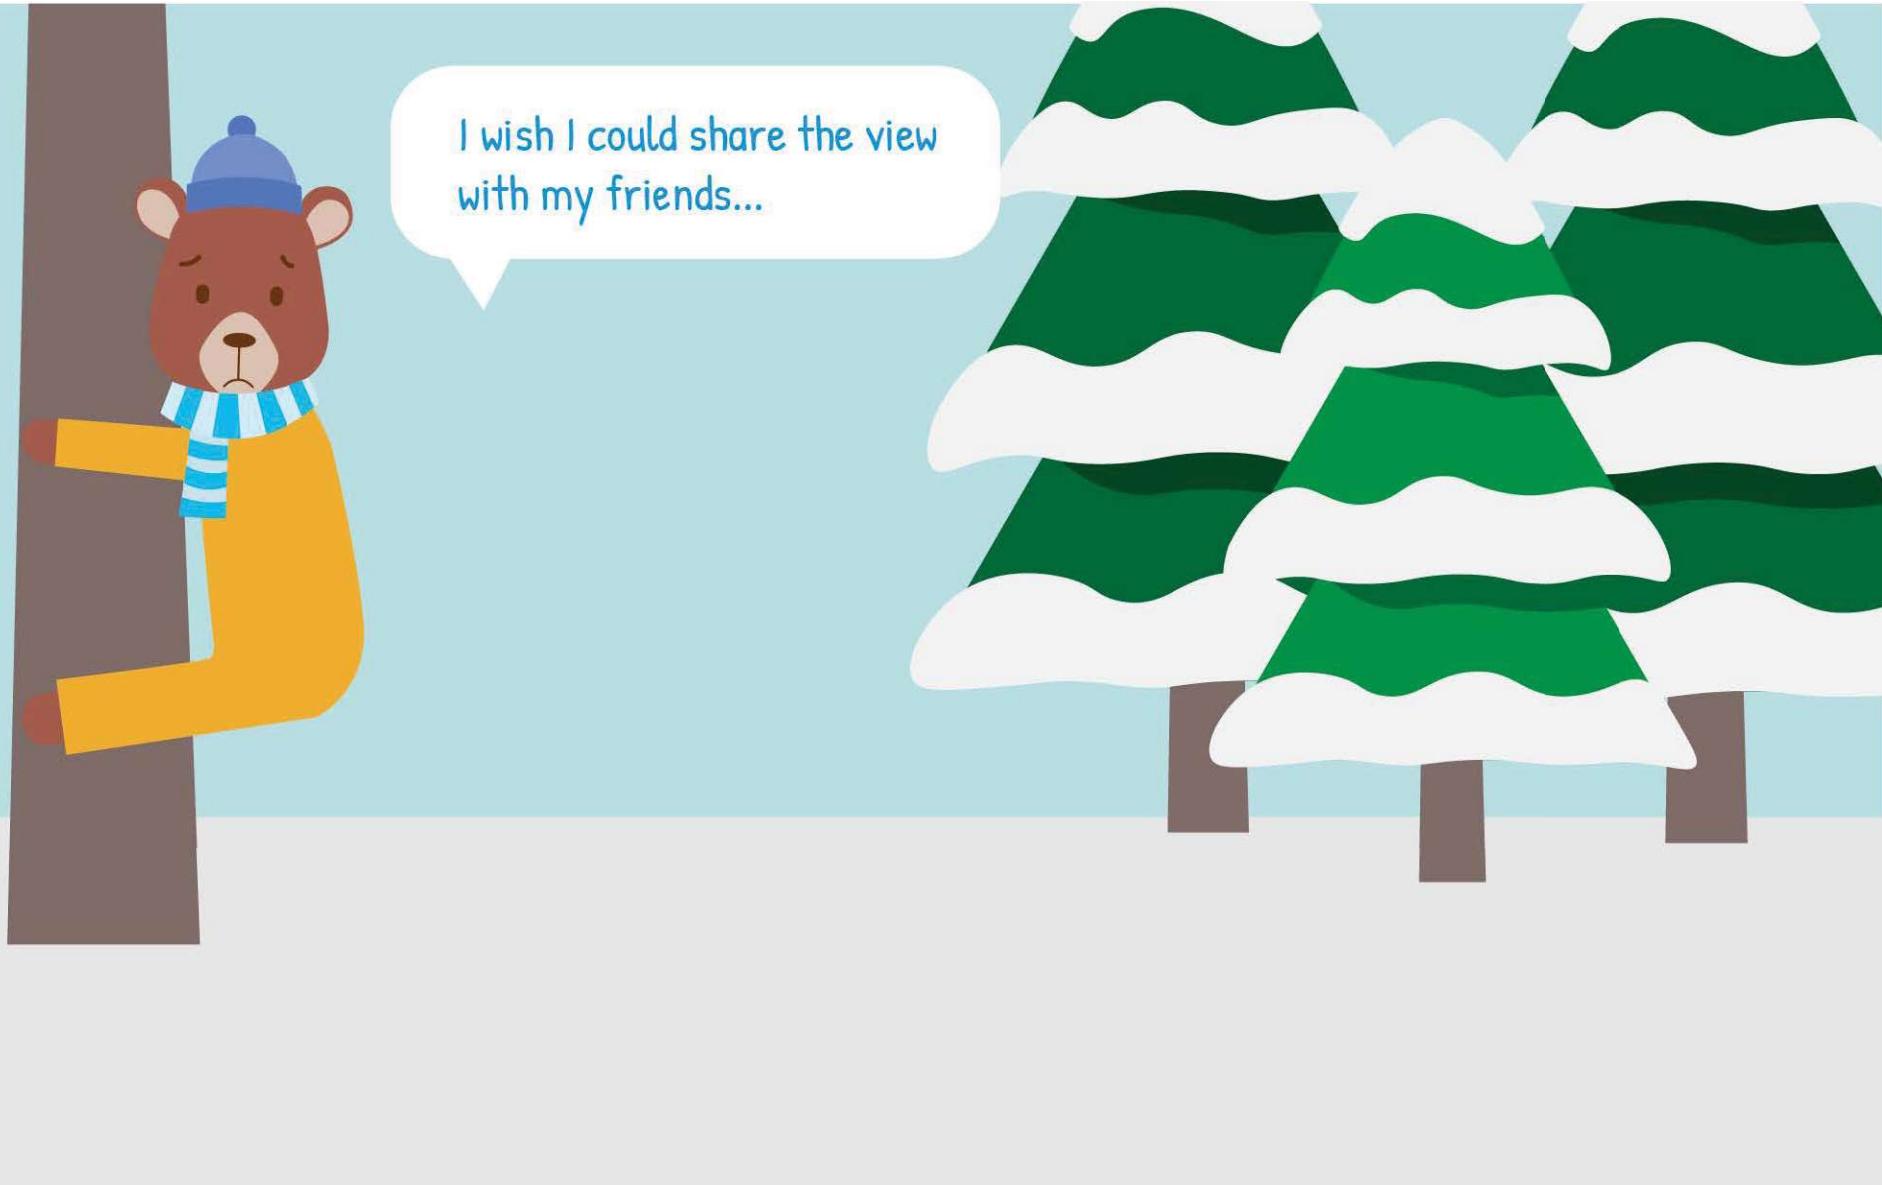

It would be nice to have a model...

I wish I had someone to play hockey with...

I wish I could share the view with my friends...

I've learned so many interesting things.
If only I could share it...

I missed you so much!

The view was so pretty, Cat!
It would have made a beautiful painting!

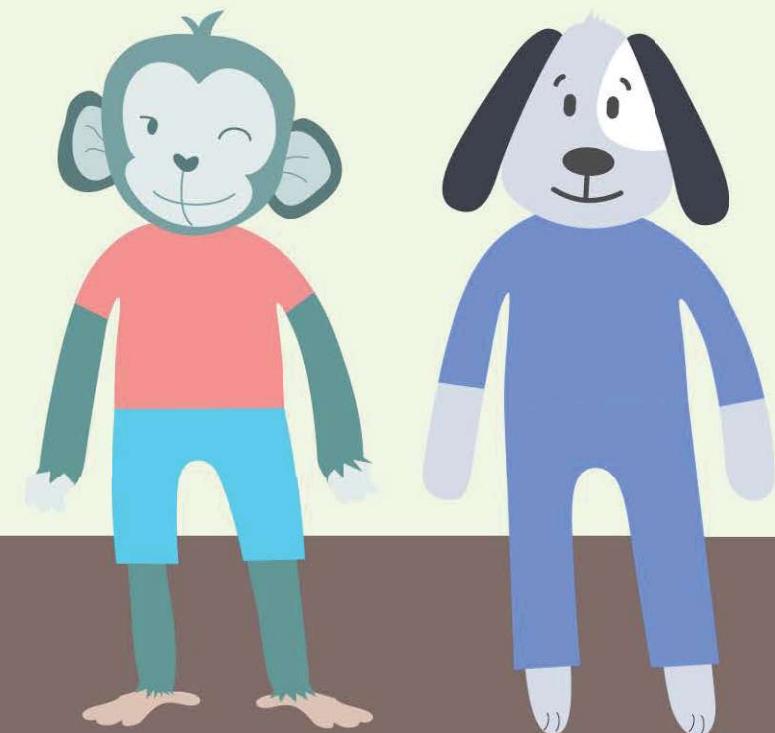

I wish I could have drawn you skating, Monkey!
You always look so pretty on the ice!

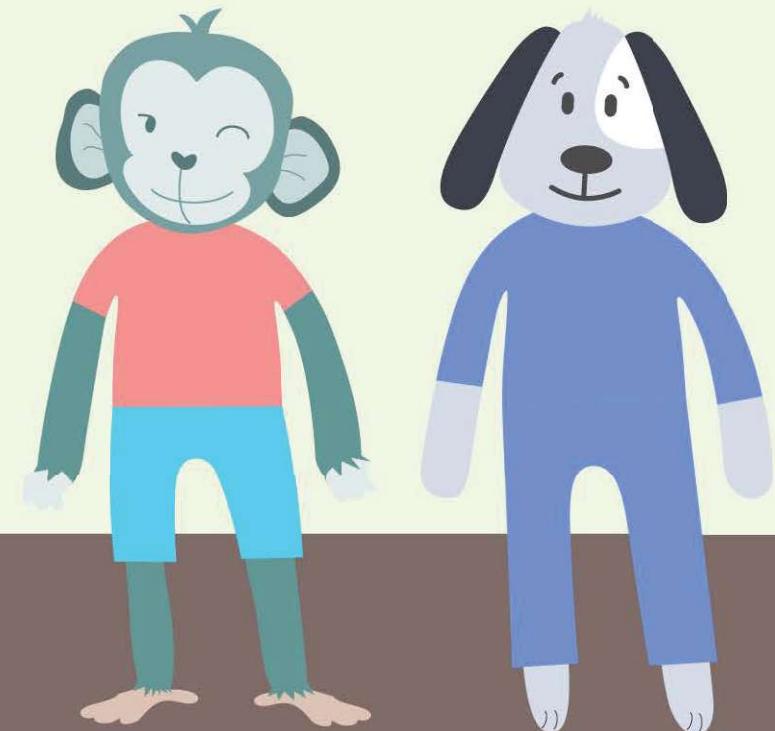

Dog, I got so hungry after skating! I really wished
I had had some of your yummy vegetables out there!

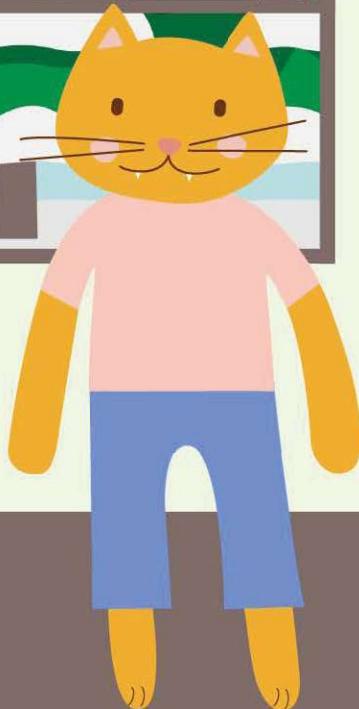

Did you see any cool plants, Bear?
You always find such cool stuff!

Maybe we can find a way to have fun together!

But I can't ice-skate inside...

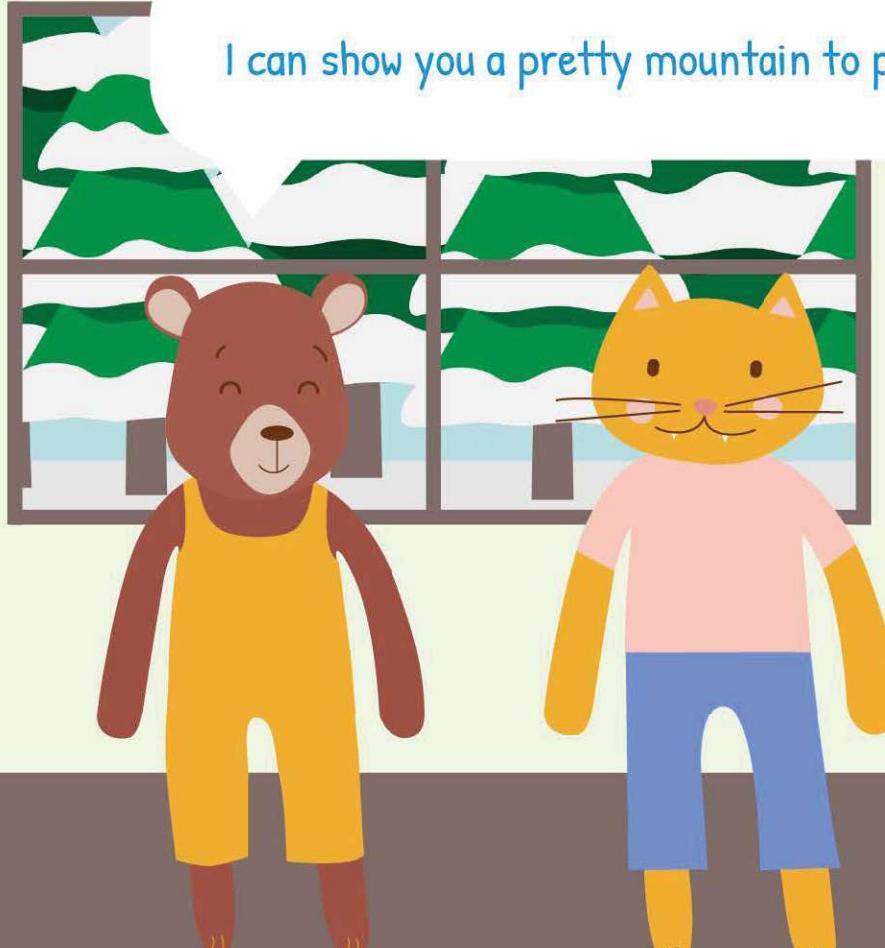

And I can't bring my plants outside, but I really want to see the pine trees outside! We could go out for a little while, and when we get tired, we can go back inside. The greenhouse is always really warm!

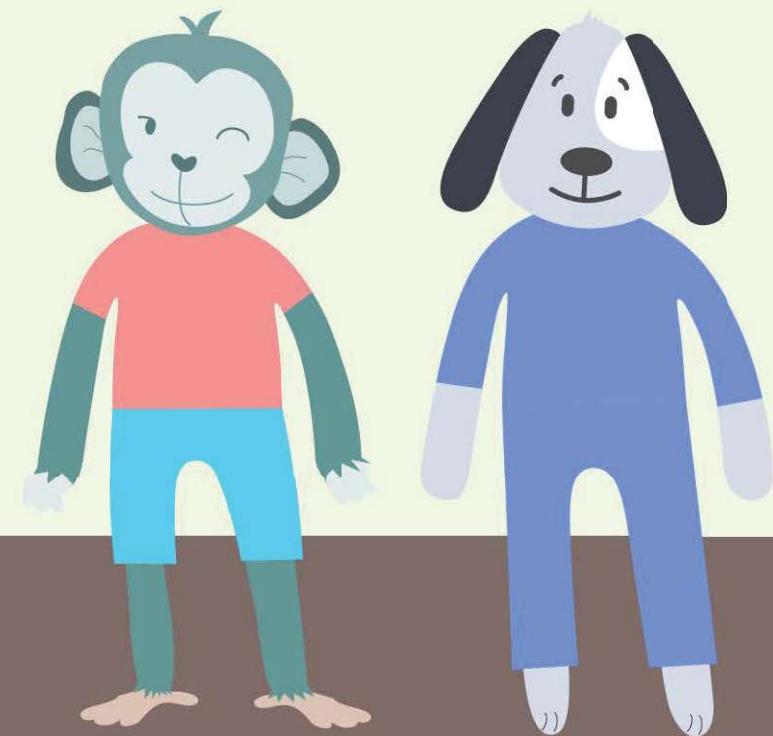

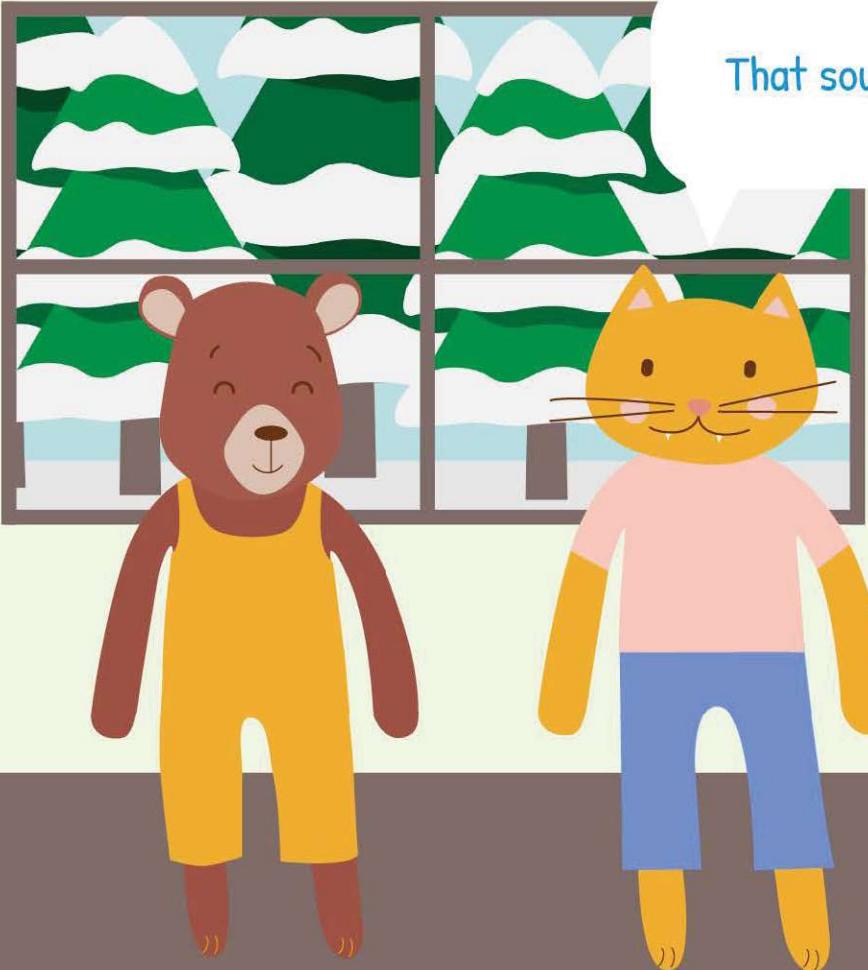

That doesn't sound that bad.

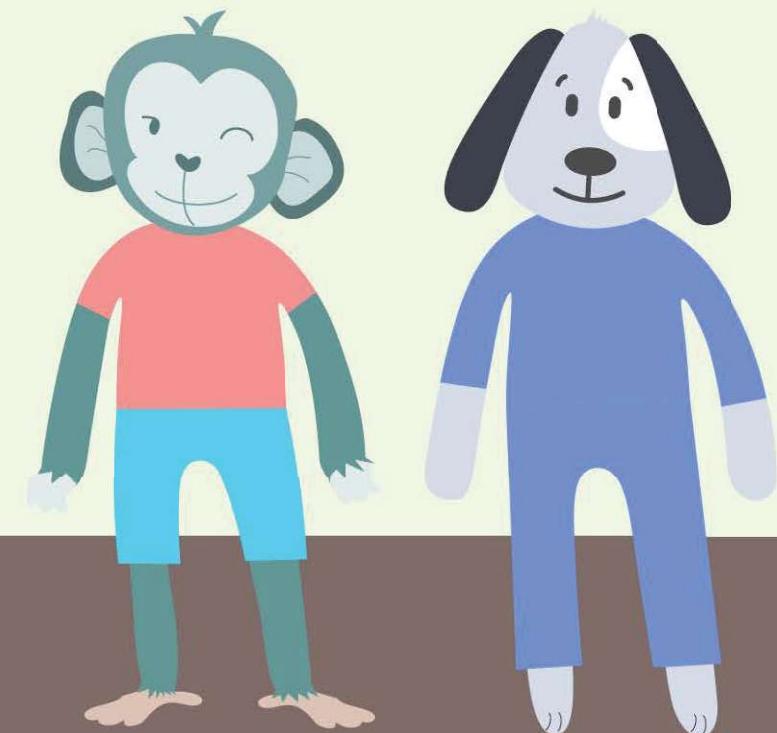

I can show you a pretty mountain to paint!

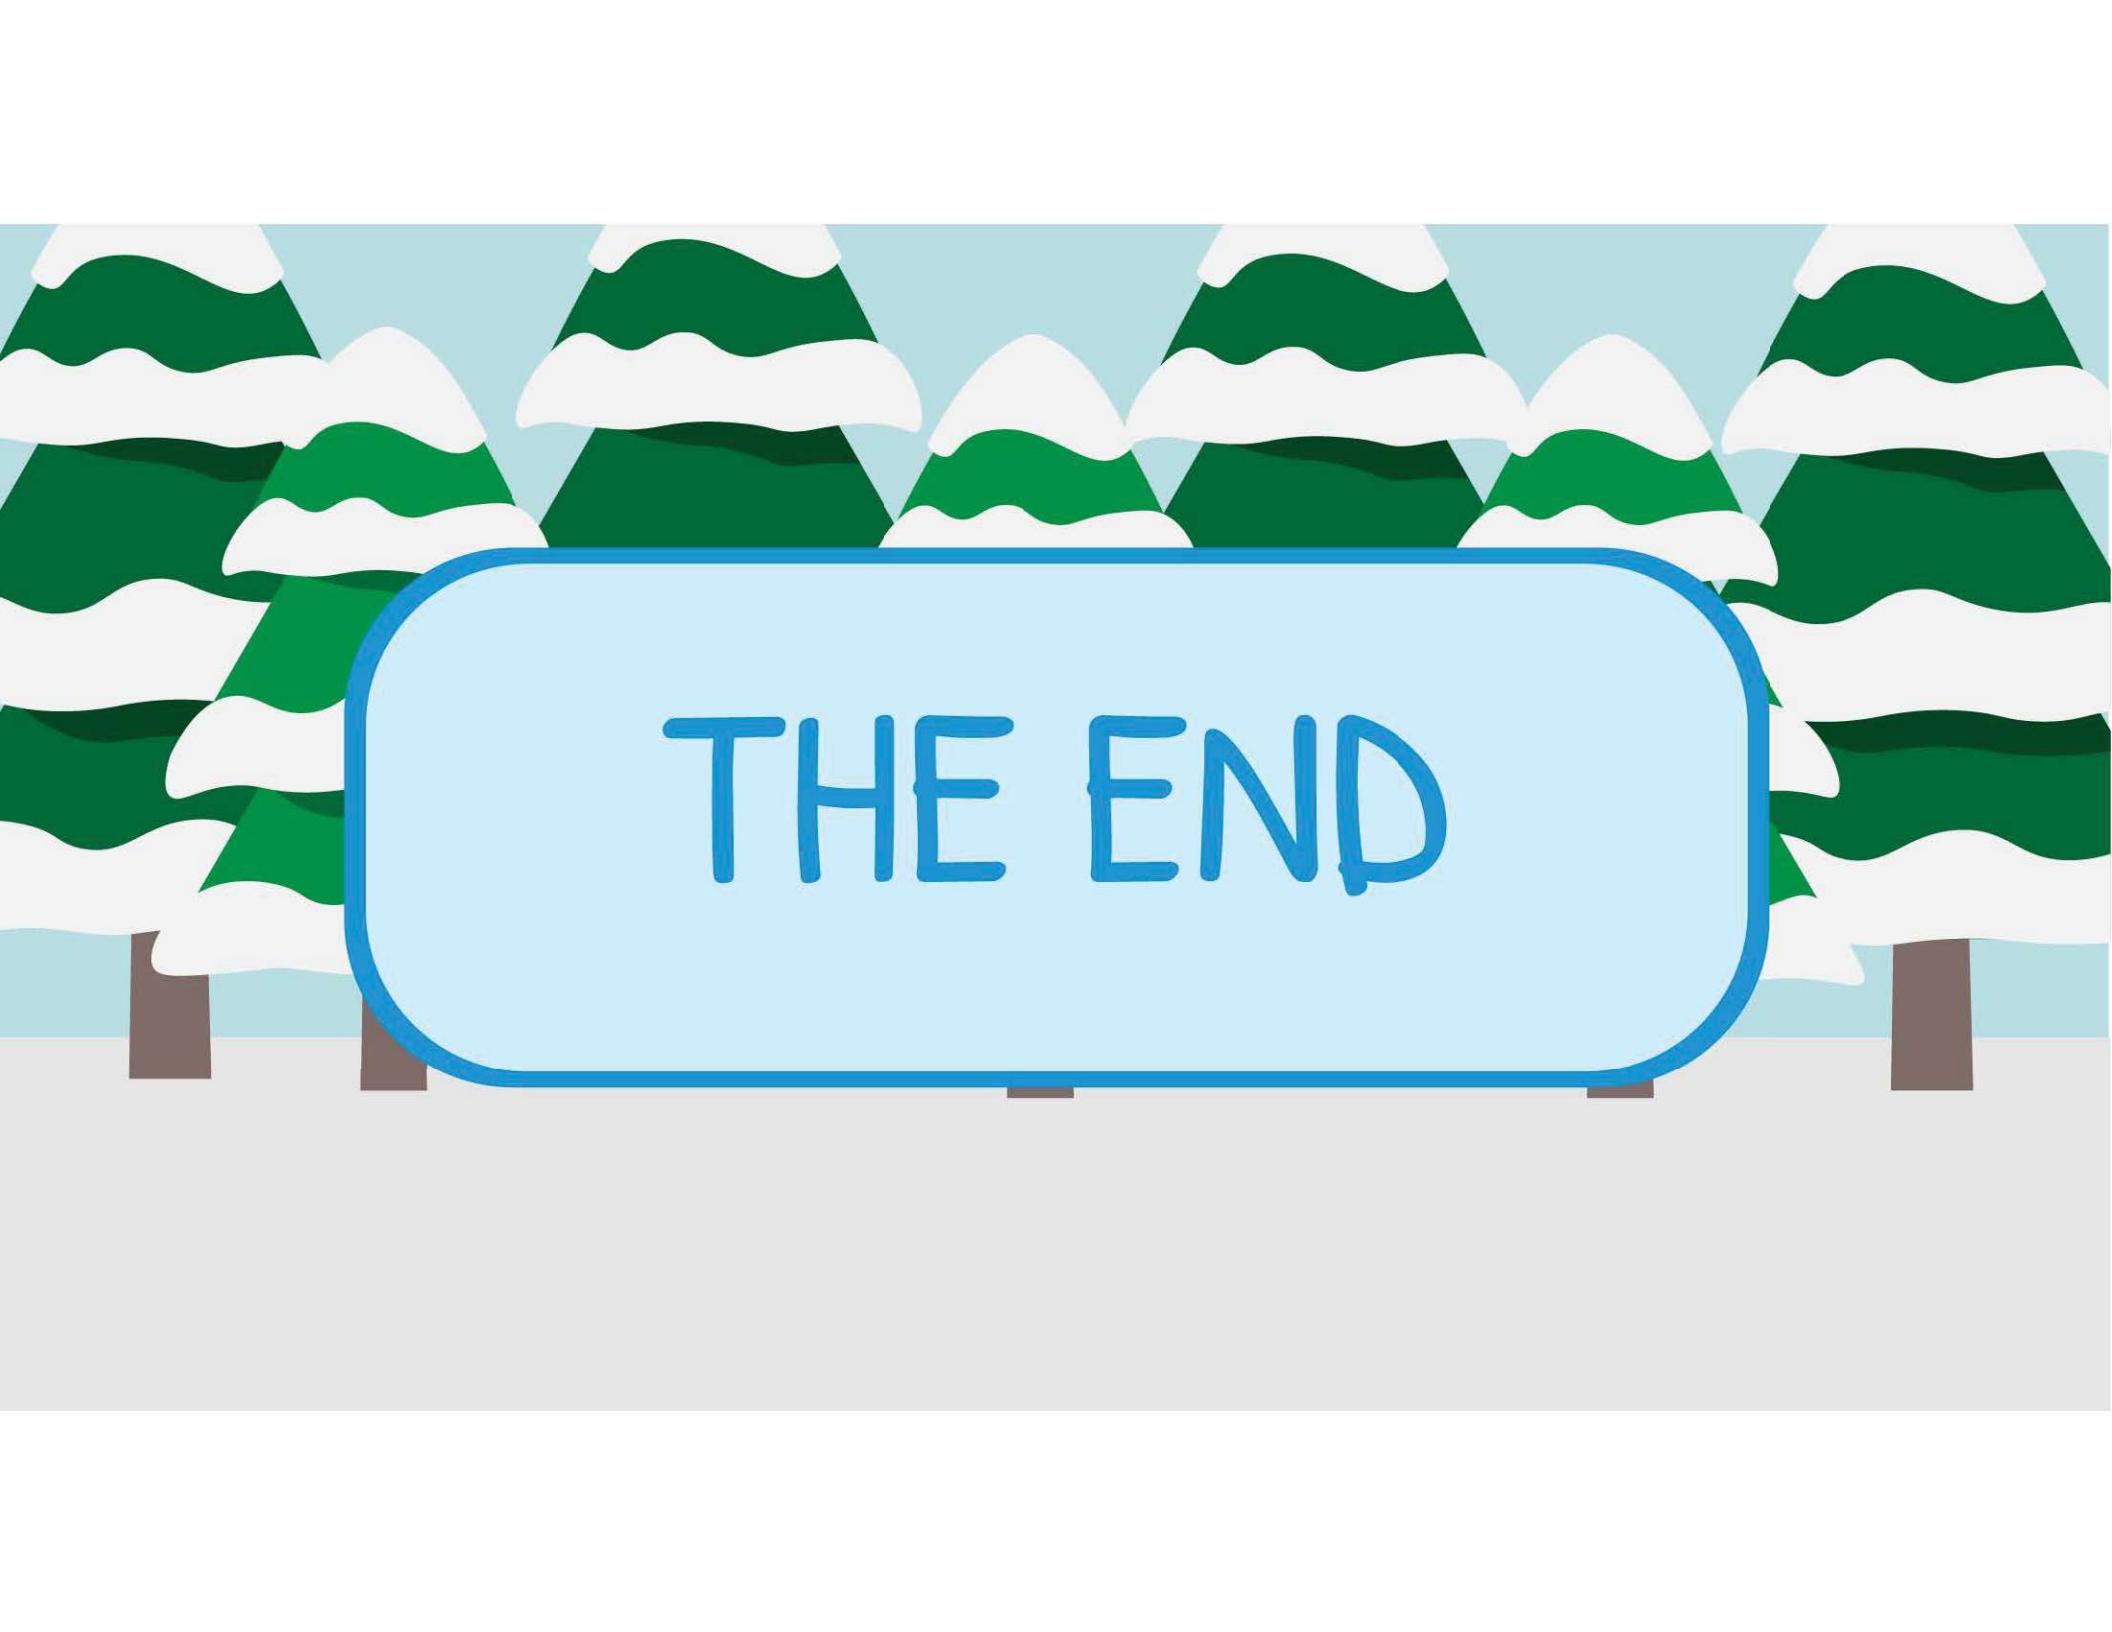

That sounds perfect!

Let's go outside and play!

THE END

I'm the explorer! I like to find new things!

I'm the athlete! I like to ice-skate!

I'm the artist! I like to create!

I'm the gardener! I like to take care of my plants!
